

Bakhtin

Mikhail Bakhtin worked in the early-to-mid 20th century, but developed many ideas that are very modern.

Today he is one of the most popular literary theorists.

He initiated study of language in context, "the utterance" which was very modern for its time. In Saussure's terminology, he was the first to seriously study "parole" rather than "langue".

Bakhtin In Contexts Bakhtin In Contexts:

Bakhtin in Contexts Amy Mandelker, 1995-11-22 The Russian critic M M Bakhtin has recently become a major figure in contemporary theory beyond his traditional influence in Slavic literary studies Bakhtin in Contexts explores the revolutionary impact Bakhtin's ideas have carried in contemporary discussion of language art culture and social science in recent years The contributors represent a broad range of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences epitomizing the views of Russian and American specialists in those fields Bakhtin often referred to as the human sciences The diversity of perspective and flexibility of approach make this a unique contribution to Bakhtin studies and to the ongoing dialogue between Western and Russian theorists

The Contexts of Bakhtin Professor David Shepherd, David Shepherd, 2012-11-12 The fourteen essays collected in this volume notwithstanding their diversity of subject matter and approach share a concern with the contexts to which we need to refer in order to understand not only the origins but also the potential of Mikhail Bakhtin's thought contexts both immediate and oblique personal and impersonal intellectual and theoretical Five of the essays are by well known Russian scholars whose work on Bakhtin has not previously been translated in English the other nine papers are by established and emerging Bakhtin specialists in North America the United Kingdom and Europe

Mikhail Bakhtin Gary Saul Morson, Caryl Emerson, 1990 Books about thinkers require a kind of unity that their thought may not possess This cautionary statement is especially applicable to Mikhail Bakhtin whose intellectual development displays a diversity of insights that cannot be easily integrated or accurately described in terms of a single overriding concern Indeed in a career spanning some sixty years he experienced both dramatic and gradual changes in his thinking returned to abandoned insights that he then developed in unexpected ways and worked through new ideas only loosely related to his earlier concerns Small wonder then that Bakhtin should have speculated on the relations among received notions of biography unity innovation and the creative process Unity with respect not only to individuals but also to art culture and the world generally is usually understood as conformity to an underlying structure or an overarching scheme Bakhtin believed that this idea of unity contradicts the possibility of true creativity For if everything conforms to a preexisting pattern then genuine development is reduced to mere discovery to a mere uncovering of something that in a strong sense is already there And yet Bakhtin accepted that some concept of unity was essential Without it the world ceases to make sense and creativity again disappears this time replaced by the purely aleatory There would again be no possibility of anything meaningfully new The grim truth of these two extremes was expressed well by Borges an inescapable labyrinth could consist of an infinite number of turns or of no turns at all Bakhtin attempted to rethink the concept of unity in order to allow for the possibility of genuine creativity The goal in his words was a nonmonologic unity in which real change or surprisingness is an essential component of the creative process As it happens such change was characteristic of Bakhtin's own thought which seems to have developed by continually diverging from his initial intentions Although it would not necessarily follow that the development of Bakhtin's thought corresponded to his ideas about unity and creativity we believe that in this case his ideas on nonmonologic unity are useful in understanding his own thought as well as that of other thinkers whose careers are comparably varied and productive

Bakhtin Between East and West Karine Zbinden, 2017-12-02 Mikhail Bakhtin 1895 1975 has had an enormous influence on literary studies and cultural theory Bakhtin between East and West Cross Cultural Transmission looks beyond the concepts of carnival and dialogue and traces for the first time the transformation of the Bakhtin Circle's thought from its introduction to the West in Julia Kristeva's seminal late 1960s theory of intertextuality through Tzvetan Todorov's landmark study and on to contemporary interpretations The notion of sociality in all its problematic complexity provides the red thread guiding us through this historical and thematic examination of Western and Russian Bakhtin studies As a critical evaluation of Bakhtin scholarship across various cultures and a celebration of the vigour of the Circle's legacy this is an invaluable resource for scholars and students with an interest in Bakhtin and critical theory The Cambridge Introduction to Mikhail Bakhtin

Ken Hirschkop, 2021-11-04 A concise readable and up to date introduction to Bakhtin which provides students with an accessible but sophisticated guide to his work The Annotated Bakhtin Bibliography Carol Adlam, David G. Shepherd, 2000 This is the first in a new series entitled MHRA Bibliographies The Annotated Bakhtin Bibliography draws its material from and is intended as a companion to the on line Analytical Database of Work by and about the Bakhtin Circle maintained by the Bakhtin Centre at the University of Sheffield this is the most extensive electronic collection of bibliographical and analytical data relating to the Russian philosopher and cultural theorist Mikhail Bakhtin and the members of the Bakhtin Circle principally Mariia Iudina Matvei Kagan Pavel Medvedev Lev Pumpianskii Ivan Sollertinskii and Valentin Voloshinov The work of Bakhtin and the Bakhtin Circle has had enormous international impact across a range of disciplines including literary and cultural theory philosophy history anthropology linguistics and psychology The Annotated Bakhtin Bibliography will provide scholars and students of Bakhtin with easy access to detailed information on research undertaken throughout the world in these and other fields The text of The Annotated Bakhtin Bibliography is in two parts The first part comprises extensive bibliographical details of almost three hundred primary works including information about translations and reprints The second consists of almost one thousand entries containing analytical and annotated information about secondary literature dealing with Bakhtin and the Bakhtin Circle in over twenty languages allowing the principal trends in the development of Bakhtin studies to be discerned and traced Consultation of the bibliography is facilitated by comprehensive name title and subject indexes

Restoring the Human Context to Literary and Performance Studies Howard Mancing, Jennifer Marston William, 2022-01-28 Restoring the Human Context to Literary and Performance Studies argues that much of contemporary literary theory is still predicated at least implicitly on outdated linguistic and psychological models such as post structuralism psychoanalysis and behaviorism which significantly contradict current dominant scientific views By contrast this monograph promotes an alternative paradigm for literary studies namely

Contextualism and in so doing highlights the similarities and differences among the sometimes conflicting contemporary cognitive approaches to literature and performance arguing not in favor of one over the other but for Contextualism as their common ground

Mikhail Bakhtin Michael F. Bernard-Donals, 1995-02-24 The language theory of Mikhail Bakhtin does not fall neatly under any single rubric dialogism marxism prosaics authorship because the philosophic foundation of his writing rests ambivalently between phenomenology and Marxism The theoretical tension of these positions creates philosophical impasses in Bakhtin's work which have been neglected or ignored partly because these impasses are themselves mirrored by the problems of antifoundationalist and materialist tendencies in literary scholarship In Mikhail Bakhtin Between Phenomenology and Marxism Michael Bernard Donals examines various incarnations of phenomenological and materialist theory including the work of Jauss Fish Rorty Althusser and Pecheux and places them beside Bakhtin's work providing a contextualised study of Bakhtin a critique of the problems of contemporary critics and an original contribution to literary theory

Bakhtin and his Others Liisa Steinby, Tintti Klapuri, 2014-11-01 Bakhtin and his Others aims to develop an understanding of Mikhail Bakhtin's ideas through a contextual approach particularly with a focus on Bakhtin studies from the 1990s onward The volume offers fresh theoretical insights into Bakhtin's ideas on inter subjectivity and temporality including his concepts of chronotope and literary polyphony by reconsidering his ideas in relation to the sources he employs and taking into account later research on similar topics The case studies show how Bakhtin's ideas when seen in light of this approach can be constructively employed in contemporary literary research

Chaucer in context S. H. Rigby, 2020-01-03 Amongst the most written about works of English literature Chaucer's Canterbury Tales still defy categorization claims the author of this book Was Chaucer a poet of profound religious piety or a sceptic who questioned all religious and moral certainties Do his pilgrims reflect the society of the day or were they a product of an already well established literary tradition and convention Surveying and assessing competing critical approaches to Chaucer's work this text emphasizes a need to see Chaucer in historical context the context of the social and political concerns of his own day

Black Women Novelists and the Nationalist Aesthetic Madhu Dubey, 1994-05-22 Focus on the works of Toni Morrison Gaye Jones and Alice Walker

Contexts for Learning C. Addison Stone, 1993

Representing landmark research concerning childhood psychological development this volume examines the complex mechanisms by which children acquire the cultural and linguistic tools to carry out cognitive activities and explores the implications of this research for education Thinking Space Mike Crang, Nigel Thrift, 2002-09-11 Thinking Space looks at a range of social theorists and asks what role space plays in their work what difference if any it makes to their concepts and what difference such an appreciation makes to the way we might think about space Bakhtin and Translation Studies Dr. Amith Kumar P.V., 2016-01-14 This book investigates the process of translation in light of the dialogical principles proposed by the Russian literary theorist and philosopher Mikhail Bakhtin It problematizes interlingual translations by questioning the two extreme tendencies in translation namely complete target orientedness on the one hand and close imitation of the source text on the other In the field of cultural encounters it envisages a Bakhtinian model which is proposed as an alternative to the existing interpretations that discuss the cultural subtleties when two different cultures encounter each other The overall framework of the book is Bakhtinian that is it adopts a dialogic approach and its main focus is the examination of a Western theoretical formulation through examples from Indian literatures and cultural situations Such an extension of Bakhtin s ideas especially to explore examples from Indian literary cultural and translational fields has not yet received sufficient attention The study is not only a unique endeavour in filling up the lacunae but also draws Bakhtin closer to the Indian literary condition Voices in Texts and Contexts Toshiko Yamaguchi, Jariah Mohd Jan, Sheena Kaur, 2021-08-26 Voices in Texts and Contexts presents different perspectives of voice a concept that emerges from language choices social and cultural phenomena and psychology In weaving a tapestry of linguistic experiences from analyses of language phenomena including localised English to explanations of human behaviour this book offers insights into how we use language construct discourse and express ourselves in light of selected texts and specific contexts Critical and Creative Research Methodologies in Social Work Lia Bryant, 2016-03-09 Social work research is concerned with complex social issues closely connected to communities of people who are marginalized and oppressed This volume develops critical and creative research methodologies that place questions of social justice at their centre and take innovative approaches to collecting analysing interpreting and presenting research data The first section of the book examines textual data produced from an array of methodologies focused on the spoken and or written word These approaches allow those who are often silenced to speak by providing space and time to capture memory and meanings that may not come to light in a time driven structured research method like an interview or a questionnaire The second section of the book discusses visual methods including an examination of historical artefacts like photographs and objects and participant engagement with art specifically clay sculpture and drawings Both sets of methods examine the concept of time that is how we understand time as in our past memories how we develop relationships and knowledge over time These creative and critical methods provide new insights into ways of undertaking social research in social work which captures the complexity of social experiences problems and meanings that are more often than not embedded in time and place

Rethinking Context Alessandro Duranti, 1992-05-21 The last decade has seen a fundamental rethinking of the concept of context Rather than functioning solely as a constraint on linguistic performance context is now also analysed as a product of language use In this new perspective language and context are seen as interactively achieved phenomena rather than predefined sets of forms and contents The essays in this collection written by many of the leading figures in the social sciences critically reexamine the concept of context from a variety of different angles and propose new ways of thinking about it with reference to specific human activities such as face to face interaction radio talk medical diagnosis political encounters and socialisation practices Each essay is prefaced by an introduction by the editors which provides relevant theoretical and methodological background and demonstrates its relation to other essays in the volume The editors general introduction provides a lucid overview of the issues currently debated Rethinking Context will be required reading for everyone working within the fields of linguistic anthropology sociolinguistics discourse analysis pragmatics conversation analysis and the sociology of language
