The Human Animal Earthling Identity Carrie P. Freeman, 2020-12-01 With The Human Animal Earthling Identity Carrie P Freeman asks us to reconsider the devastating division we have created between the human and animal conditions leading to mass exploitation injustice and extinction As a remedy Freeman believes social movements should collectively foster a cultural shift in human identity away from an egoistic anthropocentrism human centered outlook and toward a universal altruism species centered ethic so people may begin to see themselves more broadly as human animal earthlings To formulate the basis for this identity shift Freeman examines overlapping values supporting life fairness responsibility and unity that are common in global rights declarations and in the current campaign messages of sixteen global social movement organizations that work on human civil rights nonhuman animal protection and or environmental issues such as Amnesty International Human Rights Watch CARE People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals the World Wildlife Fund the Sea Shepherd Conservation Society the Nature Conservancy the Rainforest Action Network and Greenpeace She also interviews the leaders of these advocacy groups to gain their insights on how human and nonhuman protection causes can become allies by engaging common opponents and activating shared values and goals on issues such as the climate crisis enslavement extinction pollution inequality destructive farming and fishing and threats to democracy Freeman's analysis of activist discourse considers ethical ideologies on behalf of social justice animal rights and environmentalism using animal rights respect for sentient individuals as a bridge connecting human rights to a more holistic valuing of species and ecological systems Ultimately Freeman uses her findings to recommend a set of universal values around which all social movements campaign messages can collectively cultivate respectful relations between human animal earthlings fellow sentient beings and the natural world we share Captive Jo-Anne McArthur, Virginia McKenna, 2017-06-15 In this follow up to We Animals Canadian photojournalist Jo Anne McArthur explores zoos and aquaria and how we animals interact with those animals In over one hundred photographs Captive reveals the lives of animals in zoos and aquaria around the world McArthur photographed animals in these situations for over a decade and the book will include images from over 20 countries on five continents shot most recently in the last year while she was working with The Born Free Foundation in Europe The book has contributions from Virginia McKenna co founder of the Born Free Foundation philosopher Lori Gruen and Ron Kagan CEO of the Detroit Zoo We re at an important point in history right now More than ever ordinary people are thinking about the ethics of keeping animals in captivity for our entertainment This reflection will help propel us into a new era of re considering our relationship with other animals Captive aims to be a part of these important discussions Like an Animal: Critical

Animal Studies Approaches to Borders, Displacement, and Othering , 2021-06-17 The contributors of Like an Animal challenge most fundamental concepts in the fields of racism dehumanization borders displacement and refugees that rest on the assumption of humanism They show how we can bend the arc of the moral universe toward justice at the border The goal of this interdisciplinary collection is twofold First to invite border migration studies to consider a broader social justice perspective that includes nonhuman animals Second to start a discussion if nonhumans maybe refugees of a kind and how humans can address nonhumans interests and needs from the perspective of addressing refugee issues As capitalism and the climate crisis are taking a catastrophic toll on the planet this timely volume exposes the alternative origins of violence that lie at the heart of the planet s destruction Emerging Voices for Animals in Tourism Jes Hooper, Carol Kline, 2024-02-14

While the study of animal human interactions within the context of tourism has been explored in a greater number and diversity of ways within the last decade the discourse remains divided between traditional tourism academia and outside disciplines looking in Tourism academia has borrowed philosophical ethical gender studies sociological ecological conservation and economic lenses to explore animals in tourism however collaboration with authors external to tourism studies remains few This edited volume strengthens the bridge between tourism academia and other disciplines by highlighting the fresh perspectives emerging methodologies and innovative interdisciplinary conventions at the forefront of animals in tourism research whilst critically working towards more ethical human animal interactions within the tourism and leisure space Split into four parts emerging motivations emerging cultures emerging narratives and emerging reflections this unique text will be widely applicable to scholars working towards equitable human animal interactions within tourism

Hidden: Animals in the Anthropocene Jo-Anne McArthur, Keith Wilson, 2020-11-17 A collection of stunning images from some of the world s leading photographers of animals in the human environment HIDDEN Animals in the Anthropocene is an unflinching book of photography about our conflict with non human animals around the globe Through the lenses of thirty award winning photojournalists HIDDEN shines a light on the invisible animals in our lives those with whom we have a close relationship and yet fail to see The animals we eat and wear the animals we use for research work and for entertainment the animals we sacrifice in the name of tradition and religion HIDDEN is a historical document a memorial and an indictment of what is and should never again be Showcased by award winning designer David Griffin HIDDEN represents the work of thirty photojournalists who have documented and continue to document animal stories Their exhaustive and in depth work has resulted in some of the most compelling and historic images of animals ever seen Among them are in alphabetical order Aaron Gekoski Aitor Garmendia Amy Jones Andrew Skowron Britta Jaschinski Daniel Beltr Djurattsalliansen Francesco Pistilli Jan van Ijken Joan de la Malla Jo Anne McArthur Jose Valle Kelly Guerin Kristo Muurimaa Konrad Lozinski Louise Jorgensen Luis Tato Murdo MacLeod Paul Hilton Sabine Grootendorst Selene Magnolia Stefano Belacchi Tamara Kenneally and Timo Stammberger The photojournalists featured in Hidden have entered some of the darkest most unsettling places in the world The images they have captured are a searing reminder of our unpardonable behavior towards animals and will serve as beacons of change for years to come Joaquin Phoenix actor I am quite simply in awe of these photographers In a way they are like war photographers except witness to a war that so many people choose to suppress that exists This takes enormous inner strength and bloody minded determination because they cannot save any of the animals that they photograph they can only hope that their photos will help illuminate the mass extermination that unfolds every second of every day across the planet To me they are heroes Not just for one day but over and over and over again Nick Brandt photographer

Knowing Life Brianne Donaldson,2025-02-28 Knowing Life examines the limits of dominant knowledge forms that contribute to current practices negatively affecting more than human beings while also exploring alternative approaches to knowing that are capable of reducing harm and maximizing planetary thriving

Specifically this volume seeks multispecies answers to long standing questions in Western philosophy Who or what counts as a knower What kinds of knowing are valid Is knowledge a product of mind body or something else Historically these epistemic questions have been answered in ways that neutralize the knowing and knowledge contribution of and for more than human beings as well as those on the margins of society considered less than human Consequently these epistemic assumptions often support the destruction of ecological habitats industrialization of food animals widespread use of insect and plant toxins water and air pollution climate extinctions ecological militarism and the perpetual flow of living beings used for entertainment research clothing companionship and economic resources In this book crosscultural and multidisciplinary contributors including lesser known global religious philosophical accounts philosophies of plant and insect life race and disability studies laboratory epistemology embodied semiotics and scholar artists challenge and expand these classical concepts through diverse modes of embodied engagement on multispecies knowing toward open futures of planetary co flourishing

Mourning Animals Margo DeMello, 2016-08-01 We live more intimately with nonhuman animals than ever before in history The change in the way we cohabitate with animals can be seen in the way we treat them when they die There is an almost infinite variety of ways to help us cope with the loss of our nonhuman friends from burial cremation and taxidermy to wearing or displaying the remains ashes fur or other parts of our deceased animals in jewelry tattoos or other artwork to counselors who specialize in helping people mourn pets to classes for veterinarians to tips to help the surviving animals who are grieving their animal friends to pet psychics and memorial websites But the reality is that these practices and related beliefs about animal souls or animal afterlife generally only extend with very few exceptions to certain kinds of animals pets Most animals in most cultures are not mourned and the question of an animal afterlife is not contemplated at all Mourning Animals investigates how we mourn animal deaths which animals are grievable and what the implications are for all animals

Feminist Animal and Multispecies Studies: Critical Perspectives on Food and Eating, 2023-12-04 This book develops critical feminist animal and multispecies studies across various societal and environmental contexts The chapters discuss timely questions broadly related to food and eating stemming from connections drawn between critical animal studies feminist theory and multispecies studies The themes explored include trans inclusive ecofeminism decolonial perspectives to veganism links between the critique of ableism and animal exploitation alternatives to dominant Western masculinities invested in meat consumption and the politics of sex and purity in factory farming The book explores responses to interlinked forms of exploitation by focusing on sites such as sanctuaries educational institutions social media and animal advocacy

The Animals' Agenda Marc Bekoff, Jessica Pierce, 2017-04-18 A compelling argument that the time has come to use what we know about the fascinating and diverse inner lives of other animals on their behalf Every day we are learning new and surprising facts about just how intelligent and emotional animals are did you know rats like to play and laugh and also display empathy and the ears and noses of cows tell us how they re feeling At times we humans translate that knowledge into compassion for other animals think of the public outcry against the fates of Cecil the lion or the captive gorilla Harambe But on the whole our growing understanding of what animals feel is not resulting in more respectful treatment of them

Renowned animal behavior expert Marc Bekoff and leading bioethicist Jessica Pierce explore the real world experiences of five categories of animals beginning with those who suffer the greatest deprivations of freedoms and choice chickens pigs and cows in industrial food systems as well as animals used in testing and research including mice rats cats dogs and chimpanzees Next Bekoff and Pierce consider animals for whom losses of freedoms are more ambiguous and controversial namely individuals held in zoos and aquaria and those kept as companions Finally they reveal the unexpected ways in which the freedoms of animals in the wild are constrained by human activities and argue for a more compassionate approach to conservation In each case scientific studies combine with stories of individual animals to bring readers face to face with the wonder of our fellow beings as well as the suffering they endure and the major paradigm shift that is needed to truly ensure their well being The Animals Agenda will educate and inspire people to rethink how we affect other animals and how we can evolve toward more peaceful and less violent ways of interacting with our animal kin in an increasingly human dominated world

Ecology and Literatures in English Françoise Besson, 2018-12-14 In all latitudes writers hold out a mirror leading the reader to awareness by telling real or imaginary stories about people of good will who try to save what can be saved and about animals showing humans the way to follow Such tales argue that in spite of all destructions and tragedies if we are just aware of and connected to the real world around us to the blade of grass at our feet and the star above our heads there is hope in a reconciliation with the Earth This may start with the emergence or rather the return of a nonverbal language restoring the connection between human beings and the nonhuman world through a form of communication beyond verbalization Through a journey in Anglophone literature with examples taken from Aboriginal African American English Canadian and Indian works this book shows the role played by literature in the protection of the planet It argues that literature reveals the fundamental idea that everything is connected and that it is only when most people are aware of this connection that the world will change Exactly as a tree is connected with all the animal life in and around it texts show that nothing should be separated From Shakespeare's theatre to ecopoetics from travel writing to detective novels from children's books to novels all literary genres show that literature responds to the violence destroying lands men and nonhuman creatures whose voices can be heard through texts

Voices of the Herd Mark Peters, 2025-10-14 Did you know cows have best friends and form powerful lasting bonds with their calves Voices of the Herd takes you inside animal sanctuaries revealing the hidden lives of rescued cows through breathtaking black and white photography and heartfelt stories With each portrait Mark Peters captures their personalities resilience and the love they share while exposing the harsh realities of animal agriculture This stunning coffee table book challenges how we see cows not as livestock but as sentient beings with rich inner lives Each portrait includes a caption that offers a glimpse into its subject's life before rescue Stories penned by sanctuary staff give moving testimony to the healing power of care and the resilience of these gentle souls An essay by an animal welfare scientist deepens our understanding of their emotions and body language More than a visual journey Voices of the Herd is a call to compassion Turn each page to witness the intelligence curiosity and courage of these remarkable animals and discover why their stories matter Making Milk Mathilde Cohen,Yoriko Otomo,2019-05-30 What is milk Who is it for and what work does it do This collection of articles bring together an exciting group of the world s leading scholars from different disciplines to provide commentaries on multiple facets of the production consumption understanding and impact of milk on society The book frames the emerging global discussion around philosophical and critical theoretical engagements with milk In so doing various chapters bring into consideration an awareness of animals an aspect which has not yet been incorporated in these debates within these disciplines so far This brand new research from scholars includes writing from an array of perspectives including jurisprudence food law history geography art theory and gender studies It will be of use to professionals and researchers in such disciplines as anthropology visual culture cultural studies development studies food studies environment studies critical animal studies and gender studies Vegan Marketing Success Stories Sandra Nomoto,2022-06-01 The vegan marketing bible you ve been waiting for Billions of dollars are being invested into the vegan and plant based industries but who s going to come out on top Marketing touches almost every aspect of business messaging distribution customer service sales and public perception How do you know what marketing strategies or tactics work What media or social media outlets are important and when And how much should you budget Using case studies and examples from today s vegan industry leaders this vegan marketing book will teach you Marketing secrets of vegan and plant based businesses around the world How on and off line tactics contribute to a cohesive strategy Topical issues that few marketing books are talking about From reviewing the basics to defining the marketing terms you ve seen but perhaps haven t implemented Vegan Marketing Success Stories covers your bases in marketing vegan businesses all without requiring a million dollar marketing budget Learn what vegan brands did to weather the pandemic and some that transitioned to become vegan The vegan industry is on the rise and Vegan Marketing Success Stories is equal parts inspirational cautionary tale and the practical manual you ll need to succeed today In depth engaging and immediately applicable Vegan Marketing Success Stories will be a boon to your business whether you re a startup or already making waves Victoria Moran Chief Compassion Officer Main Street Vegan Academy Eastern Orthodox Christianity and Animal Suffering Christine Nellist,2018-10-25 This book is the first academic work in Eastern Orthodox theological literature on the subject of animal suffering and human soteriology It represents a natural progression of the contemporary Eastern Orthodox academic debate on the environment and will be of interest not only to academic scholars in theology religion philosophy and ethics but also to the wider Christian and secular communities Using Biblical and Patristic teachings together with new social science research and contemporary science it presents arguments that animal suffering is against God s Will and that the abuse or misuse of animals or indifference to animal suffering will result in negative consequences for human salvation The book posits a revisionist interpretation of the Noahic narrative when addressing the challenging question of why God allows the dispensation of animals as food and offers compelling arguments on why the contemporary animal food production industries and animal testing model should be rejected How to Create a Vegan World Leenaert, Tobias, 2017-07-05 The Ethics of Captivity Lori Gruen, 2014 In the United States roughly 2 million people are incarcerated billions of animals are held captive and then killed in the food industry every year hundreds of thousands of animals are kept in laboratories thousands are in zoos and aquaria millions of pets are captive in our homes Surprisingly despite the rich ethical questions it raises very little philosophical attention has been paid to questions raised by captivity Though conditions of captivity vary widely for humans and for other animals there are common ethical themes that imprisonment raises including the value of liberty the nature of autonomy the meaning of dignity and the impact of routine confinement on physical and psychological well being This volume brings together scholars scientists and sanctuary workers to address in fifteen new essays the ethical issues captivity raises Section One contains chapters written by those with expert knowledge about particular conditions of captivity and includes discussion of how captivity is experienced by dogs whales and dolphins elephants chimpanzees rabbits formerly farmed animals and human prisoners Section Two contains chapters by philosophers and social theorists that reflect on the social political and ethical issues raised by captivity including discussions about confinement domestication captive breeding for conservation the work of moral repair dignity and an ethics of sight and the role that coercion plays
