Women Mobilizing Memory Ayşe Gül Altınay, María José Contreras, Marianne Hirsch, Jean Howard, Banu Karaca, Alisa Solomon, 2019-08-06 Women Mobilizing Memory a transnational exploration of the intersection of feminism history and memory shows how the recollection of violent histories can generate possibilities for progressive futures Questioning the politics of memory making in relation to experiences of vulnerability and violence this wide ranging collection asks How can memories of violence and its afterlives be mobilized for change What strategies can disrupt and counter public forgetting What role do the arts play in addressing the erasure of past violence from current memory and in creating new visions for future generations Women Mobilizing Memory emerges from a multiyear feminist collaboration bringing together an interdisciplinary group of scholars artists and activists from Chile Turkey and the United States The essays in this book assemble and discuss a deep archive of works that activate memory across a variety of protest cultures ranging from seemingly minor acts of defiance to broader resistance movements The memory practices it highlights constitute acts of repair that demand justice but do not aim at restitution They invite the creation of alternative histories that can reconfigure painful pasts and presents Giving voice to silenced memories and reclaiming collective memories that have been misrepresented in official narratives Women Mobilizing Memory offers an alternative to more monumental commemorative practices It models a new direction for memory studies and testifies to a continuing hope for an alternative future

Trauma and Literature in an Age of Globalization Jennifer Ballengee, David Kelman, 2021-01-28 While globalization is often associated with economic and social progress it has also brought new forms of terrorism permanent states of emergency demographic displacement climate change and other natural disasters Given these contemporary concerns one might also view the current time as an age of traumatism Yet what or how does the traumatic event mean in an age of global catastrophe This volume explores trauma theory in an age of globalization by means of the practice of comparative literature The essays and interviews in this volume ask how literary studies and the literary anticipate imagine or theorize the current global climate especially in an age when the links between violence amorphous traumatic events and economic concerns are felt increasingly in everyday experience Trauma and Literature in an Age of Globalization turns a literary perspective upon the most urgent issues of globalization problems of borders language inequality and institutionalized violence and considers from a variety of perspectives how such events impact our lived experience and its representation in language and literature

Compression reduces the file size, making it easier to share and download. Can I fill out forms in a PDF file? Yes, most PDF viewers/editors like Adobe Acrobat, Preview (on Mac), or various online tools allow you to fill out forms in PDF files by selecting text fields and entering information. Are there any restrictions when working with PDFs? Some PDFs might have restrictions set by their creator, such as password protection, editing restrictions, or print restrictions. Breaking these restrictions might require specific software or tools, which may or may not be legal depending on the circumstances and local laws.
