The City Speaks

Subashish Bhattacharjee, Goutam Karmakar, 2022-09-29 This book studies the significance and representation of the city in the writings of Indian poets graphic novelists and dramatists It demonstrates how cities give birth to social images perspectives and complexities and explores the ways in which cities and the characters in Indian literature coexist to form a larger literary framework of interpretations Drawing on the theoretical concepts of Western urban thinkers such as Henri Lefebvre Georg Simmel Walter Benjamin Edward Soja David Harvey and Diane Levy as well as South Asian thinkers such as Ashis Nandy Arjun Appadurai Vinay Lal and Ravi Sundaram the book projects against a seemingly monolithic and homogenous Western qualification of urban literatures and offers a truly unique and contentious presentation of Indian literature Unfolding the urban literary landscape of India the volume lays the groundwork for an urban studies approach to Indian literature It will be of great interest to scholars and students of literature especially Indian writing in English urban studies and South Asian studies

The Contemporary Novel and the City S. Khanna, 2015-12-04 This book examines the deeply divided terrain of the twentieth century city and its formative impact on narrative fiction It focuses on two major world authors at the two ends of the twentieth century who write systematically about the colonial and postcolonial cities they were born in James Joyce and Dublin and Salman Rushdie and Bombay

Representations of Precarity in South Asian Literature in English Om Prakash Dwivedi, 2022-10-15 This book analyzes precarious conditions and their manifestations in recent South Asian literature in English Themes of disability rural urban division caste terrorism poverty gender necropolitics and uneven globalization are discussed in this book by established and emerging international scholars Drawing their arguments from literary works rooted in the neoliberal period the chapters show how the extractive ideology of neoliberalism invades the cultural political economic and social spheres of postcolonial South Asia The book explores different forms of precarity to investigate the vulnerable and insecure life conditions embodied in the everyday life of South Asia enabling the reader to see through the rhetoric of rising Asia

The Making of an Indian Metropolis Prashant Kidambi, 2007-01-01 This book investigates the social history of colonial Bombay in the late Victorian and Edwardian eras Drawing together strands that have hitherto been treated separately and based on a wide range of untapped archival sources this book offers the first systematic analytical account of historical change in a modernizing colonial city In highlighting the colonial experience of historical processes that have attracted considerable attention in recent scholarship it restores the much neglected global dimension to a comparative discussion of these themes At the same time the volume demonstrates the manner in which the globalizing forces unleashed by European imperialism were appropriated and transformed in the colonial context

Cities Raymond Joshua Scannell, 2015-12-03 In Cities Raymond Joshua Scannell examines how dramatic changes in the global economy and technology during the latter half of the twentieth century have radically restructured the city as a lived environment Beginning with the impacts of globalisation on national and regional economies across the planet Scannell investigates the rapidly changing and amorphous urban environments in which most people live Cities traces how the actions of urban dwellers carving out lives for themselves are radically transforming paradigms of urban management and are overturning traditional assumptions about what constitutes urban rule and revolt This exciting book insists on a new vocabulary for human settlements one that looks centrally at the sort of behaviour that is often relegated figuratively and literally to the urban margins      World Cities, City Worlds William Solesbury, 2018-12-17 When living and working in cities we need to make sense of them in order to get by We must delve below their surface to understand what makes them tick and how we can best engage with them This book argues that three tropes can help us namely metaphors icons and perspectives Metaphorically we can see the city as a community a battleground a marketplace a machine or an organism Some cities are iconic they present us with characteristics that are more generally true of cities and city life such as Venice Mumbai New York Tokyo Paris and Los Angeles Cities can also be viewed from different perspectives those of artists analysts rulers and citizens This book explores these ways of understanding cities drawing on rich accounts of cities across the world and through time      No God in Sight Altaf Tyrewala, 2005 A Brilliant And Daring Novel About Present Day Bombay And The Individual Lives That Spark The City's Consciousness      A World Connected Nayan Chanda, Susan Froetschel, 2012-12-03 No word has evoked as much passion in recent times as the word globalization which carries an array of meanings among different people and disciplines But the fact is that globalization is an historical process that has connected the world and influenced it for better or worse in every aspect of life A World Connected Globalization in the 21st Century is a collection of more than 100 thought provoking essays by renowned scholars journalists and leading policymakers published over the past decade by the flagship publication of the Yale Center for the Study of Globalization YaleGlobal Online The essays are grouped by chapters on Global Economy and Trade Security Diplomacy Society Culture Health and Environment Demography and Immigration Anti Globalization Innovation and Global Governance and offer insights about globalization trends for the future The volume contains a general introduction by the editors and a preface by Yale University President Richard C Levin Provided by publisher      Re-mapping the Centre and the Periphery: Studies in Literature & Culture Dr. Niraja Saraswat, Dr. Nidhi Sharma, With the onset of denationalising wave of globalization literature and culture feel impelled to locate new arrangements of content and form resulting in evolved cultural and social paradigm Globalizing forces are reshaping our cultural economic and social landscapes The literary discourse is also experiencing change at large including in its migrant diasporic postcolonial and transnational variants This transfusion leads to identifying new transcultural and transnational approaches perspectives and theories RE MAPPING THE CENTRE AND THE PERIPHERY STUDIES IN LITERATURE CULTURE offers a comprehensive approach toward culture language and literature contributing to assess the dynamic of center's periphery lies in the various spheres The book sustains a plethora of themes ranging from adult hegemony female subjectivity and diaspora to Ganga Ghat and artificial intelligence The book critiques the centre and the periphery and provides a fresh approach to the acclaimed oeuvres The book also offers an unflinching critique of content and inequality through the lens of caste class gender and race The vivacity and horizons of research articles have been multiplied in curious and exciting ways Throughout the book a sense of place or the periphery is shown to be established negated or supplanted by the literary works which are underpinned by the interlocking trajectories of several literary doctrines and approaches

Besides literary and subtle observations there are reflections gleaned from AI and mobile assisted language learning Plurality of observations diversity of themes and myriad interpretations will divulge an immense appeal to the Indian consciousness The book posits that the scholarly articles express the confluential cultures which undermine the dichotomies between the colonizer and the colonized the dominator and the dominated the native and the immigrant and the national and the ethnic

Salman Rushdie in Context Florian Stadler, 2023-03-30 Salman Rushdie in Context discusses Rushdie's life and work in the context of the multiple geographies he has inhabited and the wider socio-cultural contexts in which his writing is emerging published and read This book reveals the evolving political trajectory around transnationalism multiculturalism and its discontents so prominently engaged with by Salman Rushdie in relation to South Asia its diasporas Britain and the USA in the late twentieth and early twenty-first century Focused on the aesthetic biographical cultural creative historical and literary contexts of his works the book reveals his deep engagement with processes of decolonization emergent nationalisms in South Asia Europe and the USA and diasporic identity constructions and how they have been affected by globalisation The book traces how through his fiction and non-fiction Rushdie has profoundly shaped the discussion of important questions of global citizenship and migration that continue to resonate today

Transnationalism, Activism, Art Kit Dobson, Aine McGlynn, 2011-12-30 Banksy is known worldwide for his politically subversive works of art but he is far from the only artist whose creations are infused with internationally relevant activist themes How else can the arts help activate citizen participation in social justice movements Moreover what is the role of culture in a globalizing world Transnationalism Activism Art goes beyond Banksy by investigating how the three complementary political social and cultural phenomena listed in the title interact in the twenty-first century Renowned and emerging critics use current theory on cultural production and politics to illuminate case studies of various media including film literature visual art and performance in their multiple manifestations from electronic dance music to Wikileaks to bestselling poetry collections By addressing how these artistic media are used to enact citizen participation in social justice movements the volume makes important connections between such participation and scholarly study of globalization and transnationalism

Re-Inventing the Postcolonial (in the) Metropolis Cecile Sandten, Annika Bauer, 2016-09-27 The notion of the postcolonial metropolis has gained prominence in the last two decades both within and beyond postcolonial studies Disciplines such as sociology and urban studies however have tended to focus on the economic inequalities class disparities and other structural and formative aspects of the postcolonial metropolises that are specific to Western conceptions of the city at large It is only recently that the depiction of postcolonial metropolises has been addressed in the writings of Suketu Mehta Chris Abani Amit Chaudhuri Salman Rushdie Aravind Adiga Helon Habila Sefi Atta and Zakes Mda among others Most of these works probe the urban specifics and physical and cultural topographies of postcolonial cities while highlighting their agential capacity to defy appropriate and abrogate the superimposition of theories of Western modernity and urbanism These ASNEL Papers are all concerned with the idea of the postcolonial in the metropolis from various disciplinary viewpoints as drawn from a great range of cityscapes spread out over five continents The essays explore on the one hand ideas of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation and on the other the possibility of transforming reinventing and reconfiguring the postcolonial condition in and through literary texts and visual narratives In this context the volume covers a broad spectrum of theoretical and thematic approaches to postcolonial and metropolitan topographies and their depictions in writings from Australia and New Zealand South Africa South Asia and greater Asia as well as the UK addressing issues such as modernity and market economies but also caste class and social and linguistic aspects At the same time they reflect on the postcolonial metropolis and postcolonialism in the metropolis by concentrating on an urban imaginary which turns on notions of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation as the continuing postcolonial condition The Routledge

Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English Manju Jaidka, Tej N. Dhar, 2023-09-29 Today Indian writing in English is a field of study that cannot be overlooked Whereas at the turn of the 20th century writers from India who chose to write in English were either unheeded or underrated with time the literary world has been forced to recognize and accept their contribution to the corpus of world literatures in English Showcasing the burgeoning field of Indian English writing this encyclopedia documents the poets novelists essayists and dramatists of Indian origin since the pre independence era and their dedicated works Written by internationally recognized scholars this comprehensive reference book explores the history and development of Indian writers their major contributions and the critical reception accorded to them The Routledge Encyclopedia of Indian Writing in English will be a valuable resource to students teachers and academics navigating the vast area of contemporary world literature Salman Rushdie in the Cultural Marketplace Ana Cristina Mendes, 2016-03-23

Taking up the roles that Salman Rushdie himself has assumed as a cultural broker gatekeeper and mediator in various spheres of public production Ana Cristina Mendes situates his work in terms of the contemporary production circulation and consumption of postcolonial texts within the workings of the cultural industries Mendes pays particular attention to Rushdie as a public performer across various creative platforms not only as a novelist and short story writer but also as a public intellectual reviewer and film critic Mendes argues that how a postcolonial author becomes personally and professionally enmeshed in the dealings of the cultural industries is of particular relevance at a time when the market is strictly regulated by a few multinational corporations She contends that marginality should not be construed exclusively as a basis for understanding Rushdie's work since a critical grounding in marginality will predictably involve a reproduction of the traditional postcolonial binaries of oppressor oppressed and colonizer colonized that the writer subverts Rather she seeks to expand existing interpretations of Rushdie's work itineraries and frameworks in order to take into account the actual conditions of postcolonial cultural production and circulation within a marketplace that is global in both orientation and effects      The Passenger: Rome The Passenger, 2022-02-15 The best new writing photography art and reportage from and about Rome in the series that's like a literary vacation Publishers Weekly If you believe recent chatter about Rome in the media and by its residents the city is on the verge of collapse Each year it slips further down the ranking of the world's most livable cities To the problems faced by all large capitals hit and run tourism traffic the divide between elegant Airbnb dominated city centers and run down suburbs in recent years Rome seems to have added a list of calamities of its own a string of failing administrations widespread corruption the resurgence of fascist movements rampant crime A seemingly hopeless situation perfectly symbolized by the fact that Rome currently leads the world in the number of self combusting public buses One might expect mass migration in the face of problems like these yet the vast majority of Romans don't think for a second of betraying their hometown and the many newcomers who've populated it in recent decades resemble the natives in the profound love that binds them to the city The largest metropolis in Europe is a place of contradictions and opposites We think of it as ancient but it is profoundly modern it was founded almost three millennia ago but 92 per cent of its buildings have been built after 1945 To understand Rome and fix its problems we should start considering it a normal city not unlike Chicago or Manchester just incomparably more beautiful This volume is filled with portraits of Rome and thoughts not just on its famous past but its present and future including Rome doesn't judge you by Nicola Lagioia The soul of the city by Matteo Nucci 39 memos for a book about Rome by Francesco Piccolo Plus a guide to the sounds of Rome by Letizia Muratori the feigned unrest and real malaise of the suburbs the influence of the Vatican the excessive power of real estate speculators and the rule of gangs disillusioned trappers football fans of every age and much more A pleasure to read La Repubblica      Smart Global Megacities T. M. Vinod Kumar, 2021-07-15 This book the first volume highlights 8 out of a total of about 36 megacities in the World which by definition have 10 million inhabitants The cities chapters presented in this book are based on recent advance such as the wide use of ICT IOT e Governance e Democracy smart economy and flattening and acceleration of the world that is taking place in recent times as reported by 3 times Pulitzer Prize Winner Thomas Friedman It therefor departs from other ideologies where only a certain megacity qualifies for the title of smart global megacities while in reality every megacity can and presents how smart global megacities can be created      City Fictions of the New India Alex Tickell, 2025-04-24 How does Indian fiction imagine urban transformation India's cities were once maligned as places of economic stasis and deprivation but in the era of the so called New India 2000 present centres like Delhi and Mumbai have been recast as engines of economic growth and reshaped by prestige infrastructure Yet the provision of core infrastructures for all remains a major challenge for urban governance City Fictions is the first study of its kind to read anglophone Indian writing infrastructurally by taking account of the centrality of water utilities waste processing residential architecture and road rail and telephonic networks in contemporary representations of urban citizenship In a detailed historicized account of India's changing cities City Fictions analyses selected literary works in relation to key governmental and political discourses from early nationalist ideas of command economy infrastructure and mid century town planning to futuristic visions of the Heritage Cities Smart Cities and new urban satellite developments It also plots changing ideas about civic identity shaped by the rise of a consumerist middle class and the consolidation of a popular Hindu majoritarian politics In the process City Fictions develops an interdisciplinary literary critical approach that draws on eco criticism urbanism and new materialism Covering key fictions by Arundhati Roy Aravind Adiga Vikram Chandra Raj Kamal Jha and Githa Hariharan as well as literary journalism by Katherine Boo and Saumya Roy graphic fiction by Sarnath Banerjee and television drama by Richie Mehta this book shows how fiction discloses vital issues of collective rights equality and resourcing that are immanent in the infrastructure of India s cities
