Psychoanalysis of Evil Henry Kellerman, 2014-07-28 For all our knowledge of psychopathology and sociopathology and despite endless examinations of abuse and torture mass murder and genocide we still don't have a real handle on why evil exists where it derives from or why it is so ubiquitous A compelling synthesis of diverse schools of thought Psychoanalysis of Evil identifies the mental infrastructure of evil and deciphers its path from vile intent to malignant deeds Evil is defined as manufactured in the psyche the acting out of repressed wishes stemming from a toxic mix of harmful early experiences such as abuse and neglect profound anger negative personality factors and mechanisms such as projection This analysis brings startling clarity to seemingly familiar territory that is persons and events widely perceived as evil Strongly implied in this far reaching understanding is a call for more accurate forms of intervention and prevention as the author Reviews representations of evil from theological philosophical and psychoanalytic sources Locates the construction of evil in psychodynamic aspects of the psyche Translates vague abstractions of evil into recognizable concepts Exemplifies this theory with the lives and atrocities of Hitler and Stalin Applies psychoanalytic perspective to the genocides in Turkey Pakistan Cambodia and Rwanda Revisits Hannah Arendt's concept of the banality of evil Psychoanalysis of Evil holds a unique position in the literature and will gather considerable interest among readers in social psychology psychoanalysis sociology and political anthropology Historians of mass conflict should find it instructive as well

Beyond the Metafictional Mode Robert C. Spires, 2021-11-21 The term metafiction invaded the vocabulary of literary criticism around 1970 yet the textual strategies involved in turning fiction back onto itself can be traced through several centuries In this theoretical critical study Robert C Spires examines the nature of metafiction and chronicles its evolution in Spain from the time of Cervantes to the 1970s when the obsession with novelistic self commentary culminated in an important literary movement The critical portions of this study focus primarily on twentieth century works Included are analyses of Unamuno's Niebla Jarn's Locura y muerte de nadie and La novia del viento Torrente Ballester's Don Juan Cunqueiro's Un hombre que se parec a a Orestes and three novels from the self-referential movement of the 1970s Juan Goytisolo's Juan sin Tierra Luis Goytisolo's La colera de Aquiles and Mart n Gait e's El cuarto de atr s Seeking a stronger theoretical basis for his critical readings Spires offers a sharpened definition of the term metafiction The mode arises he declares through an intentional violation of the boundaries that normally separate the worlds of the author the fiction and the reader Building on theoretical foundations laid by Frye Scholes Genette and others Spires also proposes a literary paradigm that places metafiction in a position intermediate between fiction and literary theory These theoretical formulations place Spires's book in the forefront of critical thought At the same time his full scale analyses of Spanish
