Asian Space Race Asian Space Race:

Asia's Space Race James Clay Moltz, 2011 James Clay Moltz explores efforts by China Japan India South Korea and ten other countries to boost their civil commercial and in some cases military profiles in orbit He investigates these nations divergent goals and their tendency to focus on national solutions rather than on regionwide cooperation and multilateral initiatives

Asian Space Race: Rhetoric or Reality? Ajey Lele, 2012-10-20 This book explores the character and contours of the Asian Space Powers At present Asian states like China Japan and India are found investing in space technologies with analogous social and scientific and probably with divergent military intents Other Asian states like Israel South Korea and Malaysia are also making investments in the space arena States like Iran and North Korea are faulted for using space launches as a demonstrative tool to achieve strategic objectives This work examines this entire maze of activities to unearth where these states are making these investments to accomplish their state specific goal or are they also trying to surpass each other by engaging in competition Explaining why and how these states are making investments towards achieving their socio economic and strategic mandate this book infers that the possibility of Asian Space Race exists but is presently fairly diminutive

Asia's Space Race James Clay Moltz, 2011-12-13 In contrast to the close cooperation practiced among European states space relations among Asian states have become increasingly tense If current trends continue the Asian civilian space competition could become a military race To better understand these emerging dynamics James Clay Moltz conducts the first in depth policy analysis of Asia s fourteen leading space programs concentrating especially on developments in China Japan India and South Korea Moltz isolates the domestic motivations driving Asia s space actors revisiting critical events such as China s 2007 antisatellite weapons test and manned flights Japan s successful Kaguya lunar mission and Kibo module for the International Space Station ISS India s Chandrayaan lunar mission and South Korea s astronaut visit to the ISS along with plans to establish independent space launch capability He investigates these nations divergent space goals and their tendency to focus on national solutions and self reliance rather than regionwide cooperation and multilateral initiatives He concludes with recommendations for improved intra Asian space cooperation and regional conflict prevention Moltz also considers America s efforts to engage Asia s space programs in joint activities and the prospects for future U S space leadership He extends his analysis to the relationship between space programs and economic development in Australia Indonesia Malaysia North Korea Pakistan the Philippines Singapore Taiwan Thailand and Vietnam making this a key text for international relations and Asian studies scholars
