Minstrelsy and Masks Christine Matzke,Remi Raji,Geoffrey V. Davis,2006 This collection is dedicated to a distinguished scholar and writer who for a quarter of a century wrote consistently on African literature and the arts and was a major voice in Nigerian literary circles Ezenwa Ohaeto made a mark in contemporary Nigerian poetry by committing pidgin to written form and by so doing introducing different creative patterns He also saw himself as a minstrel as someone who wanted to read express and enact his work before an audience First and foremost however Ezenwa Ohaeto was someone who unmasked ideas and meanings hidden in the folds of literary works and made them available to an international academic public With his outstanding work on Chinua Achebe he influenced the reception of African literary biography His networks and connections were extensive and wide ranging and they are partly reflected in the essays creative writing and personal notes assembled in this volume In their various modes and expressions the contributions included here constitute a tribute to Ezenwa Ohaeto s many talents and achievements As an extension of Ezenwa Ohaeto s legacy they expand on various aspects of minstrelsy and the unmasking of texts in a Nigerian and broader African context The book is divided into six sections In Memoriam contains personal tributes by long standing colleagues mentors and friends Poetry and Fiction collects the voices of three generations of Nigerian writing from the 1960s to the present day followed by poetic and pictorial insights into the domestic and social life of the scholar and family man Section Four comprises two interviews while Sections Five and Six are devoted to critical evaluations of Ezenwa Ohaeto s work and to contemporary perspectives on Nigerian literature respectively

The Cambridge Companion to Postcolonial Poetry Jahan Ramazani,2017-02-27 This Companion is the first to explore postcolonial poetry through regional historical political formal textual and gender approaches Fresh Ecocritical Voices in African Literatures and Cultures Chinonye Ekwueme-Ugwu,Joyce Onoromhenre Agofure,Nsah Mala,2025-10-13 This edited volume brings together fresh voices both emerging and established on the ecocritical landscape within African literatures and cultures In the era of the Anthropocene the editors and contributors demonstrate how African cultural products address climate and ecological concerns including activism animal and plant conservation climate change environmental degradation food security disasters ecosystems and social injustice The volume offers critical and comparative analyses that transcend the boundaries of languages places and textual genres Significantly it foregrounds the intersectionality of ecological issues with social economic and political dimensions By doing so it highlights how environmental challenges are intricately linked to questions of identity space justice and indigenous knowledge systems While espousing classical textual analysis and beginning to gesture towards empirical experimentation the volume exemplifies ongoing decolonial and postcolonial approaches in environmental humanities from the African continent and the Global South Majority African Literatures in English Gareth Griffiths,2014-09-19 Here is an introduction to the history of English writing from East and West Africa drawing on a range of texts from the slave diaspora to the post war upsurge in African English language and literature from these regions Creative Mythology in Nigerian Poetry Emma Ngumoha,1998 Eco-critical Literature Ogaga Okuyade,2013 Eco Critical Literature Regreening African

Landscapescritically examines the representations constructions and imaginings of the relationship between the human and non human worlds in contemporary African literature and culture It offers innovative incisive and critical perspectives on the importance of sustaining a symbiotic relationship between humans and their environment The book thus carries African scholarship beyond the mere analysis of themes and style to ethical and activist roles of literature having an impact on readers and the public It is a scholarship geared towards rectifying ecological imbalance that is prevalent in many parts of the continent that forms the setting context and thematic discourse of the works or authors studied in this book Besides sensitizing the African readership to the need for the restoration of harmony between man and the environment this book equally aims to further familiarize scholars and students working on African literature and culture with the theoretical concerns of eco criticism

Indigeneity, Globalization, and African Literature Tanure Ojaide, 2015-10-07 Literature remains one of the few disciplines that reflect the experiences sensibility worldview and living realities of its people Contemporary African literature captures the African experience in history and politics in a multiplicity of ways Politics itself has come to intersect and impact on most if not all aspects of the African reality This relationship of literature with African people s lives and condition forms the setting of this study Tanure Ojaide s Indigeneity Globalization and African Literature Personally Speaking belongs with a well established tradition of personal reflections on literature by African creative writer critics Ojaide s contribution brings to the table the perspective of what is now recognized as a second generation writer a poet and a concerned citizen of Nigeria s Niger Delta area

African Writers C. Brian Cox, 1997 Annotation The Scribner Writers Series has set the standard for literary reference for more than 25 years In addition to addressing the lives and careers of important writers the articles discuss the themes and styles of major works and place them in pertinent historical social and political contexts for today s readers Novelists playwrights essayists poets short story writers and more recently genre writers in science fiction and mystery are all expertly discussed in the more than 16 sets comprising this series Two volumes of original essays present 65 African writers from 17 countries writing in English French Portuguese Arabic and indigenous languages Subjects span the late 19th century to the present Included are Najib Mahfuz Andre Brink Wole Soyinka Nadine Gordimer Alan Paton and many more

African Discourse in Islam, Oral Traditions, and Performance Abdul-Rasheed Na'Allah, 2010-09-13 Through an engaged analysis of writers such as Wole Soyinka Ola Rotimi Niyi Osundare and Tanure Ojaide and of African traditional oral poets like Omoekee Amao Ilorin and Mamman Shata Katsina Abdul Rasheed Na Allah develops an African indigenous discourse paradigm for interpreting and understanding literary and cultural materials Na Allah argues for the need for cultural diversity in critical theorizing in the twenty first century He highlights the critical issues facing scholars and students involved in criticism and translation of marginalized texts By returning the African knowledge system back to its roots and placing it side by side with Western paradigms Na Allah has produced a text that will be required reading for scholars and students of African culture and literature It is an important contribution to scholarship in the domain of mobility of African oral tradition and on African literary cultural and performance discourse
