Balinese Dance In Transition Kaja And Kelod:

Balinese Dance in Transition I Made Bandem, Fredrik Eugene DeBoer, 1995 This is an updated edition of the classic history of Balinese dance Ranging from the sacred to the secular the authors look at the many genres of the form their description classification and analysis

Kaja and Kelod I Made Bandem, Fredrik Eugene DeBoer, 1981 A comprehensive overview of Balinese dance and theatre this book presents a description and history of the many genres of Balinese dance The first full scale work to appear on the subject since 1938 this study discusses every aspect of Balinese dance from dances given in the most sacred sanctuaries on the island to those of a secular nature from the demonic performances ritually performed in dangerous areas to performances for tourists The text is accompanied by copious illustrations and a glossary of terms and is an essential tool for understanding the beautiful art of Balinese culture interest given in e An epilogue addresses tourist events through the areas of lesser sanctity writings on the subject this work explores

Kaja and Kelod I. Made Bandem, 1981

Improvisation and Composition in Balinese Gendér Wayang Nicholas Gray, 2016-12-05 This book is an examination of the music of the Balinese gendér wayang the quartet of metallophones gendér that accompanies the Balinese shadow puppet play wayang kulit The book focuses on processes of musical variation the main means of creating new music in this genre and the implications of these processes for the social and historical study of Balinese music musical aesthetics concepts of creativity and compositional methods Dr Nick Gray tackles a number of core ethnomusicological concerns in a new way including the relationship between composition and improvisation and also highlights issues specific to Balinese music including the importance of flexibility in performance an aspect that has been largely ignored by scholars Gray thus breaks new ground both in the study of issues relating to improvisation and composition and in Balinese music studies

Balinese Discourses on Music and Modernization Brita Heimarck Renee, 2013-08-21 While many Western scholars have discussed the technical aspects of Balinese music or the traditional contexts for performance little has been written in Western languages about Balinese discourses on their music This dissertation seeks to understand the experience of music in Bali according to Balinese voices through an analysis of oral and written dialogues on music mainly by musicians and dalangs shadow play puppeteers from the village of Sukawati scholars teachers administrators and students from the Indonesian College of the Arts STSI in the City of Denpasar The study examines the influence of modernization on the traditional arts and their role in society A concentration on Balinese discourses enables individual performers and scholars to represent themselves to a greater extent than previously seen in ethnomusicological scholarship making this study more of a critical discussion among equals than a Western interpretation of others This approach permits a rare view into contemporary Balinese conceptions and practices of music
