Labyrinths Christopher Okigbo, 2011 Christopher Okigbo's words have often been described as prophetic and have inspired generations of writers in Nigeria and beyond This collection of interlinked poems showcases his rare talent Each poem draws the reader into an arresting world of myth and intense contemplation Includes a new introduction by Chimamanda Ngozi      A Twentieth-century Literature Reader Suman Gupta, David Johnson, 2005 This critical Reader is the essential companion to any course in twentieth century literature Drawing upon the work of a wide range of key writers and critics the selected extracts provide a literary historical overview of the twentieth century insight into theoretical discussions around the purpose value and form of literature which dominated the century closer examination of representative texts from the period around which key critical issues might be debated Clearly conveying the excitement generated by twentieth century literary texts and by the provocative critical ideas and arguments that surrounded them this reader can be used alongside the two volumes of Debating Twentieth Century Literature or as a core text for any module on the literature of the last century Texts examined in detail include Chekhov's The Cherry Orchard Mansfield's Short Stories poetry of the 1930s Gibbon's Sunset Song Eliot's Prufrock Brecht's Galileo Woolf's Orlando Okigbo's Selected Poems du Maurier's Rebecca poetry by Ginsburg and O'Hara Dick's Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep Puig's Kiss of the Spiderwoman Beckett's Waiting for Godot Heaney's New Selected Poems 1966-1987 Gurnah's Paradise and Barker's The Ghost Road      West African Poetry Robert Fraser, 1986-09-04 Previous studies of African poetry have tended to concentrate either on its political content or on its relationship to various European schools This book examines West African poetry in English and French against the background of oral poetry in the vernacular Do the roots of such poetry lie in Africa or in Europe In committing their work to writing do poets lose more than they gain Can the immediacy of oral performance ever be recovered Robert Fraser's account of two centuries of West African verse examines its subjugation to a succession of international styles from the heroic couplet to the austerity of experimental Modernism. Successive chapters take us through the Negroitude movement and the emergence of anglophone free verse in the 1950s to the rediscovery in recent years of the neglected springs of orality which is the subject of the concluding chapter.

Modernism and Colonialism Richard Begam, Michael Moses, 2007-10-15 The essays in Modernism and Colonialism offer revisionary accounts of major British and Irish literary modernists' relation to colonialism.

Readings from Reading Herbert Ekwe-Ekwe, 2011 The essays here underscore Herbert Ekwe-Ekwe's continuing optimism about the possibilities of Africans constructing post-Berlin states as the launch pad to transform the topography of the African renaissance. Readings from Reading is a timely publication coming on the eve of the historic January 2011 referendum in South Sudan in which the people of the region will choose to vote to restore their national independence or get stuck hopelessly in the Sudan, the first of the Berlin states that Africans tragically inherited in January 1956. Ekwe-Ekwe insists that the contemporary African state imposed on Africans by a band of European conqueror states and currently run by what the author describes as a shard of disreputable African regimes to exploit and despoil the continent's human and material resources cannot serve African interests. The legacy as this study demonstrates has indeed been catastrophic. The African overseers pushed the states into even deeper depths of genocidal and kakistocratic notoriety in the past 54 years as the grim examples of particularly Nigeria, the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Sudan depressingly underscore 15 million Africans have been murdered by African-led regimes in these states and elsewhere in Africa since the Igbo genocide of 1977-1970. This is an engaging, incisive, wide-ranging and multidisciplinary discourse salient features that have come to define Ekwe-Ekwe's groundbreaking scholarship of the past three decades. The author covers an assemblage of diverse topics and themes which include the Igbo genocide, the Jos massacres in central Nigeria, Umar Farouk Abdul Mutallab's failed attempt to blow up an incoming aircraft over Detroit on Christmas Day 2009, African presence in Britain, Robert Mugabe, Muammar Gaddafi, Obafemi Awolowo, Omar al-Bashir, Charles Taylor, Olusegun Obasanjo, Ali Mazrui, Andrew Young, the G8 and Africa, Africa debt, African emigres' remittances to Africa, sub-Saharan Africa, reparations to Africans, African representation on the UN Security Council, African choices for the Nobel Peace Prize, Africa and the International Criminal Court, Nigeria, Cote d'Ivoire, Kenya, the Sudan and the Congo, arms to Africa, arms ban on Africa. Finally, on the subject of the restoration of independence, the key connecting thread that links all the visitations, Ekwe-Ekwe critically examines the contributions made variously on this cord by an impressive line-up of some of the very best and brightest of African intellectuals: Achebe, Adichie, Césaire, Damas, Coltrane, Diop, Equiano, Ngugu, Okigbo, Senghor.
