The Assault and Other War Poems From Ardours and Endurances (Classic Reprint) Robert Malise Bowyer Nichols, 2018-01-30 Excerpt from The Assault and Other War Poems From Ardours and Endurances I have been accused in print in conversation in letters signed and unsigned of militarism It is said by those too lazy or too stupid to understand me and by those who misinterpret for their own ends another s works that I glorify war I can forgive those who care so little for anything that they cannot be bothered with another s attempt at truth but I cannot forgive those who wilfully misinterpret me Fliers in the face of truth perjurers I do not praise war I glorify not those who make war but those who endure it not those vices which lead to it but those virtues which it rediscovers Think Con sider my generation Am I likely to love war more particularly this war Which generation has been most swept away 2 Those young men who were between the ages of nineteen and twenty six when the sword was drawn Do I not belong to that generation 3 Go you and call in the streets of the universities citadelsof ghosts Have I not reason to love war Answer About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
