

The book cover features a warm, golden-yellow background. At the top, the author's name 'ANDY MULLIGAN' is written in a serif font. Below it, the title 'Wonder' is rendered in large, dark, textured letters that appear to be made of leaves or petals. A silhouette of a young boy with his arms outstretched stands in the center, looking up at the title. The background is filled with a soft, glowing light and a faint, hazy cityscape. The overall mood is hopeful and uplifting.

on early years and on attendance reflecting deeply worrying data showing that almost two in five disadvantaged pupils were persistently absent in the last school year. Firmly located in the current educational policy context, it incorporates the latest science on how we can develop oracy, for example, on new approaches to teaching reading and on why belonging, school connectedness and agency are emerging as critical to the success of disadvantaged learners. The second edition includes many new case studies from outstanding schools which have successfully drawn on and developed ideas from the first edition, making them their own. Bringing together the latest data, research and stories from schools that have made the difference to close the gap, Reaching the Unseen Children remains an essential guide for anyone working in education today who is seeking equity for all their pupils.

And Social Justice for All Lisa Van Engen, 2019-02-26. Equips parents to inspire kids to take on social injustice at any age. With the constant barrage of difficult stories through news and social media, today's kids are increasingly aware of the real problems real people confront every day. And they're quicker than ever to come to parents and other trusted adults to ask how they can help or why they're not already doing so. And Social Justice for All equips Christian families to tackle social justice issues together. It inspires them to bring light and love to a dark and scary world. Educator and mom Lisa Van Engen creates innovative resources to engage kids in understanding and responding to fourteen justice issues such as clean water, creation care, immigration and refugees, hunger, race and poverty. After placing each issue in a kid-friendly context, she offers interactive features: high-interest conversation starters for each age group to challenge thinking and assumptions; a family devotional to anchor each social justice issue in God's Word; engaging age-tiered activities for reading, playing, observing, creating, connecting and experimenting in God's world; tips and internet links to extend awareness and invest resources in social justice. Throughout each chapter, children speak their own thoughts about injustice and what they think God is calling them to do. By looking at both the roots of injustice and what Christians can do right now to help, And Social Justice for All empowers both adults and children to encounter a broken world with insight and empathy. Simple yet powerful, it lights the path for families to make a real God-directed difference together.

teachers take responsibility for promoting high standards of literacy and correct use of standard English whatever the teacher's specialism. That's no bad thing but it leaves some of us feeling under-trained and over-exposed. Enter the Literacy Across the Curriculum Pocketbook. The book is based on four principles: literacy is important for all learning; we owe it to our pupils to help them develop their literacy; developing strategies for LAC enhances teaching and learning across the school; teachers do not have to be literacy experts to promote LAC. In a series of punchy chapters: Speaking for Success, Write Better, Vamp up your Vocabulary, Splendid Spelling, Raring to Read, Caroline Bentley Davies presents practical ideas and simple strategies for incorporating literacy skills into your own lessons. All this plus some really helpful advice on note-making and a self-audit LAC checklist. Literacy Across the Curriculum Pocketbook is a necessity for all teachers wanting to find manageable, effective and exciting ways of promoting literacy in their lessons. A great resource. Justin Wakefield, Literacy, make tricky spelling stick, weave literacy seamlessly into your lessons. I love it. Lesley Ann McDermott, History Teacher, St Patrick's Catholic College, Thornaby-on-Tees. Contains everything you should know about Literacy and more. Written in a clear and concise manner even as an experienced English teacher it still taught me a trick or two. Sarah Martin, CPD Leader, Academies Enterprise Trust.
