Longing for an Absent God Nick Ripatrazone, 2020-03-03 Longing for an Absent God unveils the powerful role of faith and doubt in the American literary tradition Nick Ripatrazone explores how two major strands of Catholic writers practicing and cultural intertwine and sustain each other Ripatrazone explores the writings of devout American Catholic writers in the years before the Second Vatican Council through the work of Flannery O Connor J F Powers and Walker Percy those who were raised Catholic but drifted from the church such as the Catholic educated Don DeLillo and Cormac McCarthy the convert Toni Morrison the Mass going Thomas Pynchon and the ritual driven Louise Erdrich and a new crop of faithful American Catholic writers including Ron Hansen Phil Klay and Alice McDermott who write Catholic stories for our contemporary world These critically acclaimed and award winning voices illustrate that Catholic storytelling is innately powerful and appealing to both secular and religious audiences Longing for an Absent God demonstrates the profound differences in the storytelling styles and results of these two groups of major writers but ultimately shows how taken together they offer a rich and unique American literary tradition that spans the full spectrum of doubt and faith

Acts of Faith and Imagination Brent Little, Mark Bosco, SJ, 2023-08-04 Acts of Faith and Imagination wagers that fiction written by Catholic authors assists readers to reflect critically on the question what is faith To speak of a person's faith life is to speak of change and development As a narrative form literature can illustrate the dynamics of faith which remains in flux over the course of one's life Because human beings must possess faith in something whether religious or not it inevitably has a narrative structure faith ebbs and flows flourishes and decays develops and stagnates Through an exploration of more than a dozen Catholic authors novels and short stories Brent Little argues that Catholic fiction encourages the reader to reflect upon their faith holistically that is the way faith informs one's affections and how a person conceives and interacts with the world as embodied beings Amidst the diverse stories of modern and contemporary fiction a consistent pattern emerges Catholic fiction portrays faith at its most fundamental often unconscious level as an act of the imagination Faith is the way one imagines themselves others and creation A person's primary faith conditions how they live in the world regardless of the level of conscious reflection and regardless of whether this is a religious faith Acts of Faith and Imagination investigates the creative depth and vitality of the Catholic literary imagination by bringing late modern Catholic authors into dialogue with more contemporary ones Readers will then consider well known works such as those by Graham Greene Flannery O Connor and Muriel Spark in the fresh light of contemporary stories by Toni Morrison Alice McDermott Uwem Akpan and several others

With an Everlasting Love William A. Barry, 1999 A prayerful reflection on our desire and God's for a deep and loving relationship and the fears that must be overcome to achieve it

Twisty Little Passages

Nick Montfort, 2005-02-11 A critical approach to interactive fiction as literature and game Interactive fiction the best known form of which is the text game or text adventure has not received as much critical attention as have such other forms of electronic literature as hypertext fiction and the conversational programs known as chatterbots Twisty Little Passages the title refers to a maze in Adventure the first interactive fiction is the first book length consideration of this form examining it from gaming and literary perspectives Nick Montfort an interactive fiction author himself offers both aficionados and first time users a way to approach interactive fiction that will lead to a more pleasurable and meaningful experience of it Twisty Little Passages looks at interactive fiction beginning with its most important literary ancestor the riddle Montfort then discusses Adventure and its precursors including the I Ching and Dungeons and Dragons and follows this with an examination of mainframe text games developed in response focusing on the most influential work of that era Zork He then considers the introduction of commercial interactive fiction for home computers particularly that produced by Infocom Commercial works inspired an independent reaction and Montfort describes the emergence of independent creators and the development of an online interactive fiction community in the 1990s Finally he considers the influence of interactive fiction on other literary and gaming forms With Twisty Little Passages Nick Montfort places interactive fiction in its computational and literary contexts opening up this still developing form to new consideration Holy Eros James D. Whitehead, Evelyn Eaton Whitehead, 2009 Eros is the passionate energy that makes us one with the beautiful other with a leper with the world of nature waiting to be embraced and cared for with our neighbor the stranger with God The Whiteheads explore this vital energy of love as the gift of a Creator madly in love with his creation a God who would bring us to life in abundance if we only say Yes They discuss Eros in the movements of our sexuality as well as in our arousals of compassion and care They examine the Eros of pleasure and of generosity They honor the Eros of hope of anger of suffering They reveal that Eros has a Source far deeper than lust and is a pathway to a passionate God Holy Eros recovers this fundamental energy of love as a powerful resource in the revitalization of Christian spirituality Unlike most books on the topic it eschews easy clichs Its reader benefit is to understand and appreciate an energy that can heal as well as hinder and to tap into its positive force

The King's English Pb Betsy Burton, 2006-08-09 Betsy Burton one of the owners of The King's English Bookshop in Salt Lake City Utah shares anecdotes from throughout the history of the store discussing employees author visits and the joys and challenges of running an independent bookstore and including reading lists in a range of subject areas How Can I Find God? James Martin, 2014 Cathedrals of Bone John C. Waldmeir, 2009-08-25 The metaphor of the Church as a body has shaped Catholic thinking since the Second Vatican Council Its influence on theological inquiries into Catholic nature and practice is well known less obvious is the way it has shaped a generation of Catholic imaginative writers Cathedrals of Bone is the first full length study of a cohort of Catholic authors whose art takes seriously the themes of the Council from novelists such as Mary Gordon Ron Hansen Louise Erdrich and J F Powers to poets such as Annie Dillard Mary Karr Lucia Perillo and

Anne Carson to the Pulitzer Prize winning playwright John Patrick Shanley Motivated by the inspirational yet thoroughly incarnational rhetoric of Vatican II each of these writers encourages readers to think about the human body as a site perhaps the most important site of interaction between God and human beings Although they represent the body in different ways these late twentieth century Catholic artists share a sense of its inherent value Moreover they use ideas and terminology from the rich tradition of Catholic sacramentality especially as it was articulated in the documents of Vatican II to describe that value In this way they challenge the Church to take its own tradition seriously and to reconsider its relationship to a relatively recent apologetics that has emphasized a narrow view of human reason and a rigid sense of orthodoxy The Fine Delight Nicholas Ripatrazone,2013-04-09 Where are all the Catholic writers is a popular question these days In his beautifully realized new book The Fine Delight Nicholas Ripatrazone offers an answer they are among us writing With skill and care he explores the artistry of three superb writers Ron Hansen Paul Mariani and Andre Dubus as well as several other contemporary Catholic authors In the process he reveals how reading can be sacramental enabling us to discover God's presence in our modern world James Martin SJ author of The Jesuit Guide to Almost Everything The Fine Delight is a text of scholarship and personal consideration of American literature that is marked by and built from postconciliar Catholic thought Nicholas Ripatrazone has written a highly readable study of the work of writers whose beliefs vary widely but who share a living engagement with the Word This book itself is just such an engagement It will inspire more informed and curious reading Alice Elliott Dark author of In the Gloaming Stories Nicholas Ripatrazone offers an insightful interrogation into the theological and aesthetic strategies of contemporary Catholic writers novelists poets and essayists writing in the last fifty years Aware that the Catholic imagination is not static he suggests helpful ways to understand how post Vatican II writers situate their faith in light of their artistic vision A timely book Ripatrazone helps extend the critical and pastoral implications of a Catholic literary aesthetic Mark Bosco SJ author of Graham Greene's Catholic Imagination Let Us Build Us a City Tracy Daugherty,2017 Daugherty considers the principles of literary art in a series of essays that focus on the nature of artistic vision and the creative individual's relationship to the world The book reads like a master class on writing as practice

Between Human and Divine Mary Reichardt,2010 An introduction to recent and emerging Catholic literary works and artists Bodies Under Siege Armando R. Favazza,1996-05-09 Although instances of deliberate skin cutting are recorded as far back as the old and New Testaments of the Bible the behavior has generally been regarded as a symptom of various mental disorders With the publication of Bodies Under Siege a book described in the New York Times Magazine July 17 1997 as the first to comprehensively explore self mutilation Dr Armando Favazza has pioneered the study of the behavior as significant and meaningful unto itself Drawing from the latest case studies from clinical psychiatry he broadens our understanding of self mutilation and body modification and explores their surprising connections to the elemental experiences of healing religions salvation and social balance Favazza makes sense out of seemingly senseless self mutilative behaviors by providing both a useful classification and examination of the ways in which the behaviors provide effective but temporary relief from troublesome symptoms such as overwhelming anxiety racing thoughts and depersonalization He offers important new information on the psychology and biology of self mutilation the link between self mutilation and eating disorders and advances in treatment An epilogue by Fakir Musafar the father of the Modern Primitive movement describes his role in influencing a new generation to experiment with the previously forbidden body side of life through piercing blood rituals scarification and body sculpting in order to attain a state of grace The second edition of Bodies Under Siege is the major source of information about self mutilation a much misunderstood behavior that is now coming into public awareness

Conversations with American Writers Dale Brown, 2008-04-14 For years Dale Brown has interviewed American writers listening particularly for what they have to say about wrestling with the sacred in their writing In this book a follow up to his earlier collection Of Fiction and Faith Brown gives readers the opportunity to listen in on his thoughtful conversations with ten contemporary writers While many of these authors shy away from being labeled Christian writers they all have much truth to tell through their work as they struggle with expressing both faith and doubt The conversations recorded here offer a fresh dialogue on the power of art to sustain faith in unexpected ways Interviews with Eleanor Taylor Bland David James Duncan Terence Faherty Ernest Gaines Philip Gulley Ron Hansen Silas House Jan Karon Sheri Reynolds Lee Smith The Fire that Breaks Daniel Westover, Thomas Alan Holmes, 2020-02-27 The Fire that Breaks brings together an international team of scholars to explore for the first time Hopkins's extended influence on the poets and novelists who have defined modern and contemporary Anglo American literature since the advent of the twentieth century First Things, 2008

Saints, Clergy and Other Religious Figures on Film and Television, 1895-2003 Ann C. Paietta, 2015-01-24 The portrayal of clergy saints missionaries monks and other spiritual leaders dates back to the very beginnings of motion pictures and television Over the years filmmakers have portrayed religious figures as heroes and villains sinners and saints and nearly everything in between Through their works filmmakers have influenced how society viewed these religious figures and by extension religion itself This work details over 900 films and television series made from the 1890s through 2003 in which a religious figure plays a prominent or recurring role or in which a character poses as a religious figure For each motion picture full filmographic data are provided including title studio running time year of release director producer writer and cast along with a synopsis focusing on the role of the religious figure Television series are covered in a separate section For each show the entry includes the title under which the show was commonly known the original broadcast network the years the show ran running time and cast and a brief discussion of the religious character's role in the overall series Extensively indexed Conversations with Angels J. Raymond, 2011-08-09 Based on refractions of earlier beliefs modern angels at once terrible and comforting frighteningly other and reassuringly beneficent have acquired a powerful symbolic value This interdisciplinary study looks at how humans conversed with angels in medieval and early modern Europe and how they explained and represented these conversations      Lily Packed a Facemask Larry E.
