Quill & Quire, 2010 Novel Approaches to Lesbian History Linda Garber, 2022-01-01 Novel Approaches to Lesbian History tells a tale about history and community in our allegedly post-identity era examining contemporary novels that depict lesbian characters in recognizable historical situations These imaginative stories provide a politically vital speculative past in the face of a sketchy problematic archive Among the memorable characters in some 200 novels are pirates cowgirls and famous artists ghosts and time travellers immigrants and lovers The best lesbian historical novels are conscientious and buoyant as they engage critical historiographical questions but Novel Approaches also discusses the class and race biases that weigh on the genre Some lesbian historical novels are based on archival evidence others on conjecture or fantasy but all convey the true fact that identity is elusive without a past without which its future is nearly impossible

Castration Desire Robinson Murphy, 2023-12-14 Theorizes an alternative form of masculinity in global literature that is less egocentric and more sustainable both in terms of gendered and environmental power dynamics Contemporary novelists and filmmakers like Kazuo Ishiguro Japanese British Emma Donoghue Irish Canadian Michael Ondaatje Sri Lankan Canadian Bong Joon ho South Korean and J M Coetzee South African Australian are emblematic of a transnational phenomenon that Robinson Murphy calls castration desire That is these artists present privileged characters who nonetheless pursue their own diminishment In promulgating through their characters a less egocentric mode of thinking and acting these artists offer a blueprint for engendering a more other oriented global relationality Murphy proposes that in addition to being an ethical prerogative castration desire s less is more model of relationality would make life livable where veritable suicide is our species otherwise potential fate Castration desire thus offers an antidote to rapacious extractivism with the ambition of instilling a sustainable model for thinking and acting on an imminently eco apocalyptic earth In providing a fresh optic through which to read a diversity of text types Castration Desire helps define where literary criticism is now and where it is headed Castration Desire additionally extends and develops a zeitgeist currently unfolding in critical theory It brings Leo Bersani s concept psychic utopia together with Judith Butler s radical egalitarianism but transports their shared critique of phallic individualization into the environmental humanities In doing so this book builds a new framework for how gender studies intersects with environmental studies

Wallace Stevens and the Contemporary Irish Novel Ian Tan, 2023-12-22 Wallace Stevens and the Contemporary Irish Novel is a major contribution to the study of the literary influence of the American modernist poet Wallace Stevens Stevens's lifelong poetic quest for order and the championing of the creative affordances of the imagination finds compelling articulation in the positioning of the Irish novel as a response to larger legacies of Anglo American modernism and how aesthetic re imagining can be possible in the aftermath of the destruction of certainties and literary tradition heralded by postmodern practice and metatextual consciousness It is this book's argument that intertextual influences flowing from Stevens's poetry towards the vitality of the novelistic imagination enact robust dialectical exchanges between existential chaos and artistic order contemporary form and poetic precursors Through readings of novels by important contemporary Irish novelists John Banville Colum McCann Ed O Loughlin Iris Murdoch and Emma Donoghue this book contemporizes Stevens's literary influence with reference to novelistic style themes and thematic preoccupations that stake the claim for the international status of the contemporary Irish novel as it shapes a new understanding of world literature as exchange between national languages cultures and alternative formulations of aesthetic modernity as continuing project
