Associations Synagogues And Congregations Claiming A Place In Ancient Mediterranean Society:

Associations, Synagogues, and Congregations Philip A. Harland, 2003 Ephesus Galatia Troas and Pergamum are familiar names to readers of the New Testament But what made this region such fertile ground for early synagogues and congregations of those who followed Christ How did the earliest churches and synagogues organize themselves How did other voluntary associations operate within the Roman empire How did such organizations relate to the constraints of imperial religion These are some of the questions that Philip Harland addresses in this stimulating look at first century Roman Asia He surveys the various forms of guilds and associations in the eastern Roman empire Asia Minor is one of the primary regions of Paul's journeys described in Acts and it provided the context for several New Testament books especially the Pastoral Epistles 1 Peter and Revelation The author's fresh look at ancient inscriptions reveals new insights about the formation operation and functions of congregations and synagogues within the larger framework of voluntary associations in the Roman world

Private Associations in the Ancient Greek World Vincent Gabrielsen, Mario C. D. Paganini, 2023-06-29 Private associations abounded in the ancient Greek world and beyond and this volume provides the first large scale study of the strategies of governance which they employed Emphasis is placed on the values fostered by the regulations of associations the complexities of the private public divide and that divide's impact on polis institutions and the dynamics of regional and global networks and group identity The attested links between rules and religious sanctions also illuminate the relationship between legal history and religion Moreover possible links between ancient associations and the early Christian churches will prove particularly valuable for scholars of the New Testament The book concludes by using the regulations of associations to explore a novel and revealing aspect of the interaction between the Mediterranean world India and China This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

Private Associations and Jewish Communities in the Hellenistic and Roman Cities Dr. Benedikt Eckhardt, 2019-07-01 In Private Associations and Jewish Communities in the Hellenistic and Roman Cities Benedikt Eckhardt brings together a group of experts to investigate a problem of historical categorization Traditionally scholars have either presupposed that Jewish groups were Greco Roman Associations like others or have treated them in isolation from other groups Attempts to begin a cross disciplinary dialogue about the presuppositions and ultimate aims of the respective approaches have shown that much preliminary work on categories is necessary This book explores the methodological dividing lines based on the common sense assumption that different questions require different solutions Re introducing historical differentiation into a field that has been dominated by abstractions it provides the debate with a new foundation Case studies highlight the problems and advantages of different approaches

Synagogues in the Hellenistic and Roman Periods Lutz Doering, Andrew R. Krause, Hermut Löhr, 2020-12-14 The study of ancient Judaism has enjoyed a steep rise in interest and publications in recent decades although the focus has often been on the ideas and beliefs represented in ancient Jewish texts rather than on the daily lives and the material culture of Jews Judaeans and their communities The nascent institution of the synagogue formed an increasingly important venue for communal gathering and daily or weekly practice This collection of essays brings together a broad spectrum of new archaeological and textual data with various emergent theories and interpretative methods in order to address the need to understand the place of the synagogue in the daily and weekly procedures community frameworks and theological structures in which Judaeans Galileans and Jewish people in the Diaspora lived and gathered The interdisciplinary studies will be of great significance for anyone studying ancient Jewish belief practice and community formation

Maier, Katharina Waldner, 2020-12-16 Martyrs create space and time through the actions they take the fate they suffer the stories they prompt the cultural narratives against which they take place and the retelling of their tales in different places and contexts The title Desiring Martyrs is meant in two senses First it refers to protagonists and antagonists of the martyrdom narratives who as literary characters seek martyrs and the way they inscribe certain kinds of cultural and social desire Second it describes the later celebration of martyrs via narrative martyrdom acts monuments inscriptions martyria liturgical commemoration pilgrimage etc Here there is a cultural desire to tell or remember a particular kind of story about the past that serves particular communal interests and goals By applying the spatial turn to these ancient texts the volume seeks to advance a still nascent social geographical understanding of emergent Christian and Jewish martyrdom It explores how martyr narratives engage pre existing time space configurations to result in new appropriations of earlier traditions
