Asian Development Outlook 1998:

Asian Development Outlook 2012 Update Asian Development Bank, 2012-10-01 According to the findings in the Asian Development Outlook 2012 Update dimming global growth prospects and soft domestic demand in the region's two largest economies are slowing the pace of developing Asia's expansion. Growth is now expected to slide from 7.2% in 2011 to 6.1% in 2012 with a bounce back to 6.7% in 2013. The possibility of a shock emanating from the unresolved euro area sovereign debt crisis or a sharp fiscal contraction in the United States pose the biggest downside risks to the economy. Fortunately, most developing Asian economies have room to counteract such shocks with fiscal and monetary policy. However, there is currently no regionwide need for countercyclical policy intervention. Asian Development Outlook 1998, 2001 The Asian Development Outlook 1998 is the Asian Development Bank's annual survey of economic developments in its developing member countries in the Asian and Pacific region. Includes analysis of the 1998 Asian financial crisis, economic trends in the region, and overview of individual Asian economies. Asian Development Outlook 1997 and 1998 Asian Development Bank, 1997 This is the current edition of the Asian Development Bank's annual survey of the progress made by its developing country members in Asia and the Pacific. First published in 1989, the Outlook provides a thorough yet succinct summary of recent economic developments and current issues. Economic trends and medium term prospects for the region are viewed against a background of development in the world economy. Asian Development Outlook 2013 Update Asian Development Bank, 2013-10-01 The Asian Development Outlook 2013 Update looks at governance in developing Asia. Even as the region energetically closes its income gap with advanced economies, a wide gap in governance remains. Yet governance is key to sustaining development momentum and improving public service delivery can be an entry point for better governance.
