Feeling Asian American Wen Liu, 2024-05-07 Asian Americans have become the love hate subject of the American psyche at times celebrated as the model minority at other times hated as foreigners Wen Liu examines contemporary Asian American identity formation while placing it within a historical and ongoing narrative of racial injury The flexible racial status of Asian Americans oscillates between oppression by the white majority and offers to assimilate into its ranks Identity emerges from the tensions produced between those two poles Liu dismisses the idea of Asian Americans as a coherent racial population Instead she examines them as a raced gendered classed and sexualized group producing varying physical and imaginary boundaries of nation geography and citizenship Her analysis reveals repeated norms and acts that capture Asian Americanness as part of a racial imagination that buttresses capitalism white supremacy neoliberalism and the US empire An innovative challenge to persistent myths Feeling Asian American ranges from the wartime origins of Asian American psychology to anti Asian attacks to present Asian Americanness as a complex political assemblage

Asian American Communities and Health Chau Trinh-Shevrin, Nadia S. Islam, Mariano Jose Rey, 2009-04-03 This ground breaking textbook examines Asian American health from a public health perspective It provides an overview of the social political economic and cultural forces that influence the distribution of disease and illness in Asian American communities The book explores the diversity within the Asian community with respect to health seeking behavior and knowledge socioeconomic status educational level cultural traditions and specific health care needs and issues By examining the contextual factors that impact health the book seeks to facilitate a meaningful dialogue and identify creative solutions for health disparities faced by racial and ethnic minority communities

Asian American Women Lora Jo Foo, 2002 Asian American Women Issues Concerns and Responsive Human and Civil Rights Advocacy reveals the struggles of Asian American women at the bottom of the socio economic ladder where hunger illness homelessness sweatshop labor exposure to hazardous chemicals and even involuntary servitude are everyday realities Asian American women of all socio economic classes suffer from domestic violence whose root causes stem from the particular forms of patriarchy that exist in Asian cultures Their health and lives are endangered due to prevalent but wrong stereotypes about Asian women The model minority myth hides the appalling level of human and civil rights violations against Asian American women The lack of research or the lumping together of the over 24 subgroups of Asian Americans into a homogeneous whole misleads the public as to the extent of injustices inflicted on Asian American women The book captures their suffering and also the fighting spirit of Asian American women who have waged social and economic justice campaigns and founded organizations to right the wrongs against them The book is a call to action to Asian Americans policy makers civil rights organizations and the philanthropic community to support Asian American women in their struggles to advance their social justice agenda
