Claridge,2017-11-17 Excerpt from A History of the Gold Coast and Ashanti Vol 2 of 2 From the Earliest Times to the Commencement of the Twentieth Century Chap 1 against the Coast at once had it not been for the local troubles that followed the murder of Asamoah Kwanta's nephew These disturbances were no sooner over than plans had been made for another invasion of which Adu Boffo's expedition to Krepi and Atjiempon's march to Elmina had formed a part and it was only the super-vention of unforeseen circumstances that had led to its postponement Adu Boffo had met with a quite unexpected amount of resistance that had involved the loss of half his army and a hundred and thirty six Chiefs besides the expenditure of enormous quantities Of ammunition and the negotiations for the transfer of the Dutch Possessions to England had led to the removal of Atjiempon and the frustration of his plans to organize a force in the west Thus the ten years that had elapsed since the last war were accounted for and the original cause still remained which considering the evidence 1 there is of the existence of a definite agreement that was then broken must be admitted to be a just casus bellz About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

A History of the Gold Coast and Ashanti, Vol. 1 of 2 William Walton Claridge, 2017-12-02 Excerpt from A History of the Gold Coast and Ashanti Vol 1 of 2 From the Earliest Times to the Commencement of the Twentieth Century The records of a Colony the earliest beginnings of which had their inception in the dark days of the slave trade cannot but hold many things that modern Englishmen must recall with mingled shame and horror The reader will find much to deplore in the public and private acts of many of the white men who in their time made history on the Coast and some deeds were done which must for ever remain among the most bitter and humiliating memories of every Britisher who loves his country and is jealous of its fair fame For these Dr Claridge has done well to offer neither palliation nor excuse On the other hand it is at least open to argument that he has occasionally been somewhat harsh in the verdicts which he passes upon the policy of the Government and upon the actions of its servants The historian is necessarily in the position of one who is wise after the event but the large birds eye view which he is enabled to take was not at the service of any save very exceptional men among those who were the contemporaries of the events which he records This must be borne in mind for exceptional men are rare at all times and in all places and few indeed found their way to the West Coast of Africa Due allowance therefore must be made for the imperfect appreciation which many public servants showed of the situations with which they were confronted and for the bewildering ignorance of the people with whom they were dealing by which they were so frequently hampered About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Reprint Bulletin ,1967 Doing Conceptual History in Africa Axel Fleisch, Rhiannon Stephens, 2018-02-21 Employing an innovative methodological toolkit Doing Conceptual History in Africa provides a refreshingly broad and interdisciplinary approach to African historical studies The studies assembled here focus on the complex role of language in Africa's historical development with a particular emphasis on pragmatics and semantics From precolonial dynamics of wealth and poverty to the conceptual foundations of nationalist movements each contribution strikes a balance between the local and the global engaging with a distinctively African intellectual tradition while analyzing the regional and global contexts in which categories like work marriage and land take shape Institutions Casely Hayford, 2017-11-12 Excerpt from Institutions With Thoughts Upon a Healthy Imperial Policy for the Gold Coast and Ashanti IN the present work I have indicated or attempted to indicate the true nature of the problem which Great Britain has to face in her administration of the Gold Coast and her hinterland About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Reprint Expediting Service Bulletin, 1965 Slavery and Social Death Orlando Patterson, 2018-10-15 Patterson discusses the internal dynamics of slavery in 66 societies over time These include Greece and Rome medieval Europe China Korea the Islamic kingdoms Africa the Caribbean islands and the American South Slavery he argues is a single process of recruitment incorporation on the margin of society and eventual manumission or death Financial Sector Policy for Developing Countries Gerard Caprio, Patrick Honohan, Dimitri Vittas, 2002 This book collects ten complementary essays on different aspects of financial sector policy for developing and transitional economies The essays by leading theoreticians and practitioners draw on the history and experience of financial sector policy reforms to derive lessons for the future The collection is carefully chosen to cover the major contemporary issues including both crisis avoidance and institution building The increasing importance of non bank finance and of international linkages including dollarization for small economies are given special attention A Dictionary of British History John Ashton Cannon, 2009 A Dictionary of British History offers more than 3 800 authoritative entries written by more than 100 specialists Now completely revised and updated it describes the people and events that have shaped political social and cultural life in Britain since 55 B C Here in a miracle of compression are articles that define Robin Hood and Gerry Adams Black Death and Terrorism Dunkirk and Wembley Stadium Winston Churchill and Gordon Brown Who was the first King of England Who negotiated Indian independence How long did the Hundred Years War last All the answers can be found in this handy reference work covering more than 2 000 years of people events places and changes This edition includes a timeline and an appendix of recommended web links that provide extra information accessible through the Dictionary of British History companion website where they are kept up to date
