Malinche Laura Esquivel, 2006 Recounts the story of the love affair between the conquistador Hernan Cortez and Malinalli his Indian interpreter during the conquest of the Aztec empire describing her role as a mediator between two very different languages and cultures Colonial Itineraries of Contemporary Mexico Oswaldo Estrada, Anna Mar Nogar, 2014-10-30 This book discusses rewritings of the Mexican colonia to question present day realities of marginality and inequality imposed political domination and hybrid subjectivities Critics examine literature and films produced in and around Mexico since 2000 to broaden our understanding beyond the theories of the new historical novel and upend the notion of the novel as the sole re-creative genre Chicana Sexuality and Gender Debra J. Blake, 2008-10-31 A study of working class and elite intellectual Mexican and Mexican American women that focuses on their sexuality and identity particularly their identification with four primary Mexican female cultural symbols La Malinche Aztec goddesses the Virgin Conquest and Reclamation in the Transatlantic Imagination Luz Elena Ramirez, 2023-06-30 This book examines the imperial spectacles and startling reversals of fortune related in William H Prescott's History of the Conquest of Mexico 1843 and History of the Conquest of Peru 1847 and investigates how these accounts inspired fictional adaptations by George A Henty H Rider Haggard and George Griffith The revision of history in the Amerindian adventure both entertained young transatlantic audiences and was a vehicle to attract tourism and investment in countries such as Mexico and Peru Henty Haggard and Griffith moreover used their tales of adventure as a platform to impart British values to their readers Such values compel the characters and narrators of the novels discussed to act as cultural mediators to acquire indigenous languages and adopt native ways of being and in several of the romance adventures under consideration to marry Mexican or Incan noblewomen Part I Conquest examines George Henty's By Right of Conquest Or With Cortez in Mexico 1891 H Rider Haggard's Montezuma's Daughter 1893 and George Griffith's Virgin of the Sun A Tale of the Conquest of Peru 1898 Part II Reclamation argues that English re-writings of history work to eclipse the Spanish in Haggard's Virgin the Sun 1922 Henty's Treasure of the Incas 1902 and Griffith's Romance of Golden Star 1897 Escritoras y figuras femeninas (literatura en castellano) Mercedes Arriaga Flórez, 2009 Conjunto de trabajos cuyo tema común son la escritoras americanas y españolas en castellano y también las figuras femeninas en las obras de autoras y autores en castellano Uncivil Wars Sandra Messinger Cypess, 2012-08-01 The first English language book to place the works of Elena Garro 1916 1998 and Octavio Paz 1914 1998

in dialogue with each other Uncivil Wars evokes the lives of two celebrated literary figures who wrote about many of the same experiences and contributed to the formation of Mexican national identity but were judged quite differently primarily because of gender While Paz's privileged prize winning legacy has endured worldwide Garro's literary gifts garnered no international prizes and received less attention in Latin American literary circles Restoring a dual perspective on these two dynamic writers and their world Uncivil Wars chronicles a collective memory of wars that shaped Mexico and in turn shaped Garro and Paz from the Conquest period to the Mexican Revolution the Spanish Civil War which the couple witnessed while traveling abroad and the student massacre at Tlatelolco Plaza in 1968 which brought about social and political changes and further tensions in the battle of the sexes The cultural contexts of machismo and ethnicity provide an equally rich ground for Sandra Cypess's exploration of the tandem between the writers' personal lives and their literary production Uncivil Wars illuminates the complexities of Mexican society as seen through a tense marriage of two talented often oppositional writers The result is an alternative interpretation of the myths and realities that have shaped Mexican identity and its literary soul well into the twenty first century

Confluence Narratives Antonio Luciano de Andrade Tosta, 2016-10-19 Confluence Narratives Ethnicity History and Nation Making in the Americas explores how a collection of contemporary novels calls attention to the impact of ethnicity on national identities in the Americas These historical narratives portray the cultural encounters the conflicts and alliances peaceful borrowings and violent seizures that have characterized the history of the American continents since the colonial period In the second half of the twentieth century North and South American readers have witnessed a steady output of novels that revisit moments of cultural confluence as a means of revising national histories Confluence Narratives proposes that these historical novels published in such places as Brazil Argentina Mexico the United States and Canada make up a key literary genre in the Americas The genre links the various parts of the hemisphere together through three common historical experiences colonization slavery and immigration Luciano Tosta demonstrates how numerous texts from the United States Canada Spanish America the Caribbean and Brazil fall into the genre The book focuses on four case studies from ethnic groups in the Americas Amerindians Afro descendants Jewish Americans and Japanese Americans Tosta uses the experience of the American nations as a springboard to problematize the concept of the contemporary nation an identity marked by border crossings and other experiences of deterritorialization Based on the exploration of confluence narratives Tosta argues that the contemporary nation is not as contemporary as one may think Informed by postcolonial theory and transnational and ethnic studies this book offers an important comparative study for and of inter American literature Its analysis of the representation of cultural encounters within distinctive national histories underscores the complex nature of otherness in the Americas as well as the inherently transcultural aspect of a trans continental American identity Le signore dei signori della storia Annamaria Laserra,2013 Translation Review ,2006
