Wahl, 1995 From Psycho Silence of the Lambs Kojak and Melrose Place from books music cartoons advertising and newspapers we all derive our images of mental illness These omnipresent media portrayals are at the least insensitive inaccurate and unfavorable and at the worst stigmatizing and pernicious In this important book Dr Otto Wahl examines the prevalence nature and impact of such depictions using numerous examples from film television and print media He documents the remarkable frequency of these images and demonstrates how the media has stereotyped the mentally ill through exaggeration misunderstanding ridicule and disrespect Media Madness also shows the damaging consequences of such stereotypes stigma rejection loss of self esteem reluctance to seek accept or reveal psychiatric treatment discrimination and restriction of opportunity The forces that shape current images of mental illness are clarified as are the efforts of organizations and individuals to combat such exploitation Shel Silverstein Michael Gray Baughan, 2013-11 An introduction to the life and career of the author of such iconic works as The Giving Tree A Light in the Attic and Where the Sidewalk Ends Shel Silverstein Johannah Haney, 2014-01-01 Shel Silverstein's works have sold over 20 million copies and have been translated into more than 30 languages A cartoonist songwriter poet playwright and author Silverstein's style is unforgettable His wacky illustrations and poems are thought provoking engaging and smart Readers will be inspired to learn more about how this incredible artist approached his work and what techniques he utilized to create and illustrate his unmistakable style Uncle Shelby's Abz Book Silvers, Poetry's Playground Joseph T. Thomas, 2007 The first book length study of contemporary American children's poetry Poetry's Playground considers children's poetry in relation to the wider scope of adult poetic discourse Great Poets & Playwrights Britannica Educational Publishing, 2014-01-01 As with novelists and short story writers the job of poets and playwrights is to elicit emotion and generate thought The difference is that the latter authors do so while adhering to rules different than those governing standard prose works Where poets create rich verses loaded with subtext playwrights rely largely on dialogue to create poignant scenes that become all the more powerful when performed onstage This captivating collection of biographies profiles some of the greatest writers of poetry and drama from Aeschylus to Diane Ackerman Sophocles to David Mamet

No Kids Allowed Michelle Ann Abate, 2020-10-13 Children's literature isn't just for children anymore This original study explores the varied forms and roles of children's literature when it's written for adults What do Adam Mansbach's Go the F*ck to Sleep and Barbara Park's MA There's Nothing to Do Here have in common These large format picture books are decidedly intended for parents rather than children In No Kids Allowed Michelle Ann Abate examines a constellation of books that form a paradoxical new genre children's literature for adults Distinguishing these books from YA and middle grade fiction that appeals to adult readers Abate argues that there is something unique about this phenomenon Principally defined by its form and audience children s literature Abate demonstrates engages with more than mere nostalgia when recast for grown up readers Abate examines how board books coloring books bedtime stories and series detective fiction written and published specifically for adults question the boundaries of genre and challenge the assumption that adulthood and childhood are mutually exclusive
