The Limits of Autobiography Leigh Gilmore, 2023-07-15 In The Limits of Autobiography Leigh Gilmore analyzes texts that depict trauma by combining elements of autobiography fiction biography history and theory in ways that challenge the constraints of autobiography Astute and compelling readings of works by Michel Foucault Louis Althusser Dorothy Allison Mikal Gilmore Jamaica Kincaid and Jeanette Winterson explore how each poses the questions How have I lived and How will I live in relation to the social and psychic forms within which trauma emerges First published in 2001 this new edition of one of the foundational texts in trauma studies includes a new preface by the author that assesses the gravitational pull between life writing and trauma in the twenty first century a tension that continues to produce innovative and artful means of confronting kinship violence and self representation Adventurous Women in Contemporary American Historical Fiction Jeannette King, 2022-03-10 This book brings together for the first time nine groundbreaking historical novels by women from the United States Canada and Latin America united by their focus on female adventurers These novels introduce the neglected women of history real and imagined who accompanied their menfolk to the New World and enabled its settlement or colonisation Familiar novelists include Isabel Allende Audrey Thomas and Jane Smiley but this book also introduces less familiar writers who have produced richly textured and densely historical novels In addition to putting women back into history these writers engage with the literature of the past including the American canon of male fiction which dominated literary history before the intervention of feminist scholars The book begins with an introduction to the history of historical fiction and provides a theoretical historical and geographical context for the novels themselves Confessional Crises and Cultural Politics in Twentieth-century America Dave Tell, 2012 Examines the role of confession in American culture Argues that the genre of confession has profoundly shaped and been shaped by six of America's most intractable cultural issues sexuality class race violence religion and democracy Provided by publisher Catalogue of the Library of Congress Library of Congress, 1864 The Athenaeum, 1860 Untying the Mother Tongue Antonio Castore, Federico Dal Bo, 2023-09-04 Untying the Mother Tongue explores what it might mean today to speak of someone's attachment to a particular primary language Traditional conceptions of mother tongue are often seen as an expression of the ideology of a European nation state Yet current celebrations of multilingualism reflect the recent demands of global capitalism raising other challenges The contributions from international scholars on literature philosophy and culture analyze and problematize the concept of mother tongue rethinking affective and cognitive attachments to language while deconstructing its metaphysical capitalist and colonialist presuppositions Benjamin's Arcades Peter Buse, 2006-09-19 Benjamin's Arcades is an innovative text for students and specialists on the intellectual and political context of Walter Benjamin's unfinished masterpiece The Arcades Project It includes a special convoluted index to aid the reader in discovering recurrent themes and ideas both in the book itself and Benjamin's methods Athenaeum and London Literary Chronicle, 1871 B-M, pages
