The Marriage Medallion:

THE MARRIAGE MEDALLION Christine Rimmer, Misao Hoshiai, 2015-01-01 He s going to be my husband Princess Brit is forced to marry to preserve the royal bloodline so she flees the palace and heads for the distant North Sea But on the way there her plane crashes and she is thrown against the steep cliffs She s hurt and terrified As if in answer to her pleas for help a dark shadow appears Is he the legendary black knight No it s Eric Greyfell He s as beautiful as a hero from Norse myth but his heart is as impenetrable as a stone statue And he s the man she was expected to marry Four Days, Five Nights

Christine Rimmer, Christine Flynn, 2003 The Reception of the Virgin in Byzantium Thomas Arentzen, Mary B.

Cunningham, 2019-08-15 Images and texts tell various stories about the Virgin Mary in Byzantium reflecting an important cult with strong doctrinal foundations How to Marry a Princess Christine Rimmer, 2013-10-22 Although Alice Bravo Calabretti vows to stay out of trouble and conduct herself like a true princess she is tempted by the stable hand to misbehave Then she finds that her penniless groom is an American tycoon seeking a princess bride More secrets and lies are hidden in this relationship and until Noah Cordell comes clean she will refuse to say I do The Visual Rhetoric of the Married Laity in Late Antiquity Mark D. Ellison, 2023-12-11 This study examines third and fourth century portraits of married Christians and associated images reading them as visual rhetoric in early Christian conversations about marriage and celibacy and recovering lay perspectives underrepresented or missing in literary sources Historians of early Christianity have grown increasingly aware that written sources display an enthusiasm for asceticism and sexual renunciation that was far from representative of the lives of most early Christians Often called a silent majority the married laity in fact left behind a significant body of work in the material record Particularly in and around Rome they commissioned and used such objects as sarcophagi paintings glass vessels finger rings luxury silver other jewellery items gems and seals that bore their portraits and other iconographic forms of self representation This study is the first to undertake a sustained exploration of these material sources in the context of early Christian discourses and practices related to marriage sexuality and celibacy Reading this visual evidence increases understanding of the population who created it the religious commitments they asserted and the comparatively moderate forms of piety they set forth as meritorious alternatives to the ascetic ideal In their visual rhetoric these artifacts and images comprise additional voices in Late Antique conversations about idealized ways of Christian life and ultimately provide a fuller picture of the early Christian world Plentifully illustrated with photographs and drawings this volume provides readers access to primary material evidence Such evidence like textual sources require critical interpretation this study sets forth a careful methodology for iconographic analysis and applies it to identify the potential intentions of patrons and artists and the perceptions of viewers It compares iconography to literary sources and ritual practices as part of the interpretive process clarifying the ways images had a rhetorical edge and contributed to larger conversations Accessibly written The Visual Rhetoric of the Married Laity in Late Antiquity is of interest to students and
