Arlington Hall Maggie Knatt:

Arlington Hall Maggie Knatt, 2015-11-26 From a quiet English country house where life has changed little comes a supernatural saga with a difference Living in their ancestral hall for time out of mind the Arlingtons lifestyle is not one that will prepare them for human remains or false walls or even for a rocking horse that rocks itself None of the Arlingtons suspect that they are the target of a vendetta from beyond the grave that is still dangerously alive Their family history has some secrets to give up family secrets of tragedy and incest that begin and end with what has lain buried beneath the Orchard all the time Spanning three generations and two centuries Arlington Hall tells of an aristocratic family entangled by uncertain personal histories into a unique fate taking readers on a journey beyond death and back
