Ashis Nandy:

Ashis Nandy Ramin Jahanbegloo, Ananya Vajpeyi, 2018-04-04 This volume is an adda of great minds spanning generations and multiple nationalities While one discusses creativity and aesthetics through Indian classical music another recounts the pleasure of a simple walk Another questions how it would be if Rabindranath Tagore lived in the twenty first century yet another how cool Indians are or might be in the future Subjects as far apart as war and solitude find space in these musings Through these lively engagements emerge key insights into the ideas writings and life of one of the foremost intellectuals of our time in Indian and global scholarship thought and dissent Ashis Nandy      International Relations in India: Theorising the region and nation Kanti P. Bajpai, Siddharth Mallavarapu, 2005 The Companion Volume To International Relations In India Bringing Theory Back Home Deals With The Interplay Between Identities And Foreign Policy Borders And Notions Of Territoriality And Critical Geopolitics The Book Also Makes Room For New Interpretations Of Conventional Areas Of International Relations Such As Power And Violence Thereby Creating The Conditions For A Sustained And Serious Theoretical Conversation Of The Discipline In India Of Particular Relevance Are Contributions In The Field Of International Political Economy An Area Of Traditional Neglect In The South Asian Setting      The Culture of Conformism Patrick Colm Hogan, 2001-04-17 Discusses the psychoanalytic concept of consent the reasons behind it and its effects on power and society      Postcolonialism and Political Theory Nalini Persram, 2008-01-01 Postcolonialism and Political Theory explores the intersection between the political and the postcolonial through an engagement with critique of and challenge to some of the prevalent restrictive tenets and frameworks of Western political and social thought It is a response to the call by postcolonial studies as well as to the urgent need within world politics to turn towards a multiplicity_largely excluded from globally dominant discourses of community subjectivity power and prosperity_constituted by otherness radical alterity or subordination to the newly reconsolidated West The book offers a diverse range of essays that re examine and open the boundaries of political and cultural modernity's historical domain that look at how the racialized and gendered and cultured subject visualizes the social from elsewhere that critique the limits of postcolonial theory and its claim to celebrate diversity and that complicate the notion of postcolonial politics within settler societies that continue to practice exile of the indigenous Postcolonialism and Political Theory is an ideal book for graduate and advanced undergraduate level study and for those working both disciplinarily and interdisciplinarily both inside and outside academia      Postcolonial Theory and the Making of Hindu Nationalism Meera Nanda, 2025-06-06 This book tells the story of two strange bedfellows the Postcolonial Left and the Hindu Right It argues that the Postcolonial Left's relentless attacks on the epistemic violence of Western norms of rationality and modernity are providing the conceptual vocabulary for the Hindu Right's project of decolonizing the Hindu mind The postcolonial project of provincializing Europe is widely shared by the Hindu Right and harks back to the Hindu revivalist movements of the nineteenth century This book argues that postcolonial thought in India bears a strong family resemblance in context and content with the conservative revolution that brought down the Weimar Republic in Germany before the Nazi takeover Both an intellectual history of India through the last half century and a critical engagement with postcolonial theory this book will be of interest to scholars of South Asia and the humanities and social sciences at large      The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films Sabine Haenni, Sarah Barrow, John White, 2014-09-15 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films comprises 200 essays by leading film scholars analysing the most important influential innovative and interesting films of all time Arranged alphabetically each entry explores why each film is significant for those who study film and explores the social historical and political contexts in which the film was produced Ranging from Hollywood classics to international bestsellers to lesser known representations of national cinema this collection is deliberately broad in scope crossing decades boundaries and genres The encyclopedia thus provides an introduction to the historical range and scope of cinema produced throughout the world      Vrindavan's Encounter with Modernity Samrat S. Kumar ,2019 Over the last decade traditional Indian temple towns have transformed into centres for urban lifestyles and tourist activities One of these is the historic temple town Vrindavan in North India on which this study focuses Exploring the multiple socio cultural realities present in the town the author engages with the narratives of the residents as they respond to the socio environmental changes against the backdrop of national and regional modernisation processes Here the imaginaries of a mythic Vrindavan with its pristine and sacred environment are evoked in narrations on contemporary modernity      The Geography of Nostalgia Alastair Bonnett, 2015-08-11 We are familiar with the importance of progress and change But what about loss Across the world from Beijing to Birmingham people are talking about loss about the loss that occurs when populations try to make new lives in new lands as well as the loss of traditions languages and landscapes The Geography of Nostalgia is the first study of loss as a global and local phenomenon something that occurs on many different scales and which connects many different people The Geography of Nostalgia explores nostalgia as a child of modernity but also as a force that exceeds and challenges modernity The book begins at a global level addressing the place of nostalgia within both global capitalism and anti capitalism In Chapter Two it turns to the contested role of nostalgia in debates about environmentalism and social constructionism Chapter Three addresses ideas of Asia and India as nostalgic forms The book then turns to more particular and local landscapes the last three chapters explore the yearnings of migrants for distant homelands and the old cities and ancient forests that are threatened by modernity but which modern people see as sites of authenticity and escape The Geography of Nostalgia is a reader friendly text that will appeal to a variety of markets In the university sector it is a student friendly interdisciplinary text that will be welcomed across a broad range of courses including cultural geography post colonial studies landscape and planning sociology and history      Gujarat Beyond Gandhi Nalin Mehta, Mona G. Mehta, 2013-09-13 The birthplace of Mahatma Gandhi and the land that produced Mohammad Ali Jinnah the founder of Pakistan Gujarat has been at the centre stage of South Asia s political iconography for more than a century As

Gujarat created as a separate state in 1960 celebrates its golden jubilee this collection of essays critically explores the many paradoxes and complexities of modernity and politics in the state The contributors provide much needed insights into the dominant impulses of identity formation cultural change political mobilisation religious movements and modes of communication that define modern Gujarat This book touches upon a fascinating range of topics the identity debates at the heart of the idea of modern Gujarat the trajectory of Gujarati politics from the 1950s to the present day bootlegging the practice of corruption and public power vegetarianism and violence urban planning and the enabling infrastructure of antagonism global diasporas and provincial politics providing new insights into understanding the enigma of Gujarat Going well beyond the boundaries of Gujarat and engaging with larger questions about democracy and diversity in India this book will appeal to those interested in South Asian Studies politics sociology history as well as the general reader This book was published as a special issue of South Asian History and Culture

Psychology in India Braj Bhushan, 2025-06-12 This volume presents the life and work of 62 prominent Indian psychologists with each chapter illustrating their life and work The nature and framework of each chapter is uniform encompassing a brief biography of the psychologists their affiliations with various institutions and most prominently their contributions to the field of psychology The major highlight of the book is the collection of work of Indian scholars recorded in the form of research articles book chapters and books some of which were even used to develop models by Western scholars but never received their due credit The research activities conducted at universities and institutions have been the backbone of scientific progress and they are also highlighted here especially the contributions of the Research Designs and Standards Organisation RDSO Lucknow Defence Institute of Psychological Research DIPR Delhi and Institute of Banking Personnel Selection IBPS Mumbai This is the first book of this kind that chronologically presents the life and work of Indian psychologists It will be useful to students of Psychology Behavioural Sciences Sociology and Social Work It will also be an invaluable reference text for those working on the history of psychology

Culture & History of Postrevolutionary China Arif Dirlik, 2011-11-24 The essays in this volume grew from a series of talks delivered in late 2010 as the Liang Qichao Memorial Lectures at the Academy of National Learning Guoxue yuan of Tsinghua University Beijing Offering critical perspectives on a number of ideological issues that have figured prominently in Chinese intellectual discourse since the beginning of the so-called reform and opening gaige kaifang in the late 1970s these essays range widely in subject matter from Marxist historiography to sociology and anthropology in China to guoxue national studies Together they are conceived as different windows into a basic problem the deployment of culture and history in postrevolutionary Chinese thought Dirlik touches on a number of themes including the repudiation of the revolutionary past after 1978 which has led to a rise of cultural nationalism He further places these developments within a global context ultimately making a case methodologically for worlding China bringing China into the world and the world into China

Divorce and Democracy Saumya Saxena, 2022-08-25 This book captures the Indian state's difficult dialogue with divorce mediated largely through religion By mapping the trajectories of marriage and divorce laws of Hindu Muslim and Christian communities in post colonial India it explores the dynamic interplay between law religion family minority rights and gender in Indian politics It demonstrates that the binary frameworks of the private public divide individuals versus group rights and universal rights versus legal pluralism collapse before the peculiarities of religious personal law Historicizing the legislative and judicial response to decades of public debates and activism on the question of personal law it suggests that the sustained negotiations over family life within and across the legal landscape provoked a unique and deeply contextual evolution of both secularism and religion in India s constitutional order Personal law therefore played a key role in defining the place of religion and determining the content of secularism in India s democracy     The Secret Life of Another Indian Nationalism Shail Mayaram,2022-06-16 It highlights shifts over two centuries as the geopolitical context has transitioned from the Pax Britannica to the Pax Americana     Imagined Identities Gönül Pultar,2014-04-14 How are identities being forged during the age of globalization This collection of essays by scholars from various disciplines and regions of the world discusses both the construction and deconstruction of identity in its engagement with culture ethnicity and nationhood The authors explore the tension resulting from the desire to create a new cultural space for identities that are at once national regional linguistic and religious Among the wide ranging approaches Tanja Stampfl looks at the elusiveness of cultural identity in Khaled Hosseini s The Kite Runner Dawn Morais investigates issues of ethnicity and nationality in Malaysia s tourism advertising and Cathy Waegner explores ethnic identities as globalized market commodities Throughout the volume identity is approached from a variety of sites fiction news analysis film theme parks and field work to contribute new insight and perspective to the well worn debate over what identity signifies in societies where the existence of minorities both indigenous and immigrant challenges the dominant group     The Asian Future Pracha Hutauwatr,Ramu Manivannan,2005 Radical Asian perspectives on globalization and Western development     Becoming International Jens Bartelson,2023-10-26 Provides a new historical account of the rise and spread of the modern international system     Theory in an Uneven World R. Radhakrishnan,2008-04-15 This major intervention into debates about the postcolonial and the global proposes that theory should embody unevenness as symptomeven as it envisions strategies to get beyond unevenness Radhakrishnan s thought provoking engagement with theorists andwriters from around the world will fascinate readers across a widerange of disciplines A major intervention into debates about the postcolonial andthe global Proposes that theory bear the burden of unevenness even as it seeks a way out of it neither captive to the world as it is nor naively credulous of visions of the world as it should be theoryargues for an ethics of persuasion that is firmly rooted inpolitical resistance Engages with a wide range of theorists and writers from aroundthe world Ranges over fields as diverse as critical theory postmodernism poststructuralism postcolonialism minoritystudies cultural studies and anthropology     Quandaries of Belonging Michael Jackson,2020-12-15 Those who leave their homelands either under duress or by design will see them in a different light than those who have stayed put Michael Jackson argues that the perspective of the expatriate may be compared with what ethnographers call stranger value In moving between detachment and deep immersion this bifocal perspective implicates a bicultural one which is why Jackson has recourse to Mori traditional knowledge not in order to impose a Eurocentric interpretation on them but to show how cross cultural conversations and interactions can promote new forms of sociality and coexistence

Clearing a Space Amit Chaudhuri, 2008 This book brings together many of Chaudhuri's best essays written over the past decade in journals such as the London Review of Books and the Times Literary Supplement Often beginning with the personal Chaudhuri enquires into the nature of the secular in India into the history of such categories as the West the foreign the global and the exotic and into the frequently torn and self divided nature of modern Indian identity Chaudhuri also makes a powerful case for thinking about Indian literature and culture in a way that departs strikingly from the parameters created since the publication of Midnight's Children and the consolidation of postcolonial studies While his mode is broadly oppositional it is also one of constant engagement with the positions he is arguing against

Moral Issues in Global Perspective - Volume 2: Human Diversity and Equality - Second Edition Christine Koggel, 2006-03-27 Now available in three thematic volumes the second edition of Moral Issues in Global Perspective is a collection of the newest and best articles on current moral issues by moral and political theorists from around the globe Each volume seeks to challenge the standard approaches to morality and moral issues shaped by Western liberal theory and to extend the inquiry beyond the context of North America Covering a broad range of issues and arguments this collection includes critiques of traditional liberal accounts of rights justice and moral values while raising questions about the treatment of disadvantaged groups within and across societies affected by globalization Providing new perspectives on issues such as war and terrorism reproduction euthanasia censorship and the environment each volume of Moral Issues in Global Perspective incorporates work by race class feminist and disability theorists Human Diversity and Equality the second of the three volumes examines issues of equality and difference and the effects within and across borders of kinds of discrimination on the basis of race ethnicity gender disability class and sexual orientation Nine essays are new four of which were written especially for this volume Moral Issues in Global Perspective is available in three separate volumes Moral and Political Theory Human Diversity and Equality and Moral Issues
