Jennings Little Hut Jennings 3 By Anthony Buckeridge:

Jennings' Little Hut Anthony Buckeridge, 2001-08-05 The woodlands at Linbury Court become squatters territory when Jennings comes up with the idea of building huts out of reeds and branches But things can only go horribly wrong for Jennings when he is put in charge of Elmer the treasured goldfish and even worse when the Headmaster pays the squatters a visit Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal , Bookseller , 1967 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1973 The Whole Story John E. Simkin, 1996 This work is the only comprehensive guide to sequels in English with over 84 000 works by 12 500 authors in 17 000 sequences Reading Enid Blyton Philip Gillett, 2020-10-19 Enid Blyton has been disparaged by her critics since the 1950s and her stock is still low though this has not deterred readers New editions of her work have been published regularly since her death in 1968 Recently there have also been stage and television adaptations of her Malory Towers books while other authors have continued to write stories based on her characters There are also Famous Five parodies which rely on readers familiarity with the series A continuing affection for her work is apparent though it is not always clear whether this comes from parents or their children Reading Enid Blyton places the author's work in its cultural and historical context The book examines a sample of her vast output looking at five recurring themes a sense of place a sense of period a sense of childhood a sense of class and a sense of fantasy A survey of changing attitudes towards Blyton reveals contrasting ways of looking at her work and raises the question whether she was as reactionary a writer as she appeared Whitaker's Books in Print , 1998

Kirkpatrick, 1990 The English Catalogue of Books , 1967 Children as Place-Makers Simon Unwin, 2019-03-28 Each of these Analysing Architecture Notebooks is devoted to a particular theme in understanding the rich and varied workings of architecture They can be thought of as addenda to the foundation volume Analysing Architecture which first appeared in 1997 and has subsequently been enlarged in three further editions Examining these extra themes as a series of Notebooks rather than as additional chapters in future editions allows greater space for more detailed exploration of a wider variety of examples whilst avoiding the risk of the original book becoming unwieldy As children we make places spontaneously on the beach in woodland around our homes Those places are evidence of a natural language of architecture we all share Beginning with the child as seed and agent of the places it makes initial sections of Children as Place makers illustrate the key verbs that drive that natural language of architecture Later sections look at the core importance of the circle of place how as children we are drawn to inhabit boxes and the narrative possibilities that arise when place is linked with imagination The principal messages of this Notebook are that it is by place making we make sense of the space of the world in which we live and that the first step in becoming a professional architect is to re awaken the innate architect inside each of us Writers Directory NA NA,2016-03-05
