interview with the author Forever Young Chris Richards,2008 This book explores young adult fictions stories about being young staying young and sometimes never wanting to grow up Looking at controversial novels by Francesca Lia Block at sex and race in Buffy the Vampire Slayer and at the online world of fans and censors Chris Richards argues that attempts to classify and regulate what counts as young adult have failed and shows how youth as intense exciting and tormented draws audiences unconstrained by age Throughout the book the narratives of life as lived by the young emerge as the stuff of the self made and remade in reading watching and listening Fascinating and accessible Forever Young will be of particular interest to students and teachers concerned with contemporary popular culture in cultural media literature and education studies courses Children's Literature in Second Language Education Janice Bland,Christiane Lütge,2013-02-14 Leading international scholars and teacher educators explore the latest research into the effective uses of children s literature in language teaching for children and young adults Drugs on the Street Anne Rooney,2010 Drugs on the Street explores in eye opening detail a problem faced by young people all around the world It tackles subjects such as the circumstances that lead people to abuse or deal in drugs the physical psychological and social effects of addiction and how drug crime operates on an international scale Drugs and Popular Culture Paul Manning,2013-01-11 The use of illegal drugs is so common that a number of commentators now refer to the normalisation of drug consumption It is surprising then that to date very little academic work has explored drug use as part of contemporary popular culture This collection of readings will apply an innovatory multi disciplinary approach to this theme combining some of the most recent research on the normalisation thesis with fresh work on the relationship between drug use and popular culture In drawing upon criminological sociological and cultural studies approaches this book will make an important contribution to the newly emerging field positioned at the intersection of these disciplines The particular focus of the book is upon drug consumption as popular culture It aims to provide an accessible collection of chapters and readings that will explore drug use in popular culture in a way that is relevant to undergraduates and postgraduates studying a variety of courses including criminology sociology media studies health care and social work What Do We Tell the Children? Critical Essays on Children's Literature Ciara Ní Bhroin,Patricia Kennon,2012-03-15 This peer reviewed collection of critical essays on children s literature addresses contemporary debates regarding what constitutes suitable texts for young audiences The volume examines what adult writers tell their child readers with particular focus on the following areas the representation of sexuality gender and the body the treatment of death and trauma concepts of race prejudice and national identity and the use of children s literature as a tool for socializing acculturating politicizing and educating children The focus of the collection is on Irish and international fiction addressed at readers from mid childhood to young adulthood One section of the book examines what child readers were told in the past while another section examines young readers capacity for self invention through the participatory culture of the twenty first century Topics explored include the controversial issue of teenage prostitution and the commodification of the male body in contemporary young adult fiction the allure of celebrity and the impact of today's surveillance culture on young people the representation of the Holocaust for young readers and representations of Muslim characters and culture in a post 9/11 mediascape This collection which offers insights into a range of literary constructions and representations of childhood will be a valuable resource for students and scholars working in children's literature youth culture and childhood studies Contributors Jane Suzanne Carroll Norma Clarke Shehrazade Emmambokos Michele Gill Marnie Hay Eimear Hegarty Nora Maguire Kerry Mallan Anne Markey Kimberley Reynolds Beth Rodgers Kay Sambell This is the fifth publication of the Irish Society for the Study of Children's Literature ISSCL It follows the Society's publication of Studies in Children's Literature 1500-2000 Dublin Four Courts Press 2004 Treasure Islands Studies in Children's Literature Dublin Four Courts Press 2006 Divided Worlds Studies in Children's Literature Dublin Four Courts Press 2007 and Young Ireland's Studies in Children's Literature Dublin Four Courts Press 2011
