The Chinese Civil War 1945 - 1949 Irmtraud Eve Burianek,2012-08-21 Essay from the year 2010 in the subject Orientalism Sinology Chinese China grade language English abstract One of the best Chinese Civil War books of all time BookAuthority The Chinese civil war is one of the key events of 20th century The victory of the Communists over the Nationalists determined the Chinese history over several generations and defined international relations in East Asia throughout the Cold War era and after The civil war in China represents not only the clashes of armies but also of nations and classes As all civil wars it represents furthermore a traumatic and painful process within a people with atrocities on both sides and horrendous suffering of combatants and civilians The civil strife between the Nationalists and Communists on mainland China had begun in the 1920s coming to a head right after the end of World War II in 1945 when the Communists began the successful drive that won them final control over China in October 1949 From then on China was under the rule of Mao s Communist Party with one exception Taiwan The island southeast of mainland China was ruled by Chiang Kai shek Since 1949 the world has dealt with two Chinese states the People s Republic of China or PRC in mainland China under the Communists and the Republic of China or ROC in Taiwan under the Nationalists Healing Henan Sonya

Grypma,2008-07-01 While volumes have been written about the Protestant missionary movement in China scant attention has been paid to the role of nursing and nurses in these missions Set against a backdrop of war and revolution Healing Henan brings sixty years of missionary nursing out of the shadows by examining how Canadian nurses shaped health care in the province of Henan and how China in turn influenced the nature of missionary nursing From the time Presbyterian later United Church missionaries arrived in China in 1888 until the abrupt closure of the North China Mission in 1947 Canadian nurses were ubiquitous in Henan As China underwent a tumultuous transition from dynastic kingdom to independent republic Canadian nurses advanced a version of hospital based nursing education and practice that rivalled modern nursing care in Canada In Healing Henan Sonya Grypma offers a highly readable and fresh perspective on China missions and the global expansion of professional nursing As the first comprehensive study of missionary nursing in China it will be of particular interest to nurses and missionaries and to historians of Canada China nursing medicine women s work and missions Culture, Identity, Commodity Tseen Khoo,Kam Louie,2005-07-01

Culture Identity Commodity is a pioneering work focused on diasporic Chinese literary production in English It provides broad ranging critically engaged textual analyses that address the dynamic area of diasporic Chinese literary studies from American Australian and Canadian perspectives The innovative research in this collection comes from established and emerging scholars who draw on threads of transnational postcolonial globalization and racialization theories to engage with a broad range of texts including novels autobiographies plays and Chinese cooking shows In so doing the authors examine issues of cultural and racial identity the politics of Chinese ness and the commodification of race ethnicity and negotiations of belonging in contemporary Western society The breadth and depth of the volume s twelve chapters and critical introduction encapsulate vital components of this active research field The book is a handy reference and critical work for researchers and students and others interested in diasporic Chinese literatures in English contextualizing national conditions and interrogating the thematics of diasporic and transnational experiences The volume will be of interest to those researching in diasporic Asian studies Chinese and English literatures Australian Canadian or American literary studies as well as lay readers interested in intercultural creative and cultural issues
