A Dealer of Old Clothes Darryl Scriven, 2007-01-01 A Dealer of Old Clothes treats David Walker an early nineteenth century abolitionist as a philosophical sage In this text Scriven poses philosophical questions to Walker via his Appeal and solicits philosophical answers on topics such as race emancipatory struggle and the problem of evil

Gold Coast Diasporas Walter C. Rucker, 2015-09-28 Provocative and well written a must read for any scholar interested in African identity the transatlantic slave trade and resistance American Historical Review Although they came from distinct polities and peoples who spoke different languages slaves from the African Gold Coast were collectively identified by Europeans as Coromantee or Mina Why these ethnic labels were embraced and how they were utilized by enslaved Africans to develop new group identities is the subject of Walter C Rucker s absorbing study Rucker examines the social and political factors that contributed to the creation of New World ethnic identities and assesses the ways displaced Gold Coast Africans used familiar ideas about power as a means of understanding defining and resisting oppression He explains how performing Coromantee and Mina identity involved a common set of concerns and the creation of the ideological weapons necessary to resist the slavocracy These weapons included obeah powders charms and potions the evolution of peasant consciousness and the ennoblement of common people increasingly aggressive displays of masculinity and the empowerment of women as leaders spiritualists and warriors all of which marked sharp breaks or reformulations of patterns in their Gold Coast past One of the book s greatest strengths is the ways in which Rucker painstakingly traces how ethnic labels were appropriated recast and ultimately employed as a means to establish community bonds and resist oppression Chapters that focus on the creation of the Gold Coast diaspora religion and women make for a captivating text that will be of interest to graduate students and specialist readers Recommended Choice African Studies Association Annual Meeting. [Program] African Studies Association, God's Amazing Grace: Reconciling Four Centuries of African American Marriages and Families Terry M. Turner, 2017-12-18 God s Amazing Grace Reconciling Four Centuries of African American Marriages and Families is an insightful study that will be welcomed by thoughtful practitioners and all who ponder the African American family s complexity Readers familiar with the deep rich reservoir of African American family literature will recognize many of the black scholars referenced in this work Readers unfamiliar with these sources will be grateful to discover them and the effective use of disparate literature This work will become a different kind of guide for studying American history through the lens of the African American family Underneath all the research is the search for answers to the compelling questions Is there a correlation between slave owners denial to slaves God s design for the family and the familial chaos that has plagued African American families for more than a hundred fifty years And if there is connection what is it The author has brought something new to a familiar topic of discussion the Bible The unique moral compass that steered this study is solidly anchored in the bedrock of holy scripture In this work the history and sociology of African American marriages are examined in light of the questions asked by Holy Scripture In so doing Dr Turner skillfully attempts to help readers make sense of the story of black families in America May this book mark the beginning to a new reality for African American families Dr Willie Peterson senior executive advisor adjunct professor of Pastoral Ministries Dallas Theological Seminary Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association, 1993 List of members in v 1

Race and the Literary Encounter Lesley Larkin, 2015-12-14 What effect has the black literary imagination attempted to have on in Toni Morrison s words a race of readers that understands itself to be universal or race free How has black literature challenged the notion that reading is a race neutral act Race and the Literary Encounter takes as its focus several modern and contemporary African American narratives that not only narrate scenes of reading but also attempt to intervene in them The texts interrupt manage and manipulate employing thematic formal and performative strategies in order to multiply meanings for multiple readers teach new ways of reading and enable the emergence of antiracist reading subjects Analyzing works by James Weldon Johnson Zora Neale Hurston Ralph Ellison Jamaica Kincaid Percival Everett Sapphire and Toni Morrison Lesley Larkin covers a century of African American literature in search of the concepts and strategies that black writers have developed in order to address and theorize a diverse audience and outlines the special contributions modern and contemporary African American literature makes to the fields of reader ethics and antiracist literary pedagogy
