Malevil By Robert Merle:

Malevil Robert Merle, 1975 Malevil Robert Merle, 1983-01 Watching the World Die Mike Bogue, 2023-10-23

During the 1980s popular fear of World War III spurred moviemakers to produce dozens of nuclear threat films. Categories ranged from monster movies to post-apocalyptic adventures to realistic depictions of nuclear war and its immediate aftermath. Coverage of atomic angst films isn't new, but this is the first book to solely analyze 1980s nuclear threat movies as a group. Entries range from classics such as The Day After and WarGames to obscurities such as Desert Warrior and Massive Retaliation. Chronological coverage of the 121 films released between 1980 and 1990 includes production details, chapter notes, and critical commentaries. Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature, Vol 1 R. Reginald, 2010-09-01. Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature: A Checklist 1700-1974. Volume one of Two contains an Author Index, Title Index, Series Index, Awards Index, and the Ace and Belmont Doubles Index. The Infinite Emotions of Coffee Alon Halevy, 2011-12-08. The Infinite Emotions of Coffee provides a contemporary prism of the drink that so much of the world takes for granted every morning. Technopreneur Halevy's travels to more than 30 countries on six continents shed light on how coffee has shaped and is influenced by different cultures through the bean's centuries-spanning journey of serendipity, intrigue, upheaval, revival, romance, and passion. With more than three years of field research, over 180 color photographs, and richly illustrated infographics, this book is an immersive experience that brings alive the enduring allure of coffee and the nuanced emotions of both tradition-bound and avant-garde café cultures. Written in an engaging narrative, this travelogue entertains through numerous coffee-related tales from around the world. It celebrates all parts of the inextricably linked global coffee ecosystem, from growers, importers, and roasters to baristas and consumers. Readers will learn about the rich, mysterious, and often amusing history of coffee, discover the latest hotbeds of coffee, and the complex issues facing the coffee industry today, and meet the worldwide network of inspiringly spirited and passionately committed professionals whose relentless pursuit of excellence are pushing coffee to unprecedented levels of quality. The histories of communication and coffee's impact on socialization are interconnected. From the combined perspectives of a computer scientist and a coffee culturalist, this book elucidates how coffee conversations have evolved from the age of exploration that characterized the 15th century through the Information Age, where the Internet's spheres of influence in the world of coffee continue to expand. Vint Cerf, Father of the Internet and Chief Internet Evangelist of Google. This book is the ultimate celebration of coffee from seed to cup. Bravo! Alejandro Mendez, 2011 World Barista Champion, El Salvador. The scope of this collection of vignettes from around the world is unprecedented in coffee literature. Its greatest strength is its unifying power that brings together all the players in the global coffee community. Sarah Allen, Editor in Chief, Barista Magazine. New York Magazine, 1974-01-28. New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract Claire P. Curtis, 2010-07-17 Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract We'll Not Go Home Again provides a framework for our fascination with the apocalyptic events The popular appeal of the end of the world genre is clear in movies novels and television shows Even our political debates over global warming nuclear threats and pandemic disease reflect a concern about the possibility of such events This popular fascination is really a fascination with survival how can we come out alive And what would we do next The end of the world is not about species death but about beginning again This book uses postapocalyptic fiction as a terrain for thinking about the state of nature the hypothetical fiction that is the driving force behind the social contract The first half of the book examines novels that tell the story of the move from the state of nature to civil society through a Hobbesian a Lockean or a Rousseauian lens including Lucifer's Hammer by Larry Niven and Jerry Pournelle Alas Babylon by Pat Frank Malevil by Robert Merle and Into the Forest by Jean Hegland The latter half of the book examines Octavia Butler's postapocalyptic Parable series in which a new kind of social contract emerges one built on the fact of human dependence and vulnerability

The Paradoxes of Posterity Benjamin Hoffmann, 2020-05-11 The impetus for literary creation has often been explained as an attempt to transcend the mortality of the human condition through a work addressed to future generations Failing to obtain literal immortality or to turn their hope toward the spiritual immortality promised by religious systems literary creators seek a symbolic form of perpetuity granted to the intellectual side of their person in the memory of those not yet born while they write In this book Benjamin Hoffmann illuminates the paradoxes inherent in the search for symbolic immortality arguing that the time has come to find a new answer to a perennial question Why do people write Exploring the fields of digital humanities and book history Hoffmann describes posterity as a network of interconnected memories that constantly evolves by reserving a variable and continuously renegotiated place for works and authors of the past In other words the perpetual safeguarding of texts is delegated to a collectivity that is nonexistent at the moment when a writer addresses it one whose nature is characterized by impermanence and instability Focusing on key works by Denis Diderot, Jean-Jacques Rousseau, Maurice Falconet, Giacomo Casanova, François-René de Chateaubriand and Jean-Paul Sartre Hoffmann considers the authors' representations of posterity the representation of authors by posterity and how to register and preserve works in the network of memories In doing so Hoffmann reveals the three great paradoxes in the quest for symbolic immortality the paradoxes of belief of identity and of mediation Theoretically sophisticated and convincingly argued this book contends that there is only one truly serious literary problem the transmission of texts to posterity It will appeal to specialists in literature in particular eighteenth-century French literature as well as scholars and students of philosophy and book history
