Children's Rights Law in the Global Human Rights Landscape Eva Brems, Ellen Desmet, Wouter Vandenhoele, 2017-04-21
Children's rights law is often studied and perceived in isolation from the broader field of human rights law. This volume explores the interrelationship between children's rights law and more general human rights law in order to see whether elements from each could successfully inform the other. Children's rights law has a number of distinctive characteristics such as the emphasis on the best interests of the child, the use of general principles and the inclusion of third parties e.g. parents and other care takers in treaty provisions. The first part of this book questions whether these features could be a source of inspiration for general human rights law. In part two the reverse question is asked: could children's rights law draw inspiration from developments in other branches of human rights law that focus on other specific categories of rights holders such as women, persons with disabilities, indigenous peoples or older persons. Finally, the interaction between children's rights law and human rights law and the potential for their isolation, inspiration or integration may be coloured or determined by the thematic issue under consideration. Therefore, the third part of the book studies the interplay between children's rights law and human rights law in the context of specific topics: intra-family relations, LGBTQI marginalization, migration, media, the environment and transnational human rights obligations.

The SAGE Handbook of Early Childhood Policy Linda Miller, Claire Cameron, Carmen Dalli, Nancy Barbour, 2017-10-02
Recent authoritative evidence suggests that an estimated 200 million children under five fail to achieve their developmental potential due to factors including poor health and nutrition and the lack of stable, high quality care. A significant number of the world's children today lack the basic rights to health, development and protection. In light of such statistics, early childhood services for young children have expanded around the world. The SAGE Handbook of Early Childhood Policy draws critical attention to policy in Early Childhood Education and Care (ECEC), its relationship to service provision and its impact on the lives of children and families. The perspectives of leading academics and researchers from Europe, North America, South America, Africa, Australasia and Asia have been arranged around five key themes: Part 1: The Relationship Between Research, Policy And Practice; Country Case Studies; Part 2: Equitable Early Childhood Services; Intervention to Improve Children's Life Chances; Part 3: Extending Practice: The Role of Early Childhood Services In Family Support; Part 4: Participation, Rights and Diversity; Part 5: Future Directions for Early Childhood Policy. This handbook is essential reading for practitioners, stakeholders and others committed to working within early years services to achieve an awareness of policy and its implications for services and practice.

A Children's Rights Assessment of Juvenile Detention in Australia Anita Mackay, 2024-09-16
Canvassing the socio-legal context for youth detention in Australia with a focus on international human rights law and legal frameworks within Australian states and territories, this book examines the recurring children's rights violations of recent years and puts forward strategies for reform. Providing a comprehensive national picture of juvenile detention legislation, policy and practices using a children's rights framework this book is a detailed synthesis of investigatory reports judicial decisions and inquiries by both Royal Commissions and parliamentary committee inquiries that together establish an evidence base for assessing the compliance of youth detention with Australia's international and domestic human rights obligations. It also proposes nine pillars for reform to help Australia move towards children's rights compliance. A Children's Rights Assessment of Juvenile Detention in Australia provides an invaluable resource for policy makers, lawyers and criminologists as well as for students of law and criminology. Routledge International Handbook of Human Trafficking Rochelle Dalla, Donna Sabella, 2019-09-19 According to the UNODC 2015 human trafficking HT is the fastest growing means by which people are enslaved the fastest growing international crime and one of the largest sources of income for organized criminal networks. It profoundly impacts the physical and mental health of victims, their families and entire communities and is recognized as a crime against humanity. Despite burgeoning interest, education, research and advocacy efforts, a pinnacle handbook devoted to human trafficking and modern day slavery with global focus and multidisciplinary scope does not currently exist. The Routledge International Handbook of Human Trafficking was created to fill this resource gap. Divided into four sections, the Handbook offers the reader a comprehensive and fresh approach via a in depth analyses and opportunities for application through case studies, critical thinking questions and supplemental learning materials, b multidisciplinary linkages with disciplinary overlap across each of the four sections, acknowledged and highlighted, and c content experts representing multiple segments of society: academia, government, foundation, law enforcement and practice, and global vantage points: Australia, Finland, Germany, Netherlands, South Africa, Thailand, and the United States. Written by expert scholars, service providers, policy analysts and healthcare professionals, this Handbook is an invaluable resource for those already working in the field as well as for students in any discipline who want to learn or learn more about HT and modern day slavery. Yearbook of International Organizations 2013-2014 (Volumes 1a-1b) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2013-06-21 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims, activities and events. Gender and Patriarchy in the Films of Muslim Nations Patricia R. Owen, 2017-11-28 There are 49 Muslim majority countries in the world and Islam is the world's second largest religion. Yet many in the West are misinformed about Islam and Muslim worldviews. Issues related to gender norms are especially subject to misconceptions. This filmography analyzes gender issues in 56 feature films from Afghanistan, Algeria, Bangladesh, Egypt, Iran, Iraq, Pakistan, and Turkey, with a focus on religious, legal and patriarchal legitimization of practices such as female genital mutilation, child marriage, virginity testing, public sexual harassment and molestation and honor killings. The Big conversation UNESCO, 2019-07-31 Routledge Handbook on Human Rights and the Middle East and North Africa Anthony Tirado Chase, 2016-11-10 Recent events such as Iran's Green Revolution and the Arab Uprisings have exploded notions that human rights are irrelevant to Middle Eastern and North African politics. Increasingly seen as a global concern, human rights are at the fulcrum of the region s on the ground politics transnational intellectual debates and global political intersections The Routledge Handbook on Human Rights and the Middle East and North Africa emphasises the need to consider human rights in all their dimensions rather than solely focusing on the political dimension in order to understand the structural reasons behind the persistence of human rights violations explores the various frameworks in which to consider human rights conceptual political and transnational international discusses issue areas subject to particularly intense debate gender religion sexuality transitions and accountability contains contributions from perspectives that span from global theory to grassroots reflections emphasising the need for academic work on human rights to seriously engage with the thoughts and practices of those working on the ground A multidisciplinary approach from scholars with a wide range of expertise allows the book to capture the complex dynamics by which human rights have had or could have an impact on Middle Eastern and North African politics This book will therefore be a key resource for students and scholars of Middle Eastern and North African politics and society as well as anyone with a concern for Human Rights across the globe Gender Violence in Poverty Contexts Jenny Parkes,2015-03-27 This book is concerned with understanding the complex ways in which gender violence and poverty impact on young people s lives and the potential for education to challenge violence Although there has been a recent expansion of research on gender violence and schooling the field of research that brings together thinking on gender violence poverty and education is in its infancy This book sets out to establish this new field by offering innovative research insights into the nature of violence affecting children and young people the sources of violence including the relationship with poverty and inequality the effects of violence on young subjectivities and the educational challenge of how to counter violence Authors address three interrelated aims in their chapters to identify theoretical and methodological framings for understanding the relationship between gender violence poverty and education to demonstrate how young people living in varying contexts of poverty in the Global South learn about engage in respond to and resist gender violence to investigate how institutions including schools families communities governments international and non governmental organisations and the media constrain or expand possibilities to challenge gender violence in the Global South Describing a range of innovative research projects the chapters display what scholarly work can offer to help meet the educational challenge and to find ways to help young people and those around them to understand resist and rupture the many faces of violence Gender Violence in Poverty Contexts will appeal to an international audience of postgraduate students academics and researchers in the fields of international and comparative education gender and women s studies teacher education poverty development and conflict studies African and Asian studies and related disciplines It will also be of interest to professionals in NGOs and other organisations and policy makers keen to develop research informed practice Winner of the 2016 Jackie Kirk Outstanding Book Award Violence Against Children Gertrud Lenzer,2017-11-28 Violence Against Children adopts in its title the exhortation of Nobel Laureate Amartya Sen Making Human Rights Real which also represents the leitmotif of the book It examines the prevalence of violence against children in Africa the Asia Pacific Region Europe Latin America and the Caribbean and in the United States and explores major ways of its prevention Making human rights real engenders the challenge of helping all children to be free from violence and to lead a life replete with genuine nurture and the elimination of all violence Only in this manner will the goal of the United Nations 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development target 16.2 be achieved and the child as a rights bearing individual realized in her his fullness The specially commissioned chapters that make up the volume have been written by renowned scholars researchers and advocates They coalesce to provide an overview of the challenges facing children exposed to violence worldwide and they advance discussions of the measures which are available and necessary for the prevention of violence against children The book is intended for policy makers researchers and students of the social sciences and human rights who are interested in ending all the widespread maltreatment of children in our societies and our time

Offshore Madeline Gleeson, 2016-05-01 What has happened on Nauru and Manus since Australia began its most recent offshore processing regime in 2012 This essential book provides a comprehensive and uncompromising overview of the first three years of offshore processing since it recommenced in 2012 It explains why offshore processing was re-established what life is like for asylum seekers and refugees on Nauru and Manus what asylum seekers refugees and staff in the offshore detention centres have to say about what goes on there and why the truth has been so hard to find In doing so it goes behind the rumours and allegations to reveal what is known and what still is not known about Australia's offshore detention centres
