The Passion According To G.H. By Clarice Lispector:

The Passion According to G.H. Clarice Lispector, 2012-06-28 Lispector's most shocking novel The Passion According to G.H. Clarice Lispector's mystical novel of 1964 concerns a well-to-do Rio sculptress G.H. who enters her maid's room, sees a cockroach crawling out of the wardrobe and panicking, slams the door, crushing the cockroach and then watches it die. At the end of the novel, at the height of a spiritual crisis, comes the most famous and most genuinely shocking scene in Brazilian literature. Lispector wrote that of all her works, this novel was the one that best corresponded to her demands as a writer.

The Insectile and the Deconstruction of the Non/Human Fabienne Collignon, 2022-12-30 The Insectile and the Deconstruction of the Non Human defines, conceptualizes and evaluates the insectile pertaining to an entomological fascination in relation to subject formation. The book is driven by a central dynamic between form and formlessness, further staging an investigation of the phenomenon of fascination using Lacanian psychoanalysis, suggesting that the psychodrama of subject formation plays itself out entomologically. The book's engagement with the insectile, its enactments, cultural dreamwork, fantasy, transformations in forming the so-called human subject, undertakes a broader deconstruction of said subject and demonstrates the foundational but occluded role of the insectile in subject formation. It tracks the insectile across the archives of psychoanalysis, seventeenth-century still-life painting, novels from the nineteenth century to the present day, and post-1970s film. The Insectile and the Deconstruction of the Non Human will be of interest for scholars, graduate students, and upper-level undergraduates in film studies, visual culture, popular culture, cultural and literary studies, comparative literature, and critical theory, offering the insectile as a new category for theoretical thought. Philosophy with Clarice

Dimensions of the Impersonal in Clarice Lispector Wojciech Sawala, 2025-09-18 This book explores the fictional work of Clarice Lispector 1920-1977 the eminent twentieth century Brazilian writer It employs the theoretical framework of affirmative biopolitics by Roberto Esposito engaging with Michel Foucault and Giorgio Agamben alongside voices like Mircea Eliade Anthony Giddens and Agata Bielik Robson The focus is on rethinking and valuing impersonality crucial for understanding the anthropological metaphysical ethical and political implications in Lispector's works The main thesis posits that Lispector's writings from journalistic chronicles to significant books like The Passion According to G. H. present a complex anthropological vision marked by an ontological and ethical deadlock between personality and impersonality This vision suggests that humans are trapped in a personal mode of existence separated from their ontological essence leading to a metaphysical guilt The book analyzes this deadlock both in individual and communal political contexts highlighting the cryptotheological dimension in
