Nadia T. van Pelt, 2023-11-20 Seldom has a royal court invited such intensive study as that of Henry VIII or become so prominent in popular culture Nonetheless Intercultural Explorations and the Court of Henry VIII is committed to offering a fresh perspective on Tudor court culture by using continental sources to contextualize nuance and challenge long held perspectives that have been formed through the use of well studied Anglophone sources Using a wide variety of textual sources from ambassadorial correspondence account books household tiquettes legal records royal warrants and marital contracts to play texts and travel accounts this study presents original research in history literature and cultural history The case studies in Intercultural Explorations and the Court of Henry VIII address specific questions that challenge what we know or think we know about Tudor court culture For example was it good taste to bring a jester to a royal deathbed Was John Blanke really the first black musician to perform at the Tudor court or did he follow the footsteps of another celebrated performer of African descent When Charles V came to meet Henry VIII did he eat from his own plate And why did courtiers express themselves negatively about Anne of Cleves s appearance By addressing such specific questions Intercultural Explorations and the Court of Henry VIII will show that however quintessentially English Henry VIII s court it was essentially a place of cultural and intercultural encounters that is best understood when studied in dialogue across languages geographical barriers and scholarly disciplines
