Denver's Chinatown 1875-1900 Jingyi Song, 2019-10-29 Denver's Chinatown 1875-1900: Gone But Not Forgotten explores the coming of the Chinese to the Western frontier and their experiences in Denver during its early development from a supply station for the mining camps to a flourishing urban center. The complexity of race, class, immigration politics, and economic policies interacted dynamically and influenced the life of early Chinese settlers in Denver. The Denver Riot as a consequence of political hostility and racial antagonism against the Chinese transformed the life of Denver's Chinese, eventually leading to the disappearance of Denver's Chinatown. But the memory of a neighborhood that was part of the colorful and booming urban center remains.

Institutional Ethnography Dorothy E. Smith, 2005-06-03 Prominent sociologist Dorothy Smith outlines a method of inquiry that uses everyday experience as a lens to examine social relations and social institutions. Concerned with articulating an inclusive sociology that goes beyond looking at a particular group of people from the detached viewpoint of the researcher, this is a method of inquiry for people incorporating the expert's research and language into everyday experience to examine social relations and institutions. The book begins by examining the foundations of institutional ethnography in women's movements, differentiating it from other related sociologies. The second part offers an ontology of the social, and the third illustrates this ontology through an array of institutional ethnography examples. This will be a foundational text for classes in sociology, ethnography, and women's studies.

The Kaleidoscope of Gender Joan Z. Spade, Catherine G. Valentine, 2008 This integrated comprehensive text provides an introduction to the sociology of gender. It creatively and clearly explains what gender is and is not and what it means to say that gender is socially constructed.

Class Questions Joan Acker, 2006 Class Questions: Feminist Answers examines feminist theories of class and intersectionality and proposes a theory of gendered and racialized class processes as deeply embedded in capitalist practices both historically and today. Joan Acker argues that large work organizations are primary locations in which gendered and racialized class inequalities are created. As neo-liberal market practices reorganize work, gendered and racialized class inequalities are both reorganized and increasing nationally and globally. This book will appeal to readers interested in a feminist discussion of class as a racialized and gendered process intimately tied to the capitalist economic system.

Making Transnational Viet Nam Caroline Kieu Linh Valverde, 2002

Revisioning Gender Myra Marx Ferree, Judith Lorber, Beth B. Hess, 1999 This comprehensive handbook summarizes the state of gender studies by examining the crucial research of the past decade and by encouraging thinking about how the questions central to studying gender have themselves changed. The book is an important step towards constructing a new analytical framework approach for the social sciences, one that calls into question disciplinary boundaries. The contributors illustrate how the use of gender by scholars in various and overlapping fields of study has helped alter concepts and research designs.

Comforting an Orphaned Nation Tobias Hübinette, 2006 The author provides the history of international adoption from Korea and the development of the Korean adoption issue in the political discussion and examines how overseas adopted Koreans are represented in Korean popular culture feature films and pop songs The adoption issue is a national trauma threatening to disrupt the unity and homogeneity of the Korean nation and to question the country's political independence and economic success The adoption issue can also be seen as an attempt at reconciling with a difficult past and imagining a common future for all ethnic Koreans at a transnational level BOOK JACKET
