 Martin Sartori, Dorothy Wynne Zimmerman, 1994-01-01 Marie de France Mme De S vign and Mme De Lafayette achieved international reputations during periods when women in other European countries were able to write only letters translations religious tracts and miscellaneous fragments There were obstacles but French women writers were more or less sustained and empowered by the French culture Often unconventional in their personal lives and occupied with careers besides writing as educators painters actresses preachers salon hostesses labor organizers these women did not wait for Simone de Beauvoir to tell them to make existential choices and have projects in the world French Women Writers describes the lives and careers of fifty two literary figures from the twelfth century to the late twentieth All the contributors are recognized authorities Some of their subjects like Colette and George Sand are celebrated and others are just now gaining critical notice From Christine de Pizan and Marguerite de Navarre to Rachilde and H l _ne Cixous from Louise Labe to Marguerite Duras these women speak through the centuries to issues of gender sexuality and language French Women Writers now becomes widely available in this Bison Book edition Dictionary of Louisiana French Albert Valdman, Kevin J. Rottet, 2010 The Dictionary of Louisiana French DLF provides the richest inventory of French vocabulary in Louisiana and reflects precisely the speech of the period from 1930 to the present This dictionary describes the current usage of French speaking peoples in the five broad regions of South Louisiana the coastal marshes the banks of the Mississippi River the central area the north and the western prairie Data were collected during interviews from at least five persons in each of twenty four areas in these regions In addition to the data collected from fieldwork the dictionary contains material compiled from existing lexical inventories from texts published after 1930 and from archival recordings The new authoritative resource the DLF not only contains the largest number of words and expressions but also provides the most complete information available for each entry Entries include the word in the conventional French spelling the pronunciation including attested variants the part of speech classification the English equivalent and the word s use in common phrases The DLF features a wealth of illustrative examples derived from fieldwork and textual sources and identification of the parish where the entry was collected or the source from which it was compiled An English to Louisiana French index enables readers to find out how particular notions would be expressed in
