Aspects English Social History 1750 1859:

A Guide to Some Aspects of English Social History, 1750-1859 Judith Blow Williams, 1916 Aspects of the Georgian Church Judith Jago, 1997 Dr Jago reinforces the view of recent scholars that when judged by what it tried to do instead of by what Victorian reformers thought it ought to have tried to do the Georgian church was successful in maintaining the spiritual life of the parishes though perhaps not so well equipped to survive intact the unprecedented changes in population and industry that reshaped Yorkshire and English society in the later eighteenth century British Economic and Social History R. C. Richardson, William Henry Chaloner, 1996 South Asian History, 1750-1950 Margaret Case, 2015-12-08 This is a major bibliographic research guide designed to assist scholars of South Asian history India Pakistan and Nepal in finding materials relevant to their research It offers an annotated and indexed list of over 5 000 articles from 351 periodicals and 26 books of collected essays and encyclopedias It lists 341 English and bilingual English vernacular newspapers and 251 vernacular papers published in South Asia all with pertinent information It also provides an extensive unified list of dissertations for degrees in modern South Asian history from South Asian European and American universities About 3 100 of the entries are annotated Originally published in 1968 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Regional Novel in Britain and Ireland K. D. M. Snell, 1998-12-10 The Regional Novel In Britain and Ireland 1800 1990 will be of interest to literary and social historians as well as cultural critics British Friendly Societies, 1750-1914 S. Cordery, 2003-06-24 The first monograph on this topic since 1961 this book provides an innovative interpretation of the Friendly Societies in Britain from the perspectives on social gender and political history It establishes the central role of the Friendly Societies in the political activism of British workers changing understandings of masculinity and femininity the ritualised expression of social tensions and the origins of the welfare state London Crowds in the Reign of Charles II Tim Harris, 1987 Annotation A study of the political activities attitudes and motives of ordinary London people in an era of public confusion and anxiety The author analyzes both the tumult in the streets of Charles II's capital and the war of words between loyal and factious Londoners that filled the air Cambridge University Reporter University of Cambridge, 1968 The Origins of Ulster Unionism Peter Gibbon, 1975 The Allotment Movement in England, 1793-1873 Jeremy Burchardt, 2002 The living standards of the rural poor suffered a severe decline in the first half of the nineteenth century as a result of high population growth changing agricultural practices enclosure and the decline of rural industries Allotment provision was the most important counterweight to the pressures This book offers the first systematic analysis of the early nineteenth century allotment movement providing new data on the chronology of the movement and on the number geographical distribution size rents cultivation yields and effect on living standards of allotments showing how the movement brought the culture of the rural labouring poor more closely into line with the mainstream values of respectable mid Victorian England This book casts new light on central aspects of early and mid nineteenth century social and economic history agriculture and rural society JEREMY BURCHARDT is lecturer in Rural History University of Reading An Everyday Life of the English Working Class Carolyn Steedman, 2013-12-05 This book concerns two men a stockingmaker and a magistrate who both lived in a small English village at the turn of the nineteenth century It focuses on Joseph Woolley the stockingmaker on his way of seeing and writing the world around him and on the activities of magistrate Sir Gervase Clifton administering justice from his country house Clifton Hall Using Woolley's voluminous diaries and Clifton's magistrate records Carolyn Steedman gives us a unique and fascinating account of working class living and loving and getting and spending Through Woolley and his thoughts on reading and drinking sex the law and social relations she challenges traditional accounts which she argues have overstated the importance of work to the working man's understanding of himself as a creature of time place and society She shows instead that for men like Woolley law and fiction were just as critical as work in framing everyday life An Historical Atlas of Kent Terence Lawson, David Killingray, 2004 Kent can probably claim to have more unique features in its history than most other counties all fully reflected in this Atlas The Cathedral at Canterbury with its medieval shrine to St Thomas Becket requires the general subject of pilgrimage to be covered in detail the Cinque Ports the echoes of their ancient privileges still apparent by the early 19th century are another Kentish phenomenon Romney Marsh although not quite the separate continent that some claim is nevertheless well worthy of the detailed account of its medieval history Kent's perennial role as a gateway is perfectly illustrated by the Strangers from the near Continent who settled widely here in the 16th and 17th centuries Kent's industrial history is dominated by the unique concentration of royal dockyards while the story of Kent's coalfield isolated from its cousins in the North and Midlands is yet another remarkable chapter Finally being located between the Capital and the shortest crossing to the Continent Kent's relationship with London has been exceptionally close since medieval times and is a recurring theme in this Atlas This comprehensive new Historical Atlas based on current research fills a notable gap in the published histories of the County and will serve for many years as an important work of reference for the history of Kent The 250 newly drawn and reader friendly maps cover topics ranging from the earliest Stone Age occupation to such modern developments as the growth of leisure industries Several topics not usually covered in county historical atlases are included for example the introduction of public water and gas supplies in the 19th century together with the expansion of banking services and the local press Virtually every aspect of Kent's history is clearly mapped and explained in this new work Though Kent has seen much in its time it has never before seen a book like this which will be welcomed well beyond the Kentish borders Book Jacket Moments of Moment Wim Tigges, 1999 a sudden spiritual manifestation whether in the vulgarity of speech or of gesture or in a memorable phase in the mind itself Thus Stephen Dedalus in James Joyce's Stephen Hero defines the phenomenon that has ever since been known as the literary epiphany The essays gathered in this volume comprise a wide survey of this phenomenon With recurrent reference to its most famous creators notably William Wordsworth who was the first to consciously explore and delineate those momentous spots in time in his Prelude Walter Pater James Joyce and Virginia Woolf this book intends to provide a broad and unbiased exploration into the various types and categories of the moment of moment that can be distinguished ranging from William Blake Ann Radcliffe and Charles Maturin through the nineteenth century sonnet tradition and the naturalistic novel to modernist and postmodernist exponents such as Ezra Pound and Elizabeth Bowen Philip larkin and Seamus Heaney and include contributions by acclaimed experts in the field such as Martin Bidney Robert Langbaum Jay Losey and Ashton Nichols History Theses 1971-80, 1984

Lacan and Fantasy Literature Josephine Sharoni, 2017-07-03 Eschewing the all pervading contextual approach to literary criticism this book takes a Lacanian view of several popular British fantasy texts of the late 19th century such as Bram Stoker's Dracula revealing the significance of the historical context the advent of a modern democratic urban society in place of the traditional agrarian one Moreover counter intuitively it turns out that fantasy literature is analogous to modern Galilean science in its manipulation of the symbolic thereby changing our conception of reality It is imaginary devices such as vampires and ape men which in conjunction with Lacanian theory say something additional of the truth about primarily sexual aspects of human subjectivity and culture repressed by the contemporary hegemonic discourses A Guide to the Printed Materials for English Social and Economic History, 1750-1850 Judith Blow Williams, 1926 James Cowles Prichard of the Red Lodge Margaret M. Crump, 2025 In James Cowles Prichard of the Red Lodge Margaret M Crump offers the first thorough biography of the Welsh natural historian scientist and antiracist anthropologist James Cowles Prichard 1786 1848

Suffer and Be Still (Routledge Revivals) Martha Vicinus, 2013-10-08 First published in 1972 this book contains a collection of ten essays that document the feminine stereotypes that women fought against and only partially erased a hundred years ago In an introductory essay Martha Vicinus describes the perfect Victorian lady showing that the ideal was a combination of sexual innocence conspicuous consumption and worship of the family hearth Indeed this model in some form was the ideal of all classes as the perfect lady's only functions were marriage and procreation The text offers a valuable insight into Victorian culture and society An Economic and Social History of Britain, 1760-1970 Trevor May, 1987

Within the Plantation Household Elizabeth Fox-Genovese, 2000-11-09 Documenting the difficult class relations between women slaveholders and slave women this study shows how class and race as well as gender shaped women's experiences and determined their identities Drawing upon massive research in diaries letters memoirs and oral histories the author argues that the lives of antebellum southern women enslaved and free differed fundamentally from those of northern women and that it is not possible to understand antebellum southern women by applying models derived from New England sources
