Tomlinson, 2015-11-07 The Hitchhiker in Time columns were the single most popular things ever written by Shawn M Tomlinson which honestly doesn t say all that much All together they appeared in fewer than 10 newspapers between 1988 and 2001 Well multiple copies of those newspapers of course The highest circulation was approximately 40 000 so not exactly Bob Greene levels Still Tomlinson had a following with these columns and to a great extent they hold up well today Either that or Tomlinson would like to think so Many of these columns appeared in chapbooks over the years but this is the first full collection of them to be in print Retreat Ethel Baraona Pohl, Marina Otero Verzier, Malkit Shoshan, 2020-07-31 Retreat is a lexicon or inventory of language to describe the action of withdrawal from civic life By creating a spatial approach to the language of escape the publication attempts to widen the definitions of familiar terms such as safety surveillance and self reliance The lexicon draws attention to current global events such as the thread of epidemic disease climate catastrophe the militarization of public space and the impact of mass surveillance on daily life specifically the emotional and social impact of the presence of unknown and potentially life threatening elements The editorial approach for the lexicon is to investigate the notion and practices of retreat its strategies and imaginaries through others words as they inform contemporary spatial paradigms A wide variety of source types from blogs to Wikipedia to academic texts and media photographs films books objects and forms of literary genres are mobilized to create a portrait of retreat that describes not only militarized zones but dreams and anxieties of individuals across the globe helping us better understand how humans might negotiate civil and human rights and freedoms within civic society at large Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract Claire P. Curtis, 2010-07-17

Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract We ll Not Go Home Again provides a framework for our fascination with the apocalyptic events The popular appeal of the end of the world genre is clear in movies novels and television shows Even our political debates over global warming nuclear threats and pandemic disease reflect a concern about the possibility of such events This popular fascination is really a fascination with survival how can we come out alive And what would we do next The end of the world is not about species death but about beginning again This book uses postapocalyptic fiction as a terrain for thinking about the state of nature the hypothetical fiction that is the driving force behind the social contract The first half of the book examines novels that tell the story of the move from the state of nature to civil society through a Hobbesian a Lockean or a Rousseauian lens including Lucifer s Hammer by Larry Niven and Jerry Pournelle Alas Babylon by Pat Frank Malevil by Robert Merle and Into the Forest by Jean Hegland The latter half of the book examines Octavia Butler s postapocalyptic Parable series in which a new kind of social contract emerges one built on the fact of human dependence and vulnerability Beyond 2012: Catastrophe or Awakening? Geoff Stray, 2009-05-21 An illustrated encyclopedic overview of the prophecies calendars and theories that indicate the year 2012 is a threshold of great change for humanity Looks at the scientific and anthropological evidence for the rare galactic alignment due to occur in December 2012 Sifts through the catastrophic theories to show what we might really expect in 2012 In December of 2012 the Mayan Calendar s Great Cycle will come to an end Opinion remains divided as to whether apocalyptic scenarios of worldwide destruction or utopian visions of a spiritually renewed humanity will prevail after this key date has passed What is certain however is that a rare galactic alignment will occur one so unique that it is found at the core of many wisdom traditions from around the globe Geoff Stray has been collecting the vast amounts of data relating to the 2012 phenomena since 1982 Far from confining his research to the Maya who provide the most prominent predictions indicating this date will herald significant changes for humanity he has studied the prophetic traditions of other cultures including the Tibetan Chinese Jewish Ethiopian and tribal cultures from around the globe to show the kind of convergence of cosmic purposes happening along a number of parallel tracks This book offers an extensive study of many modern theories including Terence McKenna s timewave zero and Maurice Cotterell s sunspot research as well as anomalous phenomena such as near death experiences and crop circles Sifting through all the scientific research and speculation that the year 2012 has inspired Geoff Stray provides an encyclopedic look at what we might really expect on this pivotal date Handbook of Hazards and Disaster Risk Reduction Ben Wisner, JC Gaillard, Ilan Kelman, 2012-03-29 The Handbook provides a comprehensive statement and reference point for hazard and disaster research policy making and practice in an international and multi disciplinary context It offers critical reviews and appraisals of current state of the art and future development of conceptual theoretical and practical approaches as well as empirical knowledge and available tools Organized into five inter related sections this Handbook contains sixty five contributions from leading scholars Section one situates hazards and disasters in their broad political cultural economic and environmental context Section two contains treatments of potentially damaging natural events phenomena organized by major earth system Section three critically reviews progress in responding to disasters including warning relief and recovery Section four addresses mitigation of potential loss and prevention of disasters under two sub headings governance advocacy and self help and communication and participation Section five ends with a concluding chapter by the editors The engaging international contributions reflect upon the politics and policy of how we think about and practice applied hazard research and disaster risk reduction This Handbook provides a wealth of interdisciplinary information and will appeal to students and practitioners interested in Geography Environment Studies and Development Studies HSA Books and Manuscripts
