Day, 2013-07 By examining the novels of critically and commercially successful authors such as Sarah Dessen Someone Like You Stephenie Meyer the Twilight series and Laurie R. King Speak Reading Like a Girl Narrative Intimacy in Contemporary American Young Adult Literature explores the use of narrative intimacy as a means of reflecting and reinforcing larger often contradictory cultural expectations regarding adolescent women interpersonal relationships and intimacy Reading Like a Girl explains the construction of narrator reader relationships in recent American novels written about adolescent women and marketed to adolescent women Sara K Day explains though that such levels of imagined friendship lead to contradictory cultural expectations for the young women so deeply obsessed with reading these novels Day coins the term narrative intimacy to refer to the implicit relationship between narrator and reader that depends on an imaginary disclosure and trust between the story's narrator and the reader Through critical examination the inherent contradictions between this enclosed imagined relationship and the real expectations for adolescent women's relations prove to be problematic In many novels for young women adolescent female narrators construct conceptions of the adolescent woman reader constructions that allow the narrator to understand the reader as a confidant a safe and appropriate location for disclosure At the same time such novels offer frequent warnings against the sort of unfettered confession the narrators perform Friendships are marked as potential sites of betrayal and rejection Romantic relationships are presented as inherently threatening to physical and emotional health And so the narrator turns to the reader for an ally who cannot judge The reader in turn may come to depend upon narrative intimacy in order to vicariously explore her own understanding of human expression and bonds House of the Rising Sun Marc Brandon, 2014-02-27 The House of the Rising Sun refers to the old antebellum that once stood tall and proud for many generations at the Mackenzie homestead known by all as the Rising Sun Farms The old house unfolds its mysteries with its many years of history and resources The life of Michael Mackenzie the last and only heir to the clan takes us in and out of decades with his friends and acquaintances good times and bad love and loss trust and distrust guidance and misguidance and on into another dimension with the sequel of part two The Gift Horse Jane Saunders who lives at the roadhouse antebellum with her mother Marge the madame of the house of ill repute and a group of professional ladies of the evening Hence the name soon followed in reference to the House of the Rising Sun Michael lives at the main farmhouse with his parents Richard and Allison and grandfather who operates a massive farm and mill which includes rental properties such as the house of the rising sun Michael with his best friend Andrew Dow chose a career with the police force as Richard had excelled in and assumed chief position Although demanding the two young cops manage to juggle law enforcement and Rising Sun Farms This small populated community spread over a large chunk of geography is plagued with a series of accidental tragedies with life altering results Logical explanations are plenty as all hearsay Accusations fly some feel a comfort dabbling in the here after and some are content with another mishap but how many is too many A list of contents that follows includes chapters musical reference as background to the scenes prologue and foreword to the next addition
