Re-shaping Cities Michael Guggenheim, Ola Söderström, 2009-12-04 How are building types such as skyscrapers mosques or living history museums imported adapted and contested in different societies Our urban landscapes are reshaped by the global circulation of models drawn from elsewhere This original collection examines how architectural ideas social models and building forms circulate round the world and become adapted to local conditions The Publishers Weekly, 2008

Patrick Tighe Architecture Patrick Tighe, 2016-08-20 This beautifully designed and illustrated monograph sets out Patrick Tighe's innovative diverse and wide ranging collection of contemporary work towards the post digital showing the reader a hyper detailed analytical investigation of digital forms and their practices It sets out how his architecture has brought a return to the real in an attempt to rethink the language and practice of architecture The book's many inspiring and intricate drawings render clear the ideas that show the palpable energy and momentum that exists in this practice In every instance this firm embraces dichotomy mining its potential to produce a more vital and consequential architecture The book's stunning imagery and nuanced narratives tell the story of Tighe's architecture across 35 projects spanning across the globe to help establish how his work draws from and builds upon existing polarities to find resolution and how tensions yield a more dynamic architecture The work is multiple and varied from the small scale residential to the urban scale from the United States to Europe to China to North Africa from high end villas for royalty to art installations to social housing projects This compelling collection of work follows the following five key themes CRAFT from the manufactured to the technological MATERIAL from the natural to the synthetic EXPERIENCE from the actual to the perceptual GEOMETRY from the simple to the complex and METHOD from the analog to the digital This distinguished monograph also includes an incisive introduction by Patrick Tighe and is augmented by two essays by Thom Mayne and Stephen Phillips who also provide clarity and insightful discourse on how Tighe's work is continuously in transition and evolving and how he's rethinking and engaging in a discourse to defamiliarize the familiar

Tall Buildings Mehmet Günel, Hüseyin Ilgin, 2014-06-27 The structural challenges of building 800 metres into the sky are substantial and include several factors which do not affect low rise construction This book focusses on these areas specifically to provide the architectural and structural knowledge which must be taken into account in order to design tall buildings successfully In presenting examples of steel reinforced concrete and composite structural systems for such buildings it is shown that wind load has a very important effect on the architectural and structural design The aerodynamic approach to tall buildings is considered in this context as is earthquake induced lateral loading Case studies of some of the world's most iconic buildings illustrated with full colour photographs structural plans and axonometrics will bring to life the design challenges which they presented to architects and structural engineers The Empire State Building the Burj Khalifa Taipei 101 and the HSB Turning Torso are just a few examples of the buildings whose real life specifications are used to explain and illustrate core design principles and their subsequent effect on the finished structure Quill & Quire, 2008 Understanding Tall Buildings

Kheir Al-Kodmany, 2017-02-17 In recent years the rapid pace of tall building construction has fostered a certain kind of placelessness with many new tall buildings being built out of scale context and place By analyzing hundreds of tall buildings and by providing hundreds of visuals that inspire stimulate and engage Understanding Tall Buildings contends that well designed tall buildings can rejuvenate cities ignite economic activity support social life and boost city pride Although this book does not claim to possess all the solutions it does propose specific tall building design guidelines that may help to promote placemaking Through this work it is the author's hope that ill conceived developments will become less common in the future and that good placemaking will become the norm not the exception This book is a must read for students and practitioners working to create better tall buildings and better urban environments Photography for Architects

Martine Hamilton Knight, 2024-01-19 Shortlisted for the Architectural Book Awards 2024 We live in a world driven by images but with so much visual noise is anyone really looking How does an architect ensure their portfolio is within view of the right audience Photographs are still as vital to architectural practice as they ever were However creation and circulation once in the hands of skilled professionals is now perceived as being free and within easy reach of all But where is the clarity What is the message By setting out the case for curated image making considered photography may again be placed at the centre of architectural marketing strategies Photography for Architects guides the reader through various topics from establishing a visual brand and sharing images online to producing content in house and commissioning professionals It explores the still and moving image creating books and exhibitions for legacy value compiling award entries and engaging with trade press Little understood aspects regarding legal rights and obligations ethics copyright and licensing images for use are discussed in clear language Multiple photographic examples and conversations with international practitioners highlight the various themes throughout Written by a working architectural photographer whose life has been spent in commercial practice this easy to read richly illustrated guide is essential reading for architects and designers alike who are working with images and image makers Dwell, 2008-07 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines Architects' Sketches Kendra Schank Smith, 2008 Concepts from architects minds evolve through sketches and as a mode of transference are conveyed to the finished building This book compares qualities of sketches to reveal unique approaches to the instruments of thinking in which all architects engage It provides new insight into the relationship between architectural sketches and the process of creative manipulation Sketches comprise a thinking mechanism and through the qualities of ambiguity quickness and change they initiate a dialogue for architects As a medium to facilitate communication recording discovery and evaluation their pertinence lies in their ability to exhibit both the precise and the imprecise Exploring four related theoretical approaches play memory imagination fantasy caricature and the grotesque the book shows how imprecision stimulates imagination to conceive new forms in the dialogue of architectural sketches Ten Years, Realized Works Erick van Egeraat, 2005 The work of EEA as presented in this retrospective of the past 10 years of its work covers the full architectural gamut including public educational residential interior design exhibition design and the design of furniture and objects Architecture, Culture, and Spirituality Thomas Barrie, Julio Bermudez, Phillip James Tabb, 2016-03-09 Architecture has long been understood as a cultural discipline able to articulate the human condition and lift the human spirit yet the spirituality of architecture is rarely directly addressed in academic scholarship The seventeen chapters provide a diverse range of perspectives grouped according to topical themes Being in the World Sacred Secular and the Contemporary Condition Symbolic Engagements Sacred Landscapes and Spirituality and the Designed Environment Even though the authors approach the subject from a range of disciplines and theoretical positions all share interests in the need to rediscover redefine or reclaim the sacred in everyday experience scholarly analysis and design Advances in Global Leadership William H. Mobley, Ming Li, Ying Wang, 2011-02-15 Includes chapters on various concepts and processes associated with leading across cultures and other boundaries

Reference Sources for Small and Medium-sized Libraries Jack O'Gorman, 2008 This guide to reference sources covers a wide range of topics in a variety of formats including print websites CD ROMs and electronic databases Sustainable Construction Sandy Halliday, 2018-12-07 The second edition of Sustainable Construction provides a masterclass on the principles and techniques involved in the design and delivery of practical affordable high quality sustainable buildings and places It presents precedents theory concepts and principles alongside 120 wide ranging case studies that highlight current best practice and encourage implementation Topics in the book include the history of ideas in sustainable construction policy materials cost issues appraisal techniques environmental design energy water construction processes and urban ecology The book is heavily illustrated in full colour and is an ideal contemporary accessible primer to courses in Architecture

Urban Informality and the Built Environment Nerea Amorós Elorduy, Nikhilesh Sinha, Colin Marx, 2024-03-12 Urban Informality and the Built Environment demonstrates the value of greater and more diverse forms of engagement of built environment disciplines in what constitutes urban informality and its politics It brings a multi disciplinary approach to the study of informality and the built environment in diverse contexts drawing on recent research by architects planners political scientists geographers and urban theorists The book presents different case studies from multiple geographies drawing attention to the need for studying urban informality in the Global North and Global South The cases promote a cross fertilization between disciplines lenses geographies and methodologies They range from the creative place making of street artists in Accra to the morphological evolution of urban Tirana urban agriculture in la Habana and social reproduction in Greece Additional contributions highlight the cross cutting themes of infrastructure exchange and image Urban Informality and the Built Environment introduces built environment disciplines to its constitutive roles in producing urban informality It also tests a range of new methodologies to the study of urban informality demonstrating the possibilities for new insights when building on the relational understanding of urban informality

Building with Light Robert Elwall, 2004 Ever since its invention photography has enjoyed a close and mutually stimulating relationship with architecture an association underlined by one description of photography as building with light So well established is this link that photography is now regarded as the easiest and most reliable means of making architecture and its ideas accessible to a wider public Our first sometimes our only impression of a building often comes from a photograph and the skilled photographer can help us to see even the most familiar structures with a fresh eye This book offers a lively exploration of the development of architectural photography and some of its key themes From the earliest examples of the genre in the nineteenth century to today's digital revolution Robert Elwall skilfully focuses on the changing aesthetic of the medium worldwide Included are such topics as the early influence of architectural drawing the growth of specialist photographic firms documenting the nineteenth century building boom the influence of photography on both architectural practice and history the invention of half tone reproduction the role of photography in the spread of Modernism the impact of colour photography during the 1970s and 1980s and the increasing use of computers to shape a new direction Authoritatively written by a world renowned expert and illustrated with arresting images from collections throughout the world this study is essential reading for anyone interested in architecture photography and the history of their special relationship Book jacket

Architecture - Comfort and Energy M. Sala, C. Gallo, A. A. M. Sayigh, 1999-02-22 In this book we seek to approach the architecture energy combination and its relationship to human comfort and the environment There are chapters on thermal comfort low energy architecture dealing with various criterion for comfort in different parts of the World The book also seeks to understand how previous generations lived in harsh climates and without abundant sources of energy yet managed to design and build appropriate dwellings providing both comfort and harmony with the environment Other chapters deal with the bioclimatic concept in Vernacular Architecture the major role which climate plays at different locations and how this can dictate the shape and form of the buildings and save energy the importance of micro climate and its various elements and usage ventilation and its importance in buildings and the technology for modern architecture

Rethinking Architectural Historiography Dana Arnold, Elvan Altan Ergut, Belgin Turan Ozkaya, 2006-09-27 Rather than subscribing to a single position this collection informs the reader about the current state of the discipline looking at changes across the broad field of methodological theoretical and geographical plurality Divided into three sections Rethinking Architectural Historiography begins by renegotiating foundational and contemporary boundaries of architectural history in relation to other fields such as art history and archaeology It then goes on to critically engage with past and present histories disclosing assumptions biases and absences in architectural historiography It concludes by exploring the possibilities provided by new perspectives reframing the discipline in the light of new parameters and problematics This timely and illustrated title reflects upon the current changes in historiographical practice exploring potential openings that may contribute further transformation of the disciplines and theories on architectural historiography and addresses the current question of the disciplinary particularity of architectural history

O'Neil Ford Duograph 3, Argentina Wilfried Wang, 2010 This third volume turns the spotlight on a high rise by Rafael Iglesia and a free standing house by Marcelo Villafa e With drawings sketches and photographs it documents the progress of both projects from concept to completion
