Ratan Bhatnagar, 1947 Samskr̥ti sandhāna, 1995 The Indian P.E.N., 1957 Haryana, a Historical Perspective

Satish Chandra Mittal, 1986 This is an authoritative attempt at a reconstruction of the historical past of Haryana. It is the first systematic and analytical study of the political developments in Haryana from the third battle of Panipat in 1761 to the formation of a new state of Haryana in 1966. The work examines the nature of political ideas, institutions and the course of struggle of the people of Haryana in a historical perspective. It analyses the character of the administration of Haryana under various types of government: i.e. the local chiefs, the East India Company and the British Crown. Besides critically examining the nature and character of mutual rivalries and conflicts of the local chiefs, the work analyses the factors and forces leading to the changing attitude and policy of the British residents and the Governor Generals of India. It also answers such pertinent questions as to why this region could not gain a separate political and administrative identity earlier and was tagged to Delhi, 1803; North Western Provinces, 1834; or the Punjab, 1858. This work meticulously describes the nature and frequently changing masters of the region. The wider impact of the 1857 Uprising, the socio-religious reform movements of the nineteenth century, the emergence of the political consciousness, the nature and course of the national movement in the region up to the partition of India in 1947 and finally the demand and formation of a new separate state in 1966. This book will be of immense interest to the general reader as well as scholars and also serve as a useful reference on the national and political history of India. Knit

India Through Literature Volume IV - The North Sivasankari, 2024-05-23 Knit India Through Literature is a mega literary project, first of its kind in Indian literature. It is the result of the penance yagna done for 16 years by Sivasankari, a noted Tamil writer. Knit India Through Literature has involved intense sourcing, research and translation of literature from 18 Indian languages. The project, she says, aims to introduce Indians to other Indians through literature and culture and help knit them together. The interviews of stalwart writers from all 18 languages, approved by the eighth schedule of the Indian Constitution, accompanied by a creative work of the respective writer, are published with her travelogues of different regions along with an in-depth article by a scholar on the cultural and literary heritage of each of the languages in four volumes: South, East, West and North respectively. Her travelogues, her interviews and the overview of each literature she has sought all reveal one important unity: the concern our writers and poets express in their works for the problems that beset our country today.

Through her project Sivasankari feels writers can make an invaluable contribution with their writings to change the thinking of the people and help eliminate those problems In this volume North she deals with five languages Kashmiri Punjabi Urdu Hindi and Sanskrit that are spoken in northern region of India Origin and Development of Hindi/Urdu Literature
