and across multiple media and genres Herman shows how traditions of narrative research can help shape ways of formulating and addressing questions about intelligent activity and vice versa Using case studies that range from Robert Louis Stevenson s Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde to sequences from The Incredible Hulk comics to narratives told in everyday interaction Herman considers storytelling both as a target for interpretation and as a resource for making sense of experience itself In doing so he puts ideas from narrative scholarship into dialogue with such fields as psycholinguistics philosophy of mind and cognitive social and ecological psychology After exploring ways in which interpreters of stories can use textual cues to build narrative worlds or storyworlds Herman investigates how this process of narrative worldmaking in turn supports efforts to understand and engage with the conduct of persons among other aspects of lived experience The Missouri Review ,2002 Unpacking the Loaded Teacher Matrix sj Miller,Linda Norris,2007 What issues in English teacher education are sidestepped because they are too loaded to address What aren t we talking about when we discuss classroom management censorship standardized tests media literacy social justice issues the standards and technology What really matters to novices entering the profession The authors in this book wrestle with the disparities between preservice English teacher instruction and secondary school space as the two collide and describe the tools that preservice English teachers need to negotiate and navigate between theory and practice This book answers these questions and offers groundbreaking insights about liberatory pedagogy for how teacher educators can mentor preservice teachers on touchy issues providing them with tools to reach today s students
