

A photograph of a person, likely a woman, sitting on the ground in a dry, arid landscape. She is sorting through a large pile of yellow grain, possibly wheat or corn, which is spread out on the ground. The person is wearing a light blue headscarf and a dark blue long-sleeved shirt. The ground is dry and dusty, with some sparse green vegetation and dry sticks scattered around. The background shows a similar dry landscape with more vegetation and a clear sky.

the rich and varied dimensions of Palestine To capture the diversity of Palestinian scholarship and to introduce readers to a mix of approaches and perspectives both internationally established and emerging Palestinian scholars have contributed The Handbook attempts to avoid narrowly framing Palestine around the Israeli Palestinian conflict incorporating postcolonial approaches attentive to a broader range of hitherto overlooked actors While a significant proportion of the Handbook examines the contemporary period it is divided up into four sections that together provide a detailed overview of the main developments in the region A historical section that contextualizes the complex historical formation of contemporary Palestine perhaps best regarded as a country but not yet a state A section exploring the society geography economy and identity of Palestine A section on the political significance of Palestine covering the dynamics between Jewish nationalism Zionism and Palestinian nationalism A final section on culture touching on architecture literature music cuisine education and contemporary art Providing a deep analysis of the Palestinian perspective the Handbook will prove valuable reading for anyone interested in the history politics and society of Palestine and the Middle East Palestine Sumaya Awad, Brian Bean, 2020-12-01 This essay collection presents a compelling and insightful analysis of the Palestinian freedom movement from a socialist perspective In Palestine A Socialist Introduction contributors examine a number of key aspects in the Palestinian struggle for liberation These essays contextualize the situation in today's polarized world and offer a socialist perspective on how full liberation can be won Through an internationalist anti imperialist lens this book explores the links between the struggle for freedom in the United States and that in Palestine and beyond Contributors examine both the historical and contemporary trajectory of the Palestine solidarity movement in order to glean lessons for today's organizers They argue that in order to achieve justice in Palestine the movement must take up the question of socialism regionally and internationally Contributors include Jihad Abusalim Shireen Akram Boshar Omar Barghouti Nada Elia Toufic Haddad Remi Kanazi Annie Levin Mostafa Omar Khury Petersen Smith and Daphna Thier Trans-Colonial Urban Space in Palestine Maha Samman, 2013-06-26 Taking a multidisciplinary approach to examine the dynamics of ethno national contestation and colonialism in Israel Palestine this book investigates the approaches for dealing with the colonial and post colonial urban space resituating them within the various theoretical frameworks in colonial urban studies The book uses Henry Lefebvre's three constituents of space perceived conceived and lived to analyse past and present colonial cases interactively with time It mixes the non temporal conceptual framework of analysis of colonialism using literature of previous colonial cases with the inter temporal abstract Lefebvrian concepts of space to produce an inter temporal re reading of them Israeli colonialism in the occupied areas of 1967 its contractions from Sinai and Gaza and the implications on the West Bank are analysed in detail By illustrating the transformations in colonial urban space at different temporal stages a new phase is proposed the trans colonial This provides a conceptual means to avoid the pitfalls of neo colonial and post colonial influences experienced in previous cases and the book goes on to highlight the implications of such a phase on the Palestinians It is an important contribution to studies on Middle East Politics and Urban Geography Hamas, Jihad and Popular Legitimacy Tristan Dunning, 2016-01-29 This book investigates the many faces of Hamas and examines its ongoing evolution as a resistance organisation in the context of the Israel Palestine conflict Specifically the work interrogates Hamas interpretation reinterpretation and application of the twin concepts of muqawama resistance and jihad striving in the name of God The text frames the movement's capacity to accrue popular legitimacy through its evolving resistance discourses centred on the notion of jihad and the practical applications thereof Moving beyond the dominant security orientated approaches to Hamas the book investigates the malleable nature of both resistance and jihad including their social symbolic political and ideational applications The diverse interpretations of these concepts allow Hamas to function as a comprehensive social movement Where possible this volume attempts to privilege first order or experiential knowledge emanating from the movement itself its political representatives and the Palestinian population in general Many of these accounts were collected by the author during fieldwork in the Middle East Not only does this work present new primary data but it also investigates a variety of contemporary empirical events related to Palestine and the Middle East This book offers an alternative way of viewing the movement's popular legitimacy grounded in theoretical empirical and ethnographic terms This book will be of much interest to students of Hamas political violence critical terrorism studies Middle Eastern politics security studies and IR in general
