Assault On Paradise Kottak Summary:

Assault on Paradise Conrad Phillip Kottak, Richard Pace, 2024-09-10 The Fifth Edition of Assault on Paradise continues to offer an in depth exploration of Arembepe Brazil through the lens of cultural change and environmental activism Combining the pioneering ethnographic research of Conrad Kottak with fresh insights from co author Richard Pace this seminal ethnographic study provides a comprehensive view of Arembepe s evolution over the past six decades Kottak s original work captures Arembepe s transformation from a serene fishing village to a global cultural hotspot during the 1960s hippie movement His detailed observations offer students a foundational understanding of how cultural social and economic forces interact within a community In this new edition an updated chapter with new co author Richard Pace reflects the current dynamics of the village Contemporary developments in religious practices the expansion of tourism and local environmental activism are addressed Kottak and Pace illustrate how Arembepe continues to navigate its identity amidst ongoing change Assault on Paradise stands out as a valuable case study on cultural adaptation community resilience and the impacts of globalization Kottak and Pace s combined perspectives help students grasp the complexities of cultural transformation and the role of local agency in shaping environmental and social outcomes Perfect for classroom use this book facilitates critical discussions on cultural dynamics and offers a nuanced view of how communities respond to external pressures while preserving their heritage

Management Systems for Riverine Fisheries Thayer Scudder, Thomas Conelly, 1985-01-01 This paper is concerned specifically with the problems of river fisheries and associated management issues It deals in particular with the scope for building on traditional practices through the participation of traditional fishing communities as a means of improving the quality of river fishery management The paper reviews the most frequently encountered problems of riverine fisheries such as over fishing due to population pressure or migration and artificially induced environmental factors such as dams pollution and deforestation It lays stress on the importance of studying fishing communities as well as strictly biological factors and presents a four stage analysis of the evolution of traditional riverine fisheries Several undesirable consequences of this typical evolution both on the resource itself and on traditional fishing communities are identified and illustrated by case studies from the Amazon and the Zambesi Certain types of traditional management strategies are examined and assessed for their future utility The current ineffectiveness of many existing government river fisheries management policies is noted either as a result of lack of resources or because they are inappropriate often rooted in outdated colonial legislation The lack of both limited access measures and of participation by local fishing communities are highlighted as major deficiencies The paper concludes by linking these two features as crucial components of durable river management strategies for the future although other possibilities for management are also reviewed and assessed The paper contains a comprehensive bibliography for further reading
