Let It Come Down By Paul Bowles:

Let It Come Down Paul Bowles, 1952 Let It Come Down with its title from Macbeth tells the story of Dyar a New York bank clerk who throws up his secure humdrum job to find a reality abroad with which to identify himself and his macabre experiences in the inferno of Tangiers as he gives in to his darkest impulses Rich in descriptions of the corruption and decadence of the International Zone in the last days before Moroccan independence Bowles s second novel is an alternately comic and horrific account of a descent into nihilism Let it Come Down. Adipurwawidjana,M. B. Hackler,2009-03-26 This collection of essays comprised of research first presented at the seventh annual Louisiana Conference on Literature Language and Culture explores one of the most pervasive vexing and alluring concepts in the Humanities that of place Including essays which encompass a broad range of research fields and methodologies from Geography to Cybernetics it presents a cross section of approaches aimed revealing the complex cultural machinations behind what once may have seemed a static one dimensional topic Investigations into the function of place as a force in contemporary culture inevitably reveal a long history of the interplay between place and cultural product between context and text Just as traditional cultures mythologize sacred spaces so too has Western culture sanctified its own places through its literature Imagined places such as Faulker s Yoknapatawpha or Joyce s Dublin become the focus of conferences and festivals authors homes birthplaces and gravesites are transformed into sites of pilgrimage locales created for television shows and movies become actual businesses catering to a public for whom the line between fantasy and reality is increasingly blurred and persisting through the great cultural shifts of the past two hundred years is the popular and romantic notion that words performances narratives and even national identities are always in some way an expression of the places in which they are created and set With the idea of place foregrounded in so much contemporary discourse this collection promises to enter into an already lively debate and one which due to its relevance to where we live and how we make sense of our own places within them does not show any signs of flagging Writing Tangier in the Postcolonial Transition Michael K. Walonen,2016-02-17 In his study of the Tangier expatriate community Michael K Walonen analyzes the representations of French and Spanish Colonial North Africa by Paul Bowles Jane Bowles William Burroughs Brion Gysin and Alfred Chester during the end of the colonial era and the earliest days of post independence The conceptualizations of space in these authors descriptions of Tangier Walonen shows share common components an attention to the transformative potential of the conflict sweeping the region a record of the power relations that divided space along lines of gender and ethnicity including the spatial impact of the widespread sexual commerce between Westerners and natives a vision of the Maghreb as a land that can be dominated or imposed on as a kind of frontier space an expression of anxieties about the specters of Cold War antagonisms and an embrace of the underlying logic of the market to the culture of the Maghreb Counterbalancing the depictions of Tangier by Westerners who sought to reconcile their nostalgia for the colonial order with their support of native demands for independent governance is Walonen s extended analysis of the contrasting sense of place found in the writings of native Moroccan authors such as Mohammed Choukri Tahar Ben Jelloun and Anouar Majid In its focus on Tangier and the larger Maghreb as a lived environment situated at a particular spatial and temporal crossroads Walonen s study makes an important contribution to the fields of urban transatlantic and postcolonial studies Paul

Bowles's Literary Engagement with Morocco Bouchra Benlemlih, 2018-01-05 This study argues that Paul Bowles is more perceptive than many American travelers in Morocco The book provides us with what are perhaps the most sustained meditations to date on Bowles s translation work and his autobiography as well as perceptive analyses of key stories such as A Distant Episode and Here to Learn and his second novel Let It Come Down set primarily in Tangier The chapter on translation dwells on the complex interactions between Moroccan storytellers and Bowles The work considers translation as a site where the oral and written colonial and post colonial scene and English and Maghrebi come face to face it is a place where things are worked out in dynamic interaction The chapter on Bowles s autobiography Without Stopping urges us to take this piece of self writing famously dubbed Without Telling by William Burroughs more seriously drawing our attention to baroque architectural features of mind and external landscape worlds distorted by mirrors dreams and fluid transit where forms morph The work also highlights difference between experience and representation of experience through language transformed through the prism of memory In the chapter on Without Stopping as well as in my discussions of Bowles s fiction I provide useful elaborations of connections between Bowles s work and that of Edgar Allan Poe My reading of one of Bowles s best known stories A Distant Episode brings to the surface a recognition that the tragic fate of the Professor the story s protagonist is an outcome of his inability to admit that cultures are not static The academically trained linguist demonstrates an unwillingness or inability to adapt to change or to read cultural signs accurately The message is that Morocco is not stuck in time and cannot be held in place by Orientalist fantasies or preconceived externally derived intellectual constructs and assumptions The book concludes that against the grain of Samuel Huntington s notion of Clash of Civilizations Bowles s poetic and geographical journey forcefully projects cosmopolitanism and transnational attention confirming that civilizations and identities open up rather than shut down war or clash Out ,1999-05 Out is a fashion style celebrity and opinion magazine for the modern gay man The Novel Michael Schmidt,2014 With contributions from Great Britain Ireland America Canada Australia India and Southern Africa influenced by great novelists working in other languages and encompassing a range of genres the story of the novel in English unfolds like a richly varied landscape that invites exploration rather than a linear journey David Balfour Robert Louis Stevenson,1994 The further adventures of David Balfour in which he continues his friendship with Alan Breck Stewart and support of the Scottish highlanders cause travels abroad to complete his education and finds romance Homintern Gregory Woods,2017-01-01 A landmark account of gay and lesbian creative networks and the seismic changes they brought to twentieth century culture In a hugely ambitious study which crosses continents languages and almost a century Gregory Woods identifies the ways in which homosexuality has helped shape Western culture Extending from the trials of Oscar Wilde to the gay liberation era this book examines a period in which increased visibility made acceptance of homosexuality one of the measures of modernity Woods shines a revealing light on the diverse informal networks of gay people in the arts and other creative fields Uneasily called the Homintern an echo of Lenin s Comintern by those suspicious of an international homosexual conspiracy such networks connected gay writers actors artists musicians dancers filmmakers politicians and spies While providing some defense against dominant heterosexual exclusion the grouping brought solidarity celebrated talent and in doing so invigorated the majority culture Woods introduces an enormous cast of gifted and extraordinary characters most of them operating with surprising openness but also explores such issues as artistic influence the coping strategies of minorities the hypocrisies of conservatism and the effects of positive and negative discrimination Traveling from Harlem in the 1910s to 1920s Paris 1930s Berlin 1950s New York and beyond this sharply observed warm spirited book presents a surpassing portrait of twentieth century gay culture and the men and women who both redefined themselves and changed history Turncoats, Traitors, and Fellow Travelers Arthur F. Redding,2008 The Cold War was unique in the way films books television shows colleges and universities and practices of everyday life were enlisted to create American political consensus This coercion fostered a seemingly hegemonic nationally unified perspective devoted to spreading a capitalist socially conservative notion of freedom throughout the world to fight Communism This book traces the historical contours of this manufactured consent by considering the ways in which authors playwrights and directors participated in responded to and resisted the construction of Cold War discourses Out ,1999 Who's Who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian History Robert Aldrich,Garry Wotherspoon,2020-07-24 Provides a comprehensive modern biographical survey of homosexuality in the Western world Among those included are controversial political activists Peter Tatchell Guy Hocquenghem Harvey Milk pop icons David Bowie k d lang Boy George groundbreaking artists writers and filmmakers Pier Paolo Pasolini Derek Jarman David Hockney intellectuals who have shaped and changed the modern understanding of sexuality Michel Foucault Simone de Beauvoir Alfred Kinsey over 500 entries clear informative and
