Loves That Bind A Novel By Julin Ros:

The Vacuum Cleaner Maud Ellmann, 2024-07-25 This book offers an entertaining study of the facts and fantasies associated with the vacuum cleaner as it evolved from a luxury gimmick to a household necessity The iconic appliance of twentieth century domestic revolution the vacuum cleaner stands at the forefront of radical changes in technology automation finance marketing hygiene infrastructure time management domestic labour and the history of dirt This appliance also insinuates itself into the dominant phobias of the period including totalitarianism and nuclear war Maud Ellmann shows how modern literature art and other media have transformed this humble domestic mod con into a curmudgeon windbag cannibal vampire dictator infanticidal mother freedom fighter mantrap and lothario Silence: A User's Guide, Volume Two Maggie Ross, 2017-12-13 To learn to read a text for the portals of silence that are implicit in it is to gain a powerful tool for supporting and expanding one's silence and to open the reader to the insight that ensues The sort of reading proposed in this volume is both costly and rewarding These pages invite readers once again to look at their own minds to reflect on what is happening there and to understand the essential role of silence for being human and for living our own truth with one another Of Love and Hunger Julian Maclaren-Ross, 2002 This grimly amusing novel of the Depression is based on the author's experiences as a vacuum cleaner salesman The narrator a journalist returns from India and is forced to take a dead end job to make ends meet a happy ending follows his path through scams affairs and redundancy Julian Among the Books Julia Bolton Holloway, 2016-04-26 Julian among the Books Julian of Norwich's Theological Library brings together innovative research on aspects of the Showing of Love especially the Pan European background of its manuscripts and their contexts arguing for the concept of Holy Conversations in a mise en abyme where her readers breaking the frame participate in her contemplative visions It discusses the three versions of her text her knowledge of Hebrew and her Benedictine context and its lectio divina including textual and physical links with the Norwich monk Cardinal Adam Easton OSB his collegial friendship with St Catherine of Siena and St Catherine of Sweden and his support for St Birgitta of Sweden's canonisation The book also explores the library of texts of the Friends of God movement including the Mirror of Simple Souls of Marguerite Porete presents the texts of Julian's conversation with Margery Kemp and discusses the exiled Brigittine and Benedictine nuns who continued to treasure and copy Julian's text on the Continent following England's Reformation Scholarly methods used in this study include palaeography codicology iconography reader reception discourse on the Body use of Hebrew Greek and Latin and the concepts of Holy Conversation and Textual Communities It gives much of the text of the Westminster Manuscript in translation along with many quotations from the Westminster Paris and Sloane manuscripts in their original layout and spelling Illustrated with colour plates of the Julian manuscripts in the centrefold and other images and black and white figures throughout the body of the text it brings the reader as close as possible to Julian's writing her context and her preservation by other women contemplatives throughout time The Rose Gardener Charlotte

Link,2014-10-13 A dark secret hangs over the old rose gardener s house in the village of Le Variouf And all the clues seem to point to its inhabitants past to the years of World War II when the idyllic island of Guernsey was occupied by German troops The young teacher Franca Palmer is at the end of her rope Her marriage is reaching a crisis point and she barely feels capable of continuing to face the demands of her career her husband and day to day life In a mad rush she leaves her comfortable home in Berlin and flees to the island of Guernsey in the English Channel there she rents herself a room in the old rose gardener s house in the village of Le Variouf In a short time a peculiar guarded friendship develops between her and her host Beatrice Shaye The older woman has lived on the charmingly situated property for many years with Helene Feldmann tied together by fate in a relationship that is marked with repugnance and hatred The two women appear to be bound to one another in a mysterious incomprehensible way dating back to the year 1940 when during the occupation of the Channel Islands by German troops Helene and her husband Erich a high ranking officer took Beatrice in as if she was their own child From the beginning the Feldmanns competed for Beatrice s favor all the more so since where his wife was concerned Erich felt only contempt So it was that with his death on May 1st 1945 an agonizing phase in both women s lives came to an end But nevertheless a shadow still hangs over the house And one day another May 1st there is again a death in Le Variouf International Books in Print ,1990 The Poetical Works of Thomas Moore, Etc Thomas Moore,1845
