There is much variability with regard to the type depth and effectiveness of training teachers receive in understanding and meeting the needs of English language learners ELLs in public schools across the country yet the rise in the number of learners has been substantial Although it is important that teachers have knowledge and skills related to instructional methods and approaches for teaching ESL they may also be confronted with policies that disadvantage ELLs such as compulsory standardized testing and unrealistic curriculum demands They may also lack appropriate resources and be faced with learners who have learning disabilities and behavioral issues associated with culture shock The book is designed to present classroom oriented topics that are fundamental to the professional development of pre service novice and veteran teachers working with ELLs Such topics include issues surrounding initial orientation and student placement the acculturation process for ELLs and particular concerns of refugee students challenges involved in making accommodations and curricular modifications as well as determining if ELLs have special needs social and emotional difficulties affecting ELL performance and communicating with parents and bullying behaviors learner advocacy and transitioning The book may be used as a supplement to a course textbook on second language acquisition and teaching or as the main focus of a course to which other material is added The short case studies provide an opportunity for teachers to engage in dialogue and wrestle with issues and dilemmas that pertain to ELLs in real life school settings They provide a stimulus that help teachers explore their underlying assumptions about the languages cultures and experiences that their ELLs bring to the school community Acknowledging learners strengths and aspirations prepares all students for success in our global society Catalog of ERIC Clearinghouse Publications ,1997 Proceedings of the Pacific-Rim Objective Measurement Symposium (PROMS 2023) Quan Zhang,2024-08-12 This is an open access book PROMS conference is a premier international venue for Rasch researchers and practitioners to share new ideas research results and development experiences We welcome abstracts in all areas of research including conceptual and empirical studies that are conducted with quantitative qualitative and mixed methods Topics include but are not limited to Rasch model or Rasch based Integrating e-Portfolios into L2 Classrooms Ricky Lam,2024-08-13 This book explains both the theory and practice of e Portfolio pedagogy and assessment in second and foreign language classroom contexts The author addresses how e Portfolios can help instructors make the most of the challenges and opportunities by the continuation of online and blended classrooms in post pandemic education and how students might be encouraged to capitalise on their social media literacy to fully engage with e Portfolios In addition to providing new insights for scholars of language pedagogy the book equips language teachers with the practical knowledge and skills they need to use the e Portfolio approach in their classrooms It offers a balance between theory research and the practice of an e Portfolio approach which will inform effective second language instruction and assessment as well as enhance key stakeholders language assessment literacy Handbook of Research on Assessment Literacy and Teacher-Made Testing in the Language Classroom White, Eddy, Delaney, Thomas, 2018-11-23 The evaluation of student performance and knowledge is a critical element of an educator's job as well as an essential step in the learning process for students The quality and effectiveness of the evaluations given by educators are impacted by their ability to create and use reliable and valuable evaluations to facilitate and communicate student learning The Handbook of Research on Assessment Literacy and Teacher Made Testing in the Language Classroom is an essential reference source that discusses effective language assessment and educator roles in evaluation design Featuring research on topics such as course learning outcomes learning analytics and teacher collaboration this book is ideally designed for educators administrative officials linguists academicians researchers and education students seeking coverage on an educator's role in evaluation design and analyses of evaluation methods and outcomes Crespar Findings (1994-1999) A. Wade Boykin, Robert E. Slavin, 2014-10-13 This double issue presents summaries of the scholarly and practical reform accomplishments of the first five years of the Center for Research on the Education of Students Placed at Risk CRESPAR This bold five year initiative addressed several of the problems that most directly challenge the values and practical aspirations of modern democracies The included articles emphasize how CRESPAR has focused on the schools in many of America's most challenging communities It has both helped local schools improve themselves and advanced the nation's research base This issue was written in commemoration of the life and work of John Henry Hollifield Jr founding coeditor For 28 years Hollifield served as an editor and administrator at Johns Hopkins University's Center for Social Organization of Schools When JESPAR was just an idea Hollifield was one of the people who most strongly advocated its development He had a ready smile a fine editorial touch and a relentless will to produce each excellent issue This issue summarizing much of the research from CRESPAR's first five years is presented by the full team of authors in his loving memory Assessing English Language Learners in the Content Areas Florin Mihai, 2010-06-11 Assessing English Language Learners in the Content Areas A Research into Practice Guide for Educators seeks to provide guidance to classroom teachers staff developers and test item designers who want to improve ELL assessment outcomes particularly in the areas of math science and social studies The first two chapters of the book establish the background for the discussion of content area assessment for ELLs examining several important characteristics of this rapidly growing student population as well as critical legislation affecting ELLs and providing a description of various forms of assessment including how ELL assessment is different from the assessment of English proficient students Important assessment principles that educators should use in their evaluation of tests or other forms of measurement are provided Other chapters review ELL test accommodations nationwide because surprisingly most teachers do not know what they can and cannot allow and the research on the effectiveness of these types of accommodations The book analyzes the characteristics of alternative assessment it discusses three popular alternative assessment instruments performance assessment curriculum based measurement and portfolios and makes recommendations as to how to increase the validity reliability and practicality of alternative assessments The book proposes fundamental assessment practices to help content area teachers in their evaluation of their ELL progress      Leadership of Assessment, Inclusion, and Learning

Shelleyann Scott,Donald E. Scott,Charles F. Webber,2015-10-20 This book provides pragmatic strategies and models for student assessment and ameliorates the heightened sense of confusion that too many educators and leaders experience around the complexities associated with assessment In particular it offers guidance to school and district personnel charged with fair and appropriate assessment of students who represent a wide variety of abilities and cultures Chapters focus on issues that directly impact the educational lives of teachers students parents and caregivers Importantly the confluence of assessment practices and community expectations also are highlighted Assessment is highly politicised in contemporary society and this book will both confirm and challenge readers beliefs and practices Indeed discerning readers will understand that the chapters offer them a bridge from many established assessment paradigms to pragmatic ethical solutions that align with current expectations for schools and districts In Part One readers engage with concepts and skills needed by school learning leaders to guide optimal assessment practices Part Two delves into student assessment within and across disciplines Part Three provides pragmatic approaches that address assessment in the context of inclusive intercultural education pluralism and globalisation      Resources in Education ,2001-10      Literacy Instruction for English Language
