Dog of the Decade Deborah Thompson, 2021-11-19 What do dogs mean in America How do Americans make meaning through their dogs The United States has long expressed its cultural unconscious through canine iconography Through our dogs we figure out what we re thinking and who we are representing by proxy the things that we don't quite want to recognize in ourselves. Often it's a specific breed or type of dog that serves as an informal cultural mascot embodying an era's needs, fears, desires, longings, aspirations, repressions, and hopeless contradictions. Combining cultural studies with personal narrative, this book creates a playful speculative reading of American culture through its canine self-representations. Looking at seven different breeds or types over the last seven decades, readers will go on an intellectual dog walk through some of the mazes of American cultural mythology.

Why Dogs Hump and Bees Get Depressed Marc Bekoff, 2013-11-01 In 2009, Marc Bekoff was asked to write on animal emotions for Psychology Today. Some 500 popular jargon-free essays later, the field of anthrozoology, the study of human-animal relationships, has grown exponentially, as have scientific data showing how smart and emotional nonhuman animals are. Here, Bekoff offers selected essays that showcase the fascinating cognitive abilities of other animals, as well as their empathy, compassion, grief, humor, joy, and love. Humpback whales protect gray whales from orca attacks; combat dogs and other animals suffer from PTSD; and chickens, rats, and mice display empathy. This collection is both an updated sequel to Bekoff's popular book The Emotional Lives of Animals and a call to begin the important work of rewilding ourselves and changing the way we treat other animals.
