Everything harder than everyone else Jenny Valentish,2021-07-06 There is a part of human nature compelled to test our own limits But what happens when this part comes to define us When journalist Jenny Valentish wrote Woman of Substances a book about addiction she noticed that people who treated drug taking like an Olympic sport would often hurl themselves into a pursuit like marathon running upon giving up What stayed constant was the need to push their boundaries Everything Harder Than Everyone Else follows people doing the things that most couldn't wouldn't or shouldn't By delving into their extreme behaviour there's a lot that us mere mortals can learn about the human condition There's the neuroscientist violating his brain to override his disgust response The athlete using childhood adversity as grist for the mill The wrestler turning restlessness into curated ultraviolence The architect hanging from hooks in her flesh to better get out of her head The performance artist seeking erasure by torturing his body The BDSM dom helping people flirt with death to feel more alive The bare knuckle boxer whose gnarliest opponent is her ego The dancer who could not separate her identity from her practice until at death's door The bodybuilder exacting order on a life that was once chaotic And the porn star turned fighter for whom sex and violence are two sides of the same coin Their insights lead Jenny on a compulsive sometimes reckless journey of immersion journalism

Cat's dearest friend Brian was not one of Doug's favorite people. Trouble followed him around. He was driving at the time of the crash. Now Cat would never be the same. Not as good as new, the doctor said. She's going to need help from all of you. In a moment, life unraveled. Dad said they might even lose the house. So he took a promotion to district manager, one he didn't want since it meant more time away from home. And Doug gave up his dream of college, took a job, and watched his girlfriend Jill head off to college as planned. Then came the questions. The accident happened out on the Hannegan, a road the opposite direction from the mall where they were supposed to be headed. And the policeman said Cat didn't have her seat belt on. But she always wore her seat belt. She remembered fastening it. Better if I'd died, said Cat from her wheelchair. But then she met Jase. And he introduced her to the marathon. Doug and Cat discover that with God's help, they can transcend their pain; that life can bloom again. This is a story of hope for all who face loss and ask why me. 60 Years of Women Artists in Guyana, 1928-1988, 1988

Developing Partnerships Kate Bedford, 2009. A nuanced critique of how the World Bank encourages gender norms through its policies. Developing Partnerships argues that financial institutions are key players in the global enforcement of gender and family expectations. By combining analysis of documents produced and sponsored by the World Bank with interviews of World Bank staffers and case studies, Kate Bedford presents a detailed examination of gender and sexuality in the policies of the world's largest and most influential development institution. Looking concurrently at economic and gender policy, Bedford connects reform of markets to reform of masculinities, loan agreements for export promotion to pamphlets for indigenous adolescents advising daily genital bathing, and attempts to strengthen institutions after the Washington Consensus to efforts to promote loving couplehood in response to economic crisis. In doing so, she reveals the shifting relationships between development and sexuality and the ways in which gender policy impacts debates about the future of neoliberalism. Providing a multilayered account of how gender-aware policies are conceived and implemented by the World Bank, Developing Partnerships demonstrates as well how institutional practices shape development. Angola Under the Portuguese Gerald J. Bender, 1980-01-01. The book is the first comprehensive study of race relations in Angola. It covers the entire five-century-long relationship between the peoples of Angola and Portugal. Portuguese imperial thinkers asserted that they were unique among European colonizers in their ability to establish and maintain egalitarian and non-discriminatory relationships with tropical peoples. This concept was elevated to a philosophical plateau and given the name Lusotropicalism. Propagated with fervor by Portuguese colonial thinkers, Lusotropical doctrines were widely accepted as being valid by twentieth-century diplomats and political thinkers in both Europe and the United States, many of whom believed that Portuguese colonialism in Africa would continue indefinitely. The evidence presented in this work indicates that Portuguese rule in Angola was deeply racist. This conclusion is based on a considerable body of data gleaned from archival sources, personal collections, and systematic interviewing of racially diverse Angolans and Portuguese functionaries in the colonial administration and the private sector Special emphasis is placed on devices that the Portuguese used to delude themselves and others about the realities of their attitudes and behavior as ruling elites The study concludes with an assessment of the impact of Lusotropical myths on independent Angola Rowdy Rousey Mike Straka,2015-12-01 Already a superstar in the MMA and entertainment worlds Ronda Rousey s devastating 34 second KO of Bethe Correia vaulted her into the mainstream like never before From her undefeated exploits in The Octagon to appearing on the cover of Sports Illustrated to starring in blockbuster film Furious 7 Rousey is the preeminent combination of athletic and pop culture stardom Rowdy Rousey is the ultimate tribute to this multi talented powerhouse Including nearly 100 full color photographs fans are provided a glimpse into this star s life from her days as a young Judo champion at the Olympics to her ascent to the top of MMA as the UFC champion This keepsake also explores Rousey s vast success outside of the ring through acting modeling and interacting with her great fans and looks ahead to her upcoming film roles and future UFC blockbuster fights

The Other Half of Gender Ian Bannon, Maria Correia, 2006-01-01 This book is an attempt to bring the gender and development debate full circle from a much needed focus on empowering women to a more comprehensive gender framework that considers gender as a system that affects both women and men The chapters in this book explore definitions of masculinity and male identities in a variety of social contexts drawing from experiences in Latin America the Caribbean and sub Saharan Africa It draws on a slowly emerging realization that attaining the vision of gender equality will be difficult if not impossible without changing the ways in which masculinities are defined and acted upon Although changing male gender norms will be a difficult and slow process we must begin by understanding how versions of masculinities are defined and acted upon Pedagogy of Hope Paulo Freire,2014-04-24 With the publication of Pedagogy of the Oppressed Paulo Freire established himself as one of the most important and radical educational thinkers of his time In Pedagogy of Hope Freire revisits the themes of his masterpiece the real world contexts that inspired them and their impact in that very world Freire s abiding concern for social justice and education in the developing world remains as timely and as inspiring as ever and is shaped by both his rigorous intellect and his boundless compassion Pedagogy of Hope is a testimonial to the inner vitality of generations denied prosperity and to the often silent generous strength of millions throughout the world who refuse to let hope be extinguished Crossing Histories and Ethnographies Ricardo Roque,Elizabeth G. Traube,2019-06-20 The key question for many anthropologists and historians today is not whether to cross the boundary between their disciplines but whether the idea of a disciplinary boundary should be sustained Reinterpreting the dynamic interplay between archive and field these essays propose a method for mutually productive crossings between historical and ethnographic research It engages critically with the colonial pasts of indigenous societies and examines how fieldwork and archival studies together lead to fruitful insights into the making of different colonial historicities Timor Leste s unusually long and in some ways unique colonial history is explored as a compelling case for these crossings Citizen Emperor Roderick J. Barman,1999 In the history of post colonial Latin America no person has held power so firmly and for so long as did Pedro II as emperor of Brazil This is the first full length biography in 60 years and the first in any language to make close use of Pedro II s diaries and family papers The Marrano Factory António José Saraiva,2001-10-01 The Marrano Factory argues that the Portuguese Inquisition s stated intention of extirpating heresies and purifying Portuguese Catholicism was a monumental hoax the true purpose of the Holy Office was the fabrication rather than the destruction of Judaizers The caste or race of the New Christians was in reality synonymous with the Portuguese mercantile middle class which conservative Portuguese society would not tolerate Most or nearly all of the New Christian Inquisitorial victims some 40 000 between 1540 and 1765 were unremarkable Catholics who often had minimal Jewish ancestry The Portuguese Inquisitorial procedure was not designed to distinguish between guilt and innocence but considered any defendant once categorized a New Christian a Judaizer First published in Portuguese in 1969 this is the only work by António José Saraiva available in English and the only single volume history devoted primarily to the working of the Portuguese Inquisition a most lucid and compact survey It presents Saraiva s 1975 revised history and analysis of the Portuguese Inquisition a 1971 interview with Professor Israel Salvator R vah Saraiva s dialogues and R vah s reply of the same year both
