Assessing APEC's Progress Richard E. Feinberg, Ye Zhao, 2001 In its first ten years what has the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC accomplished Has the 21 member forum including the United States Japan China Mexico and most of Southeast Asia fulfilled its promise To answer these vital questions leading scholars at APEC Study Centres from thirteen APEC member economies undertook detailed studies of such central issues as trade in services investment policy human resource development food and agriculture energy and financial stability The findings are summarized in a policy report Learning From Experience that has received wide praise and close scrutiny from senior government officials The report concludes that APEC has successfully established itself as a world class forum that has contributed to the affirmation of a coherent set of positive ideas However the report notes shortcomings in each of the critical areas of trade and investment liberalization economic and technical cooperation and institutional structure and offers remedial policy recommendations to improve APECs future performance This volume contains both the policy report and the issue studies It is the product of the APEC International Assessment Network APIAN a collaborative independent project among participating APEC Study Centres to track and assess the design and execution of key APEC initiatives Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Ippei Yamazawa, 2003-09-02 This book provides the most up to date and comprehensive account of the APEC Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation organisation and examines the challenges APEC now faces in the new century Subjects covered include the history of APEC APEC and the latest WTO round case studies of countries in the region including China Japan Malaysia Korea and Taiwan APECs approach to competition and deregulation policy assessment of APECs standing as an international institution Featuring contributions from distinguished groups of international academic experts this book is essential reading for all those interested in political and economic developments in the Asia Pacific APEC as an Institution Richard E Feinberg, 2003 Assesses the strengths and weaknesses of APEC s soft institutionalism and its capstone policy report identifies reforms that would close the credibility gap between APEC s promises and accomplishments Leading scholars at APEC Study Centres investigate APEC s core agenda and delve into the inner workings of bureaucracy APEC Chia Siow Yue, 1994 Political and academic interest in economic relations among APEC economies and in the APEC process has been gaining momentum The November 1993 Seattle meetings of APEC ministers and leaders marked a turning point for the APEC forum APEC Challenges and Opportunities is the result of the First APEC Roundtable held in June 1994 to analyze the issues involved and explore the future direction of APEC Two papers provide the background for the analysis of APEC economic relations and the co operation agenda one examining security issues in the region and the other the economic dynamism of East Asia The next set of papers trace the evolution of the concept of Asia Pacific economic co operation examine the APEC process and structure as well as differences in American and Asia approaches and explore the likely institutional structure and appropriate agenda for APEC Also looked into are the trends and patterns of trade and investment interdependence among the APEC countries the various options for regional trade and investment facilitation and the case for an APEC free trade area and an APEC investment code The two final papers examine subsets of the APEC relationships namely the complementary and competitive elements between ASEAN and APEC and between ASEAN and NAFTA Trade Facilitation Through Customs Procedures, 2011 The APEC Model of International Economic Cooperation Julia Lowell, 1998 This paper considers the current and potential economic achievements of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC forum in light of its costs to the United States It compares APEC's goals and institutional structure to those of three other multilateral economic institutions the World Trade Organization The European Union and the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA It concludes that although limited both in its aims and effectiveness APEC does serve a useful and probably cost effective purpose to the United States APEC Ippei Yamazawa, 2012 APEC is a crucial trans regional arrangement that draws the US into constructive economic engagement with East Asia This book makes it clear why APEC remains such a crucial element of regional economic architecture and defines an agenda doing forward to which regional leaders should aspire APEC at 20 K Kesavapany, Hank Lim, 2009 Spanning 20 years of history the achievements of APEC may seem uneventful in the eyes of some observers Yet careful deliberation will point to APEC's many remarkable high points as well as some of the challenges The foundations of APEC were set in place about 40 years ago based on the achievements of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN and the Pacific Economic Cooperation Council PECC One of the cornerstones of APEC's vision is to achieve a free and open trade area among its member economies This vision is anchored in the Bogor Goals that remain the centrepiece of the APEC process The Bogor Goals represent a cause for celebration as well as angst Celebration because the region has moved towards achieving a much more liberalized environment of trading and investment since 1989 angst because the deadlines for achieving the goals have not yet been fully realized Today APEC embraces many of the world's dynamic developed and developing economies that are better poised to meet the new challenges of this century For those seeking to get a quick sweep of APEC this book recalls reflects and provides enough food for thought on the possible remake of APEC The chapters are carefully written by experts who have been directly involved in the APEC process one way or another The invaluable insights serve to place the whole APEC process in a balanced perspective yet with candid deliberations APEC and the New Economy Sung-Hoon Park, Mari Pangestu, 2002 Trade and Environment in APEC Phuchphop Mongkolnavin, 2002 APEC and Liberalisation of the Chinese Economy Peter Drysdale, Zhang Yunling, Ligang Song, 2012-12-01 This book assembles papers that were produced under a three year collaborative research program on China and APEC undertaken by the AustraliaJapan Research Centre in the Asia Pacific School of Economics and Management at The Australian National University and the APEC Policy Research Center in the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences The work on this project and the papers in the volume provide a base for developing ideas that could be helpful to the policy agenda for APEC 2001 Preface An Assessment of the APEC's Progress Toward the Bogor Goals Honggue Lee,1999      Institutions of the Asia-Pacific Mark Beeson,2008-08-18 The Asia Pacific region is home to the world s largest economies and some of its most volatile strategic relationships But for all its geopolitical importance it has generally failed to develop the sorts of powerful and effective institutions that are found in Western Europe This book explains why and considers the prospects for future institutional development in this pivotal region      Assessing APEC Trade Liberalization and Facilitation, 1999 Update ,1999      Achieving APEC's Ecotech Targets Andrew Elek,2002 Following the financial crises of the late 1990s APEC has sought to broaden its scope beyond issues of international trade and investment The 2000 Declaration of APEC leaders set the objective of individual or community based access to information and services offered via the Internet to everyone in the region by 2010 Access to information and communications technology ICT is of enormous potential value to microenterprises so this target will complement other efforts that may be launched Broadening access to the Internet will also complement the drive towards free and open trade and investment Executive summary      Revisiting the Open Regionalism of APEC Seok-young Choi,2004      APEC ,2000*      APEC in the 21st Century Riyana Miranti,Denis Hew Wei-Yen,2004 APEC is a unique organization that promotes economic cooperation in the Asia Pacific region It remains an informal intergovernmental organization Examines APEC s accomplishments in recent years and the challenges it faces in the new century      Institute of Southeast Asian Studies Series on APEC. ,1994
