Last Man in Tower Aravind Adiga, 2011-06-16 The magnificent new novel from the Booker Prize winning author of The White Tiger LONGLISTED FOR THE 2013 IMPAC AWARD Ask any Bombaywallah about Vishram Society Tower A of the Vishram Co operative Housing Society and you will be told that it is unimpeachably pucca Despite its location close to the airport under the flight path of 747s and bordered by slums it has been pucca for some fifty years But Bombay has changed in half a century not least its name and the world in which Tower A was first built is giving way to a new city a Mumbai of development and new money of wealthy Indians returning with fortunes made abroad When real estate developer Dharmen Shah offers to buy out the residents of Vishram Society planning to use the site to build a luxury apartment complex his offer is more than generous Initially though not everyone wants to leave many of the residents have lived in Vishram for years many of them are no longer young But none can benefit from the offer unless all agree to sell As tensions rise among the once civil neighbours one by one those who oppose the offer give way to the majority until only one man stands in Shah's way Masterji a retired schoolteacher once the most respected man in the building Shah is a dangerous man to refuse but as the demolition deadline looms Masterji's neighbours friends who have become enemies acquaintances turned co-conspirators may stop at nothing to score their payday A suspense filled story of money and power luxury and deprivation a rich tapestry peopled by unforgettable characters not least of which is Bombay itself Last Man in Tower opens up the hearts and minds of the inhabitants of a great city ordinary people pushed to their limits in a place that knows none Indian Social Milieu in the novels of Chetan Bhagat and Aravind Adiga Dr. Harleen Kaur Ruprah, 2023-10-31 Many writers are also social critics who aptly use their platform to raise awareness of social issues challenge power structures and promote social change Aravind Adiga and Chetan Bhagat are two such writers who have mirrored the true face of the modern society unveiling the core mindset of the youth Both the writers are activists of the present age who highlight social issues concerning bribery poverty dishonesty casteism corruption and degeneration of values in the Indian contemporary society Their novels are the amalgamation of fantasy and reality They have portrayed a true face of modern Indian society by describing the change in social cultural as well as political scenario through their imaginary characters Criminality and Power in the Postcolonial City Maria Ridda, 2022-11-21 This book investigates the literary imaginings of the postcolonial city through the lens of crime in texts set in Naples and Mumbai from the 1990s to the present Employing the analogy of a black hole it posits the discourse on criminality as a way to investigate the contemporary spatial manifestations of coloniality and global capitalist urbanity Despite their different histories Mumbai and Naples have remarkable similarities Both are port cities gateways to their countries and regional trade networks and both are marked by extreme wealth and poverty They are also the sites and symbolic battlegrounds for a wider struggle in which the North exploits the South and the South fights back As one of the characters of the novel The Neapolitan Book of the Dead puts it a narrativisation of the underworld allows for a discovery of a different city from its forgotten corners Crime provides a means to understand the relationship between space and society culture in a number of cities across the Global South by tracing a narrative of postcolonial urbanity that exposes the connections between exploitation and the ongoing coloniality of power

Re-Inventing the Postcolonial (in the Metropolis) Cecile Sandten, Annika Bauer, 2016-09-27 The notion of the postcolonial metropolis has gained prominence in the last two decades both within and beyond postcolonial studies Disciplines such as sociology and urban studies however have tended to focus on the economic inequalities class disparities and other structural and formative aspects of the postcolonial metropolises that are specific to Western conceptions of the city at large It is only recently that the depiction of postcolonial metropolises has been addressed in the writings of Suketu Mehta Chris Abani Amit Chaudhuri Salman Rushdie Aravind Adiga Helon Habila Sefi Atta and Zakes Mda among others Most of these works probe the urban specifics and physical and cultural topographies of postcolonial cities while highlighting their agential capacity to defy appropriate and abrogate the superimposition of theories of Western modernity and urbanism These ASNEL Papers are all concerned with the idea of the postcolonial in the metropolis from various disciplinary viewpoints as drawn from a great range of cityscapes spread out over five continents The essays explore on the one hand ideas of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation and on the other the possibility of transforming reinventing and reconfiguring the postcolonial condition in and through literary texts and visual narratives In this context the volume covers a broad spectrum of theoretical and thematic approaches to postcolonial and metropolitan topographies and their depictions in writings from Australia and New Zealand South Africa South Asia and greater Asia as well as the UK addressing issues such as modernity and market economies but also caste class and social and linguistic aspects At the same time they reflect on the postcolonial metropolis and postcolonialism in the metropolis by concentrating on an urban imaginary which turns on notions of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation as the continuing postcolonial condition

The Contemporary Novel and the City S. Khanna, 2015-12-04 This book examines the deeply divided terrain of the twentieth century city and its formative impact on narrative fiction It focuses on two major world authors at the two ends of the twentieth century who write systematically about the colonial and postcolonial cities they were born in James Joyce and Dublin and Salman Rushdie and Bombay

City Fictions of the New India Alex Tickell, 2025-04-24 How does Indian fiction imagine urban transformation India's cities were once maligned as places of economic stasis and deprivation but in the era of the so called New India 2000 present centres like Delhi and Mumbai have been recast as engines of economic growth and reshaped by prestige infrastructure Yet the provision of core infrastructures for all remains a major challenge for urban governance City Fictions is the first study of its kind to read anglophone Indian writing infrastructurally by taking account of the centrality of water utilities waste processing residential architecture and road rail and telephonic networks in contemporary representations of urban citizenship In a detailed historicized account of India's changing cities City Fictions analyses selected literary works in relation to key governmental and political discourses from early nationalist ideas of command economy infrastructure and mid century town planning to futuristic visions of the Heritage Cities Smart Cities and new urban satellite developments It also plots changing ideas about civic identity shaped by the rise of a consumerist middle class and the consolidation of a popular Hindu majoritarian politics In the process City Fictions develops an interdisciplinary literary critical approach that draws on eco criticism urbanism and new materialism Covering key fictions by Arundhati Roy Aravind Adiga Vikram Chandra Raj Kamal Jha and Githa Hariharan as well as literary journalism by Katherine Boo and Saumya Roy graphic fiction by Sarnath Banerjee and television drama by Richie Mehta this book shows how fiction discloses vital issues of collective rights equality and resourcing that are immanent in the infrastructure of India's cities Corruption Plots Malini Ranganathan, David L. Pike, Sapana Doshi, 2023-04-15

Winner of the Anthony Leeds Prize in Urban Anthropology by the American Anthropological Association Corruption Plots illuminates how corruption is fundamental to global storytelling about how states and elites abuse entrusted power in late capitalism The millennial city of the global South is a charged setting for allegations of corruption with skyscrapers land grabs and slum evictions invoking outrage at deepening economic polarization Drawing on ethnography in Bengaluru and Mumbai and a cross section of literary and cinematic stories from cities around the world Malini Ranganathan David L. Pike and Sapana Doshi pay close attention to the racial caste class and gender locations of the narrators spaces and publics imagined to be harmed by corruption Corruption Plots demonstrates how corruption talk is leveraged to make sense of unequal spatial change and used opportunistically by those who are themselves implicated in wrongdoing Offering a wide ranging analysis of urban worlds the authors reveal the ethical spatial and political stakes of storytelling and how vital it is to examine the corruption plot in all its contradictions A History of the Indian Novel in English Ulka Anjaria, 2015-07-08

A History of the Indian Novel in English traces the development of the Indian novel from its beginnings in the late nineteenth century up until the present day Beginning with an extensive introduction that charts important theoretical contributions to the field this History includes extensive essays that shed light on the legacy of English in Indian writing Organized thematically these essays examine how English was made Indian by writers who used the language to address specifically Indian concerns Such concerns revolved around the question of what it means to be modern as well as how the novel could be used for anti colonial activism By the 1980s the Indian novel in English was a global phenomenon and India is now the third largest publisher of English language books Written by a host of leading scholars this History invites readers to question conventional accounts of India's literary history EMRS PGT ENGLISH: EMRS Staff Selection Exam (ESSE)
