Anne Sexton Paula M. Salvio, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2008 Critics Choice Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association A Pulitzer Prize winning poet who confessed the unrelenting anguish of addiction and depression Anne Sexton 1928-1974 was also a dedicated teacher In this book Paula M Salvio opens up Sexton's classroom uncovering a teacher who willfully demonstrated that the personal could also be plural Looking at how Sexton framed and used the personal in teaching and learning Salvio considers the extent to which our histories both personal and social exert their influence on teaching In doing so she situates the teaching life of Anne Sexton at the center of some of the key problems and questions in feminist teaching navigating the appropriate distance between teacher and student the relationship between writer and poetic subject and the relationship between emotional life and knowledge Examining Sexton's pedagogy with its weird abundance of tactics and strategies Salvio argues that Sexton's use of the autobiographical I is as much a literary identity as a literal identity one that can speak with great force to educators who recognize its vital role in the humanities classroom Anne Sexton Anne Sexton, 2004 A collection of letters written by poet Anne Sexton in which she describes her life thoughts and feelings with previously unpublished poems and family pictures and memorabilia Anne Sexton Caroline King Barnard Hall, 1989 Provides in depth analysis of the life works career and critical importance of Anne Sexton The Heart of Anne Sexton's Poetry Anne Sexton, 1962 The Poetry Life Baron Wormser, 2014-11-01 Baron Wormser brings to life the immense force poetry can have in people's lives In stories funny tender sad and edgy the narrators register how poetry has changed how they see themselves how they live and what they care about As it bends genres by adapting aspects of fiction biography essay and monologue The Poetry Life shows how poetry can be lightning in the soul Baron Wormser has pulled off a miraculous feat he has written a collection of stories that reveals the absolute necessity of poetry in our lives His prose style is riveting and his characters are as diverse as a phone book Each voice conjures up a passionate portrait of inner life telling us through episodes both comic and tragic that the world of the deceased poet remains eternally relevant to our own Clint McCown author of The Weatherman A Novel Poetry Baron Wormser writes is about generosity So too are these ten stories you hold in your hands They are about generosity And mystery And loneliness And life They are about how poetry helps us stay in our skins You will fall in love with these stories and with the ten poets

who appear in them What Baron Wormser says about William Carlos Williams I say about him here He nailed it Ann Hood author of The Knitting Circle A Novel A book of stories not about poets but driven by the presence of poetry and the shadows of poets madness undoubtedly But the best kind of madness With this book Baron Wormser invites us to reconsider the connection between poetry and our lives to remember that we really do live hungry for inner vision for small insights that can save us from the slag heap of goofdom and pointlessness It s a wonderful book It s the kind of stuff that makes you want to stay in the world Tim Seibles author of Buffalo Head Solos Anne Sexton Steven E. Autobiography Jo Gill, Melanie Waters, 2013-12-16 This collection makes a critical and creative intervention into ongoing debates about the relationship between poetry and autobiography Drawing on recent theories of life writing the essays in the first part of this volume provide new analyses of works by a range of poets dating from the early modern period to the present day Exploring the autobiographical resonances of poems by Martha Moulsworth Mina Loy Anne Sexton Joe Brainard Edward Kamau Braithwaite and Gwyneth Lewis the authors here examine the extent to which discourses of truth and authenticity have been implicated in traditional interpretations of lyric poetry In doing so they endeavour to illuminate the complex intersections and divergences of poetry and autobiography asking what these forms might learn from each other about issues of shared concern from questions of identity and textuality to those of reference and audience The creative reflections which form the second part of the collection develop and respond to these questions in various suggestive and original ways here poetry and prose are used in order to test the relationship between poetry and life writing and to explore issues of memory time place subjectivity and voice This book was published as a special issue of Life Writing Humorous

Texts Salvatore Attardo, 2010-12-14 This book presents a theory of long humorous texts based on a revision and an upgrade of the General Theory of Verbal Humour GTVH a decade after its first proposal The theory is informed by current research in psycholinguistics and cognitive science It is predicated on the fact that there are humorous mechanisms in long texts that have no counterpart in jokes The book includes a number of case studies among them Oscar Wilde s Lord Arthur Savile s Crime and Allais story Han Rybeck A ground breaking discussion of the quantitative distribution of humor in select texts is presented Over the Rooftops of Time Myra Sklarew, 2012-02-01 In this collection of essays stories and poems award winning poet and fiction writer Myra Sklarew traces a journey across the latter half of the twentieth century and into the twenty first Her point of view is Jewish though her subjects include science exile the future the Holocaust the remaining Jewish community of Morocco Yiddish poetry the visual arts and teaching Many of these pieces deal with personal subjects the search for a grandfather's birthplace the death of a mother the profound effect of a teacher the struggle of a woman to embrace Judaism Whether writing about medicine Messiah or the first speech of an infant Sklarew's work finds its roots in Judaism a Judaism fashioned in large part by the author's own hands Ultimately the book is about access about following one's own curiosity despite the obstacles that might appear along the way And it is about a kind of belief that nothing will be wasted that all that we can learn will have a place in our lives eventually though we may not know its purpose at the time
