Black Humour in Graham Swift's Last Orders Mouhib Fares, 2013

The Cambridge History of Twentieth-Century English Literature Laura Marcus, Peter Nicholls, 2004 Publisher Description

Posting the Male Daniel Lea, Berthold Schoene-Harwood, 2003 The essays collected in Posting the Male examine representations of masculinity in post war and contemporary British literature focussing on the works of writers as diverse as John Osborne Joe Orton James Kelman Ian Rankin Carol Ann Duffy Alan Hollinghurst Ian McEwan Graham Swift and Jackie Kay The collection seeks to capture the current historical moment of crisis at which masculinity loses its universal transparency and becomes visible as a performative gender construct Rather than denoting just one fixed polarised point on a hierarchised axis of strictly segregated gender binaries masculinity is revealed to oscillate within a virtually limitless spectrum of gender identities characterised not by purity and self containment but by difference and alterity As the contributors demonstrate rather than a gender in crisis millennial manhood is a gender in transition Patriarchal strategies of man making are gradually being replaced by less exclusionary patterns of self identification inspired by feminism Men have begun to recognise themselves as gendered beings and as a result masculinity has been set in motion (Re-)mapping London Vanessa Guignery,2008

The Revisions of Englishness David Rogers,John McLeod,2004 Diverse and often competing notions of Englishness have been critiqued by a variety of writers and critics who have become concerned about received visions of Englishness in the post war period An exciting and provocative collection of essays which registers the changes to Englishness since the 1950s this book explores how Englishness has been revised for a variety of aesthetic and political purposes and makes a ground breaking contribution to the contemporary debates in literary and cultural studies Ambiguous Selves Barbara Braid,2019-11-21 This collection of essays on selected texts in literature film and the media is driven by a shared theme of contesting the binary thinking in respect of gender and sexuality The three parts of this book contesting norms performing selves and blurring the lines delineate the queer celebration of difference and deviance They pinpoint the limitation of assumed norms and subverting them revel in the fluid and ambiguous self that springs from the contestation of those norms and then repeatedly transgress and as a result obscure the limits that separate the normal from the abnormal The variety of texts included in the collection ranges from a discussion of queer subjects represented in film television and literature to that of the representations of other non normative figures including a madwoman a freak or a prostitute and to gender role contestation and gender bending practicing evidenced in the press theatre film literature and popular culture Fictional Dialogue Bronwen Thomas,2012-05-01 Experimentation with the speech of characters has been hailed by G rard Genette as one of the main paths of emancipation in the modern novel Dialogue as a stylistic and narrative device is a key feature in the development of the novel as a genre yet it is also a phenomenon little acknowledged or explored in the critical literature Fictional Dialogue demonstrates the richness and versatility of dialogue as a narrative technique in twentieth and twenty first century novels by focusing on extended extracts and sequences of utterances It also examines how different versions of dialogue may help to normalize or idealize certain patterns and practices thereby excluding alternative possibilities or eliding unevenness and differences Bronwen Thomas by bringing together theories and models of fictional dialogue from a wide range of disciplines and intellectual traditions shows how the subject raises profound questions concerning our understanding of narrative and human communication The first study of its kind to combine literary and narratological analysis with reference to linguistic terms and models Bakhtinian theory cultural history media theory and cognitive approaches this book is also the first to focus in depth on the dialogue novel in the twentieth and twenty first centuries and to bring together examples of dialogue from literature popular fiction and nonlinear narratives Beyond critiquing existing methods of analysis it outlines a promising new method for analyzing fictional dialogue Eventfulness in British Fiction

Peter Hühn,2010-03-26 An event defined as the decisive turn the surprising point in the plot of a narrative constitutes its tellability the motivation for reading it This book describes a framework for a narratological definition of eventfulness and its dependence on the historical socio cultural and literary context A series of fifteen analyses of British novels and tales from late medieval and early modern times to the late 20th century demonstrates how this concept can be put into practice for a new specifically contextual interpretation of the central relevance of these texts The examples include Chaucer s Miller s Tale Behn s Oroonoko Defoe s Moll Flanders Richardson s Pamela Fielding s Tom Jones Dickens s Great Expectations Hardy s On the Western Circuit James s The Beast in the Jungle Joyce s Grace Conrad s Shadow Line Woolf s Unwritten Novel Lawrence s Fanny and Annie Mansfield s At the Bay Fowles s Enigma and Swift s Last Orders This selection is focused on the transitional period from 19th century realism to 20th century modernism because during these decades traditional concepts of what counts as an event were variously problematized therefore these texts provide a particularly interesting field for testing the analytical capacity of the term of eventfulness Confessions of a Guilty Freelancer William

Rostek,2011-01-01 From Daniel Defoe to Joseph Conrad from Virginia Woolf to Derek Walcott the sea has always been an inspiring setting and a powerful symbol for generations of British and Anglophone writers Seaing through the Past is the first study to explicitly address the enduring relevance of the maritime metaphor in contemporary Anglophone fiction through in depth readings of fourteen influential and acclaimed novels published in the course of the last three decades The book

trenchantly argues that in contemporary fiction maritime imagery gives expression to postmodernism's troubled relationship with historical knowledge as theorised by Hayden White Linda Hutcheon and others The texts in question are interpreted against the backdrop of four aspects of metahistorical problematisation Thus among others Iris Murdoch's The Sea the Sea 1978 is read in the context of auto biographical writing John Banville's The Sea 2005 as a narrative of personal trauma Julian Barnes's A History of the World in 101 2 Chapters 1989 as investigating the connection between discourses of origin and the politics of power and Fred D Aguiar's Feeding the Ghosts 1997 as opening up a postcolonial perspective on the sea and history Persuasive and topical Sealing through the Past offers a compelling guide to the literary oceans of today Intertext

Interpreting Texts Kim Ballard, 2013-04-15 Part of the Routledge A Level English Guides series this title focuses on developing the skills needed to successfully interpret texts and covers key aspects of the area including discourse intertextuality and theoretical approaches Booker Prize Novels, 1969-2005 Merritt Moseley, 2006 The Booker Prize renamed in 2002 to the Man Booker Prize is the most prestigious literary award given in the United Kingdom and one of the two or three most esteemed such awards in the world and confers literary recognition on novels that reflect and portray the state of culture Discusses the impact the Booker Prize had on the world of books the history of the Booker Prize the rules and judging and the various controversies that arose over awarding this prize The Beach in Anglophone Literatures and Cultures

Ursula Kluwick, Virginia Richter, 2016-03-09 From early colonial encounters to the ecological disasters of the twenty first century the performativity of contact has been a crucial element in the political significance of the beach Conceptualising the beach as a creative trope and as a socio cultural site as well as an aesthetically productive topography this collection examines its multiplicity of meanings and functions as a natural environment engendering both desire and fear in the human imagination from the Victorian period to the present The contributors examine literature film and art in addition to moments of encounter and environmental crisis to highlight the beach as a social space inspiring particular codes of behaviour and specific discourses as a geographical frontier between land and water as an historical site of contact and conflict and as a vacationscape promising regeneration and withdrawal from everyday life The diversity of the beach is reflected in the geographical range with essays on locales and texts from Britain Ireland the Caribbean South Africa the United States Polynesia and New Zealand Focusing on the changed function of the beach as a result of processes of industrialisation and the rise of a modern leisure and health culture this interdisciplinary volume theorises the beach as a demarcator of the precarious boundary between land and the sea as well as between nature and culture Adaptation and Appropriation Julie Sanders, 2015-11-19 From the apparently simple adaptation of a text into film theatre or a new literary work to the more complex appropriation of style or meaning it is arguable that all texts are somehow connected to a network of existing texts and art forms In this new edition Adaptation and Appropriation explores multiple definitions and practices of adaptation and appropriation the cultural and aesthetic politics behind the impulse to adapt the global and local dimensions of adaptation the impact of new digital technologies on ideas of making originality and customization diverse ways in which contemporary literature theatre television and film adapt revise and reimagine other works of art the impact on adaptation and appropriation of theoretical movements including structuralism post structuralism postcolonialism postmodernism feminism and gender studies the appropriation across time and across cultures of specific canonical texts by Shakespeare Dickens and others but also of literary archetypes such as myth or fairy tale Ranging across genres and harnessing concepts from fields as diverse as musicology and the natural sciences this volume brings clarity to the complex debates around adaptation and appropriation offering a much needed resource for those studying literature film media or culture
